government printing Department:
Government Printing Works
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

HIGH ALERT: SCAM WARNING!!!

TO ALL SUPPLIERS AND SERVICE PROVIDERS OF THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS

It has come to the attention of the GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS that there are certain unscrupulous companies and individuals who are defrauding unsuspecting businesses disguised as representatives of the Government Printing Works (GPW).

The scam involves the fraudsters using the letterhead of GPW to send out fake tender bids to companies and requests to supply equipment and goods.

Although the contact person's name on the letter may be of an existing official, the contact details on the letter are not the same as the Government Printing Works'. When searching on the Internet for the address of the company that has sent the fake tender document, the address does not exist.

The banking details are in a private name and not company name. Government will never ask you to deposit any funds for any business transaction. GPW has alerted the relevant law enforcement authorities to investigate this scam to protect legitimate businesses as well as the name of the organisation.

Example of e-mails these fraudsters are using:

PROCUREMENT@GPW-GOV.ORG

Should you suspect that you are a victim of a scam, you must urgently contact the police and inform the GPW.

GPW has an official email with the domain as @gpw.gov.za

Government e-mails DO NOT have org in their e-mail addresses. All of these fraudsters also use the same or very similar telephone numbers. Although such number with an area code 012 looks like a landline, it is not fixed to any property.

GPW will never send you an e-mail asking you to supply equipment and goods without a purchase/order number. GPW does not procure goods for another level of Government. The organisation will not be liable for actions that result in companies or individuals being resultant victims of such a scam.

Government Printing Works gives businesses the opportunity to supply goods and services through RFQ / Tendering process. In order to be eligible to bid to provide goods and services, suppliers must be registered on the National Treasury's Central Supplier Database (CSD). To be registered, they must meet all current legislative requirements (e.g. have a valid tax clearance certificate and be in good standing with the South African Revenue Services - SARS).

The tender process is managed through the Supply Chain Management (SCM) system of the department. SCM is highly regulated to minimise the risk of fraud, and to meet objectives which include value for money, open and effective competition, equitability, accountability, fair dealing, transparency and an ethical approach. Relevant legislation, regulations, policies, guidelines and instructions can be found on the tender's website.

Fake Tenders

National Treasury's CSD has launched the Government Order Scam campaign to combat fraudulent requests for quotes (RFQs). Such fraudulent requests have resulted in innocent companies losing money. We work hard at preventing and fighting fraud, but criminal activity is always a risk.

How tender scams work

There are many types of tender scams. Here are some of the more frequent scenarios:

Fraudsters use what appears to be government department stationery with fictitious logos and contact details to send a fake RFQ to a company to invite it to urgently supply goods. Shortly after the company has submitted its quote, it receives notification that it has won the tender. The company delivers the goods to someone who poses as an official or at a fake site. The Department has no idea of this transaction made in its name. The company is then never paid and suffers a loss.

OR

Fraudsters use what appears to be government department stationery with fictitious logos and contact details to send a fake RFQ to Company A to invite it to urgently supply goods. Typically, the tender specification is so unique that only Company B (a fictitious company created by the fraudster) can supply the goods in question.

Shortly after Company A has submitted its quote it receives notification that it has won the tender. Company A orders the goods and pays a deposit to the fictitious Company B. Once Company B receives the money, it disappears. Company A's money is stolen in the process.

Protect yourself from being scammed

- If you are registered on the supplier databases and you receive a request to tender or quote that seems to be from a government department, contact the department to confirm that the request is legitimate. Do not use the contact details on the tender document as these might be fraudulent.
- Compare tender details with those that appear in the Tender Bulletin, available online at www.gpwonline.co.za
- Make sure you familiarise yourself with how government procures goods and services. Visit the tender website for more information on how to tender.
- If you are uncomfortable about the request received, consider visiting the government department and/or the place of delivery and/or the service provider from whom you will be sourcing the goods.
- In the unlikely event that you are asked for a deposit to make a bid, contact the SCM unit of the department in question to ask whether this is in fact correct.

      8.1.5. Any additional notice information if applicable.

GOVERNMENT PRINTING WORKS - BUSINESS RULES

9. The electronic Adobe form will be taken as the primary source for the notice information to be published. Instructions that are on the email body or covering letter that contradicts the notice form content will not be considered. The information submitted on the electronic Adobe form will be published as-is.

10. To avoid duplicated publication of the same notice and double billing, Please submit your notice ONLY ONCE.

11. Notices brought to GPW by "walk-in" customers on electronic media can only be submitted in Adobe electronic form format. All "walk-in" customers with notices that are not on electronic Adobe forms will be routed to the Contact Centre where they will be assisted to complete the forms in the required format.

12. Should a customer submit a bulk submission of hard copy notices delivered by a messenger on behalf of any organisation e.g. newspaper publisher, the messenger will be referred back to the sender as the submission does not adhere to the submission rules.

QUOTATIONS

13. Quotations are valid until the next tariff change.

    13.1. Take note: GPW's annual tariff increase takes place on 1 April therefore any quotations issued, accepted and submitted for publication up to 31 March will keep the old tariff. For notices to be published from 1 April, a quotation must be obtained from GPW with the new tariffs. Where a tariff increase is implemented during the year, GPW endeavours to provide customers with 30 days' notice of such changes.

14. Each quotation has a unique number.

15. Form Content notices must be emailed to the eGazette Contact Centre for a quotation.

    15.1. The Adobe form supplied is uploaded by the Contact Centre Agent and the system automatically calculates the cost of your notice based on the layout/format of the content supplied.

    15.2. It is critical that these Adobe Forms are completed correctly and adhere to the guidelines as stipulated by GPW.

16. APPLICABLE ONLY TO GPW ACCOUNT HOLDERS:

    16.1. GPW Account Customers must provide a valid GPW account number to obtain a quotation.

    16.2. Accounts for GPW account customers must be active with sufficient credit to transact with GPW to submit notices.

        16.2.1. If you are unsure about or need to resolve the status of your account, please contact the GPW Finance Department prior to submitting your notices. (If the account status is not resolved prior to submission of your notice, the notice will be failed during the process).

17. APPLICABLE ONLY TO CASH CUSTOMERS:

    17.1. Cash customers doing bulk payments must use a single email address in order to use the same proof of payment for submitting multiple notices.

18. The responsibility lies with you, the customer, to ensure that the payment made for your notice(s) to be published is sufficient to cover the cost of the notice(s).

19. Each quotation will be associated with one proof of payment / purchase order / cash receipt.

    19.1. This means that the quotation number can only be used once to make a payment.

The copy of notice in layout format (previously known as proof-out) is only provided where requested, for Advertiser to see the notice in final Gazette layout. Should they find that the information submitted was incorrect, they should request for a notice cancellation and resubmit the corrected notice, subject to standard submission deadlines. The cancellation is also subject to the stages in the publishing process, i.e. If cancellation is received when production (printing process) has commenced, then the notice cannot be cancelled.

GOVERNMENT PRINTER INDEMNIFIED AGAINST LIABILITY

27. The Government Printer will assume no liability in respect of—

27.1. any delay in the publication of a notice or publication of such notice on any date other than that stipulated by the advertiser;

27.2. erroneous classification of a notice, or the placement of such notice in any section or under any heading other than the section or heading stipulated by the advertiser;

27.3. any editing, revision, omission, typographical errors or errors resulting from faint or indistinct copy.

LIABILITY OF ADVERTISER

28. Advertisers will be held liable for any compensation and costs arising from any action which may be instituted against the Government Printer in consequence of the publication of any notice.

CUSTOMER INQUIRIES

Many of our customers request immediate feedback/confirmation of notice placement in the gazette from our Contact Centre once they have submitted their notice – While GPW deems it one of their highest priorities and responsibilities to provide customers with this requested feedback and the best service at all times, we are only able to do so once we have started processing your notice submission.
GPW has a 2-working day turnaround time for processing notices received according to the business rules and deadline submissions.
Please keep this in mind when making inquiries about your notice submission at the Contact Centre.

29. Requests for information, quotations and inquiries must be sent to the Contact Centre ONLY.

30. Requests for Quotations (RFQs) should be received by the Contact Centre at least 2 working days before the submission deadline for that specific publication.

PAYMENT OF COST

31. The Request for Quotation for placement of the notice should be sent to the Gazette Contact Centre as indicated above, prior to submission of notice for advertising.

32. Payment should then be made, or Purchase Order prepared based on the received quotation, prior to the submission of the notice for advertising as these documents i.e. proof of payment or Purchase order will be required as part of the notice submission, as indicated earlier.

33. Every proof of payment must have a valid GPW quotation number as a reference on the proof of payment document.

34. Where there is any doubt about the cost of publication of a notice, and in the case of copy, an enquiry, accompanied by the relevant copy, should be addressed to the Gazette Contact Centre, Government Printing Works, Private Bag X85, Pretoria, 0001 email: info.egazette@gpw.gov.za before publication.

35. Overpayment resulting from miscalculation on the part of the advertiser of the cost of publication of a notice will not be refunded, unless the advertiser furnishes adequate reasons why such miscalculation occurred. In the event of underpayments, the difference will be recovered from the advertiser, and future notice(s) will not be published until such time as the full cost of such publication has been duly paid in cash or electronic funds transfer into the Government Printing Works banking account.

36. In the event of a notice being cancelled, a refund will be made only if no cost regarding the placing of the notice has been incurred by the Government Printing Works.

37. The Government Printing Works reserves the right to levy an additional charge in cases where notices, the cost of which has been calculated in accordance with the List of Fixed Tariff Rates, are subsequently found to be excessively lengthy or to contain overmuch or complicated tabulation.

PROOF OF PUBLICATION

38. Copies of any of the Government Gazette or Provincial Gazette can be downloaded from the Government Printing Works website www.gpwonline.co.za free of charge, should a proof of publication be required.

39. Printed copies may be ordered from the Publications department at the ruling price. The Government Printing Works will assume no liability for any failure to post or for any delay in despatching of such Government Gazette(s)

REPEAL OF THE PROVISO ON THE PRACTICAL MUSIC PROGRAMME OFFERED BY EXTERNAL MUSIC EXAMINATION BODIES

1. I, Siviwe Gwarube, Minister of Basic Education, hereby, in terms of s*ection 61(c)* and (d) of the South African Schools Act, 1996 (Act. No. 84 of 1996), call all members of the public and stakeholders to comment on the proposed amendment to the following Regulations:

    (a) Regulations Pertaining to the National Curriculum Statement Grades R-12, promulgated as Government Notice 1114 in Government Gazette No. 36041 of 28 December 2012 (Schedule 1); and

    (b) Regulations Pertaining to the Conduct, Administration and Management of the National Senior Certificate examination, promulgated as Government Regulation Notice No. R872 in Government Gazette No. 31337 of 29 August 2008 (Schedule 2).

2. The proposed amendments to the regulations referred to in paragraphs 1(a) and 1(b) are set out in the attached Schedules.

3. The full document shall be made available on the Departmental website: www.education.gov.za under Curriculum, National Curriculum Statement Grades R-12, NCS documents.

4. The call for comments will open for 30 days from the day of publication in a Government Gazette.

5. There has been a transitional arrangement to allow the affected institutions to continue offering the Practical Music Programme for the period (2024-2026) as a phase-out period to accommodate current learners in the system. The last year of certification of learners in the system will be in 2026.

6. The repeal of the Proviso on Practical Music Programme will become effective from 1 January 2027.

SASA SCHEDULE 2

DEFINITIONS

In this Schedule "the Regulations" means Regulations Pertaining to the Conduct, Administration and Management of the National Senior Certificate examination, promulgated as Government Regulation Notice No. R872 in Government Gazette No. 31337 of 29 August 2008, as amended -

GENERAL EXPLANATORY NOTE

[ ] Words in bold in square brackets indicate omissions from the existing policy.

Amendment of Annexure C: REQUIREMENTS FOR THE OFFERING OF MUSIC PROGRAMMES OF ACCREDITED ASSESSMENT BODIES

1. Annexure C is repealed in its entirety-

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE OFFERING OF MUSIC PROGRAMMES OF ACCREDITED ASSESSMENT BODIES

[A learner who requests to offer one of the approved music programmes offered by the assessment bodies listed in sub regulation 8, as one of the seven (7) compulsory subjects for the National Senior Certificate, or as an additional subject, i.e. as an eighth or ninth subject, may do so under the following conditions:

(1) The learner enrolls for the music programme in the year that he or she registers for Grade 10 for the first time.

(2) The selected music programme is registered as one of the Group B subjects of the National Senior Certificate, as contemplated in paragraph C2 of Annexure C of the document, National Senior Certificate: A qualification at Level 4 on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF), in January of the year of the first registration for Grade 10.

(3) A learner completes the theory component of the selected music programme prior to his or her registration, in Grade 10, for the National Senior Certificate.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

(4) A learner registers for a music programme, offered by an assessment body listed in sub regulation 8, at a minimum level of Grade 4, for the selected practical music examination in Grade 10, provided that such learner progresses to at least Grade 6 of that practical examination in his or her Grade 12-year, and that Grade 6 of the practical music examination and its theory component, offered by an assessment body, 74 are regarded as the minimum acceptance level for the National Senior Certificate (Table 1).

(5) Learners who register for the first time in Grade 10 for a music programme, offered by an assessment body, at a Grade 5 or Grade 6 level of the selected music programme, must progress to Grade 6 and 7 respectively in Grade 12, in order to fulfil the National Senior Certificate programme requirements, as contemplated in paragraph 9 of the document, National Senior Certificate: A qualification at Level 4 on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF).

(6) Learners who register for the first time in Grade 10 for a music programme, offered by an assessment body at Grade 7 level of the selected music programme, must offer these programmes for the three year period of Grades 10-12, in order to fulfil the National Senior Certificate programme requirements, as contemplated in paragraph 9 of the document, National Senior Certificate: A qualification at Level 4 on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF).

(7) Assessment bodies, which have been approved by the Minister to offer music as a subject, must submit the theory and practical marks of their candidates separately. However, the final result obtained by a learner in the music programme offered by such assessment body, must be calculated as a combination of both the practical music examination and its theory component.

NOTICE TO LANGEBAAN LAGOON MARINE PROTECTED AREA, SIXTEEN MILE BEACH MARINE PROTECTED AREA, JUTTEN ISLAND MARINE PROTECTED AREA, MALGAS ISLAND MARINE PROTECTED AREA, MARCUS ISLAND MARINE PROTECTED AREA, ASSOCIATED ISLANDS AND LANGEBAAN LAGOON STAKEHOLDERS

Notice is hereby given to all interested and affected parties that SANParks is developing the management plan for the Langebaan Lagoon, Langebaan Lagoon Marine Protected Area (MPA), Sixteen Mile Beach MPA, Jutten Island MPA, Malgas Island MPA, Marcus Island MPA and associated islands in terms of sections 39, 40 and 41 of the National Environmental Management: Protected Areas Act, 2003 (Act No. 57 of 2003) (NEM: PAA) and section 34 of the National Environmental Management: Integrated Coastal Management Act, 2008 (Act No. 24 of 2008) (NEM: ICMA). The purpose of these management plan is to guide the management of the lagoon, MPAs and associated islands for the period 2026 – 2030.

The NEM: PAA and NEM: ICMA require that interested or affected persons be given the opportunity to comment on the management plan and situation assessment report. To facilitate participation, electronic versions of these documents will be available from 05 June 2026 on the SANParks website www.sanparks.org/conservation/park_man/draft_plans_public_comment.php or scan to access.

The respective documents may also be viewed at the Langebaan Public Library, c/o Oostewal and Breë Streets in Langebaan from 05 June 2026.

Stakeholders are welcome to submit written comments electronically to andre.spies@sanparks.org.

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

NO. 7559 5 June 2026

(ANNUAL SINGLE EXIT PRICE ADJUSTMENT (SEPA) OF MEDICINES AND SCHEDULED SUBSTANCES FOR THE YEAR 2027)

In terms of Regulation 8(1) of the Regulations Relating to the Transparent Pricing System for Medicines and Scheduled Substances of the Medicines and Related Substances Act, (No.101 of 1965) as amended, the Minister of Health is required to determine on an annual basis, the extent to which medicine prices may be adjusted. In making this determination the Minister considers the following provisions of

(a) the average CPI for the preceding year;
(b) the average PPI for the preceding year;
(c) changes in the rates of foreign exchange and purchasing power parity;
(d) international pricing information relating to medicines and scheduled substances;
(e) comments received from interested persons in terms of regulation 8(2); and
(f) the need to ensure the availability, affordability and quality of medicines and scheduled substances in the Republic.

Based on the comments received from previous annual reviews on the adjustment methodology, stakeholders have recommended weightings in the review of the annual Single Exit Price Adjustment (SEPA) expressed as follows:

I. 70% CPI + 30% Forex
II. 50% CPI + 50% Forex
III. 100% CPI
IV. 50% PPI + 50% CPI

In accordance with Regulation 8(1) (e) read together with regulation 8(2), stakeholders are however encouraged to propose alternative formula proposals once per annual SEP adjustment cycle. Such proposals must be supported by relevant evidence to qualify for consideration in the forthcoming annual SEPA determinations. Furthermore, it shall be expressly noted that any alternative proposals submitted shall only be eligible for consideration in the subsequent review year.

The Minister in making his/her determination for the next annual adjustment cycle may consider the weighting(s) as a guide in addition to the provisions of Regulation 8(1) as listed above.

The official published data to be used in the determination of SEPA with respect to regulation 8(1) would be obtained from official publications by the Statistics South Africa at www.statssa.gov.za and the South African Reserve Bank at www.resbank.co.za. The review period is from August 2025 to July 2026, commencing at the end of the previous cycle.

All interested persons are invited to submit any substantiated comments demonstrating their rational and supporting evidence with regards to the factors considered when determining 2027 SEPA in terms of the provisions in regulation 8(1) as listed above. Submissions should be sent via e-mail to sepupdates@health.gov.za, within three months from the date of publication of this Notice to:

NO. 7560 5 June 2026

AMENDMENT TO THE REGULATIONS ON THE ASSESSMENT PROCESSES AND PROCEDURES FOR COMMUNITY EDUCATION AND TRAINING, NATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS FRAMEWORK, LEVEL 1

I, Mr Kgwaridi Buti Manamela, Minister of Higher Education and Training in terms of the Continuing Education and Training Act, 2006 (No. 67 of 2008) as amended, and as read with section 25 (2) (d) of the Further Education and Training Amendment, 2013 (Act No. 1of 2013) hereby amend the Regulations on the Assessment Processes and Procedures for Community Education and Training, National Qualifications Framework, Level 1 (Government Gazette No. 36463 of 15 May 2013) for public comments.

1. convert the status of the June examinations into a supplementary examination;

2. repeal paragraphs of the Regulations as they pertain to the external assessment and examinations processes and procedures for the exit examination at NQF level 1 as contained in the Schedule. These paragraphs have been updated through the National Policy Pertaining to the Conduct, Administration and Management of the examinations in Colleges established in terms of the Continuing Education and Training act, 2006 (Act no 16 of 2006), Gazette No 45649, 17 December 2021 (National Policy).

Submissions and inputs should be submitted to the Chief Director: Education, Training, Development and Assessment via email to: Diale.D@dhet.gov.za not later than thirty (30) days after publication of this notice. Enquiries can be directed to the following official: Mr David Diale on cell: 067 986 4072.

CONVERSION OF THE JUNE EXAMINATION INTO A SUPPLEMENTARY EXAMINATION

1. The Regulations on the Assessment Processes and Procedures for Community Education and Training, National Qualifications Framework, Level 1 provide for the assessment processes for Basic Adult Education sub-levels 1-3 and NQF level 1.

2. The Regulations provide directives for assessment of programmes for Adult Education and Training (AET) programmes from sub-levels 1-3 and at NQF level 1.

3. The Regulations recognize two full examinations, one in May/June and the other in October/November annually. All the examination and quality assurance processes need to be adhered to in line with the National Policy and the Directives for Quality Assurance of Umalusi, the Quality Council.

4. A new National Policy on examinations has been developed which updates examinations activities for all examinations undertaken by the Department of Higher Education and Training ("the Department") as an Assessment Body, quality assured by Umalusi.

5. The National Policy pertaining to the conduct, administration and management of College examinations established, declared or registered in terms of the Continuing Education and Training Act, 2006 (Act No. 16 of 2006) has updated Chapters 3 and 4 of the Regulations pertaining to external assessment and examinations processes and procedures for the exit examination at NQF level 1.

6. Paragraphs 3.2 (4), 3.3, 3.4 (6), (10), (11) and 3.6 (2) of Chapter 3 are deleted. The whole of Chapter 4 of the Regulations is deleted.

7. The need to amend the Regulations stems from the current practices of CET Colleges of using the June examinations as a supplementary examination for November candidates. Whilst the Department and Umalusi approach the June examination as a full examination and therefore prepare processes accordingly, the number of candidates does not justify continuing with the June examination as a full examination.

8. Current institutional practices in CET Colleges utilise the June examination as a supplementary examination. The GETC: ABET: Academic Curriculum qualification, the current policy and practices regarding Site Based Assessment reinforce the need for the June examinations to be declared a supplementary examination. All candidates writing the June examinations do so without being required to re-do Site Based Assessment tasks.

9. The status of the June examination is therefore converted into a supplementary examination with effect from June 2026.

1. Introduction and Background

South Africa's township and rural economy is of interest to government, policymakers, and the private sector by virtue of its market size, diversity, social value and impact on neighbouring cities and the country as a whole. Recent studies estimate the annual turnover in townships to be worth more than R100 billion, highlighting its significant contribution to the national GDP[1]. It has the potential to make a significant contribution to poverty alleviation, job creation, economic growth, and social stability. The annual turnover in rural areas is not a single, easily defined figure as it encompasses various sectors and industries with varying financial performance but the agricultural and related services sector, which is a key economic driver in rural areas, reported a turnover of R494.7 billion in 2023[2].

It is in this context that the South African government recognises the importance of township and rural MSMEs, co-operatives and informal traders and their contribution to economic growth, employment creation and poverty alleviation. Townships and rural areas forms a vital part of the South African economy where value is created and exchanged in monetary and non-monitory terms.

Albeit the growth potential of townships and rural areas, these areas are plagued with prevailing structural and social barriers preventing their optimal growth and development. Underdeveloped infrastructure; poor or lack of access to services, public amenities and government services are root causes compelling focused and structured, comprehensive support interventions to unlock and exploit the true development potential of these areas to enable equitable grow and development opportunities. This will greatly contribute towards reducing the National Development Plan (NDP) triple challenge of poverty, inequality and unemployment.

According to the 2021 census 24.35% of South Africa's population stays in townships with a further 32.15% in rural areas, i.e. bringing the total for townships and rural areas to 56.5%. According to Stats SA (2016 – 2021), migration from mainly rural provinces has increased and rural populations have declined by 15% in the last twenty years. According to the United Nations 71.3% of the South African population will live in urban areas by 2030, reaching 80% by 2050. These statistics is provided to illustrate the importance and interlinkage between townships and rural areas and their importance in terms of providing livelihoods to the majority of South African citizens at the time of the development of the policy.

The Stats SA Quarterly Labour Force Survey (QLFS) for the first quarter of 2025 reported that South Africa's official unemployment rate has reached 32.9%, this is an increase from 31,9% in the fourth quarter of 2024. The number of jobs lost since the fourth quarter of 2024 is 291 000 of which women accounted for 77% of the jobs lost. The unemployment rate amongst young individuals stood at 46.1% for the first quarter of 2025, an increase of 151 000 young person's being unemployed since the fourth quarter of 2024. Unemployment is especially high amongst those with lower levels of education and experience residing in historically excluded areas. According to the World Bank, poverty levels in townships and rural areas are high, for townships estimated it was to be at 55.5% in 2022, deepening the economic divide. One of the major contributing factors is the persistent high rate of unemployed of young people who are Not Employed, Educated or Trained (NEET), which exceeds 30% for the past ten years. This translate to more than 3 million young people aged 15 to 24 who are NEET, of which the majority resides in townships and rural areas. According to the Inequality Trends in South Africa report release by Stats SA, South Africa's Gini coefficient is set at 0.65 in 2025 making it the most unequal society in the world.

The majority of MSMEs in townships and rural areas are established out of necessity and remain informal. It is estimated that around 65% of all township enterprises are informal. These informal township and rural enterprises thus play a complementary role to formal retailers and wholesalers, enabling access to a growing sector of low-income earners that cumulatively have sizable buying power.[3] According to 2024 QLFS data the informal sector accounted for 19.5% of total employment in South Africa.

Employment opportunities in townships and rural areas are predominantly in agriculture, informal trade and public services. While not predominant other sectors providing job opportunities include tourism, mining and construction. Predominant sectors in the informal economy are retail and personal services. Diversification through the revitalisation of industrial parks and supporting small enterprises to enter high growth sectors such as renewable energy, financial services, transport, Information Technology, mining and mineral beneficiation, tourism and healthcare will create economic growth, create job opportunities and improve livelihoods.

Policy makers, government institutions and private sector partners focussed on entrepreneurship and small enterprises are expected to be at the forefront of enterprise development within the broader township and rural economy in order to assist businesses through the provision of support and services. This will create a favourable environment for the growth and sustainability of small enterprises. The development of the townships and rural economy, through amongst other the revitalisation of the industrial and manufacturing capabilities will boost job creation for job seekers and attract new investment boosting market expansion and unlocking business opportunities for entrepreneurs.

1.1 Policy issue identification

South Africa lacks a national policy to guide the sustainable development of small enterprises in townships and rural areas, to reduce unemployment, reduce poverty and support the overall development of township and rural economies. Provinces such as Gauteng and KwaZulu Natal (KZN) have recognised the importance of the township economy and have developed policies and legislation to guide investments and economic development in townships.

Township and Rural Economic Development (TRED) is a complex developmental intervention requiring a coherent policy approach, well-coordinated efforts and a "whole of government" approach. Fundamental to the success of a Township and Rural Economy Development and Revitalisation (TREDaR) policy is the social value derived from the development of these under developed areas that exceeds the financial value.

There are several risks associated with not having a national policy:

- Fragmented approach across the three spheres of government towards township and rural economy development and revitalisation
- The main risk is the uneven allocation of public resources across different levels of government, or worse, the potential or continued neglect of township and rural economic development and revitalisation.
- Without a national policy to create a shared vision, establishing the necessary partnerships between government, the private sector, and non-governmental will make it difficult to improve collaborations and the coordination of resources to ensure efficiency and effectiveness.
- Lack of comprehensive data and empirical evidence on the development needs and the monitoring of the impact of interventions made remain a challenge, a national policy and coherent approach will enable a transparent and collative data gathering process, to improve knowledge management, and "better data[4]" for improved policy and programme development.

To overcome these policy gaps, the DSBD has developed a concept note on Township Economy Revitalisation. This concept note was informed by engagements with critical stakeholders led to approval within the DSBD. The concept note was submitted to Cabinet, who requested that the DSBD further consult, especially with business chambers, on the development of a policy.

Townships and rural areas are linked through the movement of people, goods and services, creating an economic and social interdependence. People living in rural areas migrate to townships for employment whilst rural areas often supply food products to townships. Migrants pin townships working in townships or urban areas often also send money back to their families in rural areas, supporting the rural economy. Because of the intrinsic link between townships and rural areas and because of the similarities in challenges faced by entrepreneurs, small enterprises[5] and informal traders in townships and rural areas, it was agreed to include rural areas in the development of a township and rural economy development and revitalisation policy.

1.2 Background

As acknowledged in the KZN Township and Rural Economies Revitalisation Strategy (TRERS), South Africa's geographic landscape, like in most countries of the world has distinct topographical urban and rural areas and rural and urban poverty have for more than a century been two sides of a single coin. A World Bank study[6] on the economics of South African townships highlights the fact that townships are not connected to urban systems, i.e. spatially, socially and structurally, and often also disconnected from the rural economy. It is important to understand what is meant by townships and rural areas as well as township and rural economies. It is, however, also important to note that townships and rural areas are not homogeneous, they are economically diverse, informed by their location, access to economic opportunities and resources and it is important that the policy will reflect and respond to the distinct dynamics of the different townships and rural areas.

1.2.1 Understanding the concepts "township", "rural" and "township and rural economies" in South Africa

There is no agreed national definition for a township. The Gauteng Township Economic Development Act defines a township as designated township enterprise zones and includes an urban, peri-urban or rural living area which a) at any time from the late 19th century until 27 April 1994, was reserved for Black, Coloured, or Indian people or b) has been developed for historically disadvantaged persons after 27 April 2994; or c) has been predominantly occupied by historically disadvantaged people; and d) is currently and economically deprived area.

The KZN TRERS refers to township as a dense urban settlement usually developed on the outskirts of the town mostly removed from industrial and commercial activity away from [4] Aligned to pillar 1 of the NISED Strategic Framework.

[5] The definition for small enterprise covers all entity types, i.e. also co-operatives. The thresholds determining the different size categories of small enterprises differentiate small enterprises, i.e. micro, small and medium from large enterprises. Annexure B provide details on the criteria for different size categories of small enterprises.

people's places of work and traditionally created to ensure that black, coloured and Indian people were removed from easy access to equal socio-economic opportunities.

TRERS refer to rural areas as large under-developed, vast spaces speckled with individual homesteads, settlements, and land in non-urban areas where there are limited economic community services and often dominated by forms of subsistence farming. Rural areas vary from commercial farms, small towns to large rural settlements and commercial land areas with homesteads under traditional authority leadership.

It also important to understand township planning pre- and post-apartheid and well as the geographic land scape of informal settlements. The table below provide some insight into the geographic landscape of pre- and post-apartheid townships and informal settlements.

Apartheid Township	Townships were created as "dormitory" settlements for black labour to serve white industries and employers in core urban areas. Business formation and ownership were prohibited, except for very basic activities. The township layout and infrastructure were designed for simple residential purposes. Examples include. Tokoza (in Johannesburg) and Gugulethu (in Cape Town).
Post – Apartheid Township	These have been shaped by the national housing programme, resulting in extensive sprawling residential settlements on cheap, peripheral land. Many Reconstruction and Development Programme (RDP) or Breaking New Ground (BNG) townships lack public facilities and social amenities. Examples include parts of Soshanguve (in Tshwane) and Delft (in Cape Town).
Informal Settlement	Informal settlements are housing areas that are not regulated by government and often located on land that is not designated for housing. Examples of townships providing homes to people that are poor and displaced that started as informal settlements include Diepsloot (in Johannesburg) and Kosovo/Philippi (in Cape Town).

The Integrated Rural Development Sector Strategy (IRDSS), 2023 adopted the National Spatial Development Framework (2022) definition for rural areas in terms of which rural areas are defined as areas outside cities and towns. Economic activities in these areas are in most cases intrinsically tied to natural resource use and/or beneficiation, and consists of agriculture, fishing, forestry, nature conservation, eco-tourism and mining. There are rural areas that are densely populated, but without a) the distinct and diverse nodal areas of dense economic activity in the secondary and tertiary sectors, or b) the amenities typically associated with urban areas, which is a remnant of colonial and apartheid spatial planning and the creation of Bantustans.

Statistics South Africa defines rural areas as any areas that is not classified urban. Rural areas are subdivided into tribal areas and commercial farms. Rural areas vary widely according to population density, levels of modern agriculture and types of social governance (Atkins, 2014).

In terms of the National Spatial Development Framework the term township has two meanings in the South African context. Firstly, it is a colloquial name given to a residential township which were established during the colonial and apartheid eras for temporary occupation by black South African on the outskirts of towns and cities with only the most basic of amenities and infrastructure provided. Secondly, it is the legal name given to new human settlements and extensions to existing settlements in existing settlements in planning legislation (e.g. "Sunnyside Extension 3"), dating back to the first Town Planning Ordinances passed in the early 1900s, and also appearing in the more recent Spatial Planning and Land Use Management Act, Act 16 of 2013 (SPLUMA) SPLUMA defines township as an area of land divided into erven, and may include public places and roads indicated as such on a general plan.

The concept document developed by the DSBD refers to townships as dynamic yet complex political, social and economic spaces in South Africa today. They accommodate most of the urban population in a small physical footprint. High population density, poverty, unemployment, and related social ills make them the top priority for inclusive socio–economic growth and development in South Africa.

Approximately 40% of the working-age population and 60% of the unemployed population stays in townships in South Africa[7]. The latter continue to build on the apartheid legacy of townships being dormitories for cheap labour as townships and informal settlements, given their proximity to metropolitan areas and small towns, is seen as the first place of residence for new rural and cross-border migrants.

There is no clear and universally accepted definition of 'township or rural economies". The concept paper used the (admittedly limited) definition in the Gauteng Township Economic Revitalisation Strategy (2014-2019). A 'township economy' refers to the microeconomic and related activities taking place within areas broadly defined as "townships". This includes enterprises and markets based in the townships which are enterprises operated by township entrepreneurs to meet primarily the needs of township communities. Therefore, these can be understood as 'township enterprises' as distinguished from those operated by entrepreneurs outside the townships. The term 'township' refers to old, new, formal and informal human settlements that are predominantly African, Coloured and Indian characterised by high levels of poverty, unemployment and low incomes as well as long distance from the main centres of economic activity. Township enterprises have different legal forms – for-profit and not-for-profit enterprises registered under the Companies Act, and co-operative enterprises registered under the Co-operatives Act. However, most township enterprises have high rates of informality.

1.2.2 Township development in South Africa

Historically, townships were developed and implemented through the apartheid system, between 1948 and 1994 in South Africa, which institutionally segregated blacks, Indians and coloured from white population. The apartheid system forced the relocation of Black, Indians and Coloured population into segregated areas. These segregated areas were deliberately deprived of facilities, infrastructure, and commercial investment.

During apartheid, townships effectively functioned as dormitories, with minimal commercial or industrial activity. It physically separated these communities from economic opportunities and essential services. In recent times new urban townships have emerged characterised by rapid growth, large informal settlements, proximity to metropolitan areas, and their role as the first stop for new rural and cross-border migrants. The lack of industrial development, in township settings has led to severely limited economic opportunities and continues to perpetuate socio-economic disparities. Zoning regulations and the clustered nature of townships left very little room to have industrial activities save low commercial activities meant to assist the basic needs of these residential areas. The appearance of entrepreneurs in these settlements, shantytowns was for the sole purpose of meeting the bare needs of food and clothing. However, recently big retailers and commercial outlets have mushroomed in most townships with intense competition that has at times, led to the shutdown of township grocery stores that emerged in the early 1970's.

Even after the advent of democracy, South Africa remains one of the world's most unequal countries, marked by significant income disparities and an economy that lacks inclusivity for all economic agents with far-reaching impacts on the livelihoods and overall development which came about because of the apartheid legacies. These densely populated communities/areas often lack adequate infrastructure, services, and economic opportunities, and they are often marginalized and underserved. However, despite such challenges, townships have in recent decades, evolved into vibrant centres of entrepreneurship, cultural preservation, resilience, and innovation. It shouldn't be ruled out that these developments were pioneered by strong and resilient early entrepreneurs who defied the apartheid odds and developed vibrant businesses such as the Black chain in Soweto and other businesses in major townships. This has led to the emergence of the township economy, which demonstrates the power of harnessing local potential to drive national growth, inclusivity, and sustainable development.

With the advent of democracy, there has been pockets of township development, however township economy has since struggled to grow and develop fast enough to address the persistent challenges of unemployment, inequality, and poverty. Unemployment rates in townships remain high compared to the national average[8]. Despite challenges, there is also some emerging evidence that there is a thriving economy in townships, often underestimated in official statistics[9].

Townships in South Africa are home to a significant portion of the country's population. According to various sources about 21.7 million people live in the 532 townships across the country. Gauteng has the highest township population, with approximately 8.9 million residents, followed by the Western Cape with approximately 3.2 million people.[10]

In most of South African township settings, the majority of the businesses is accounted for by grocery, food and liquor services, followed by local services such as hair salons/barber shops, traditional healers, mechanical/electrical repairs, recycling, churches and early childhood education centers. In contrast, manufacturing activities makes up only a slight portion of all enterprises operating in township and they are rarely linked to wider value chains and external markets[11].

South Africa's township economy has over the years sparked interest to government, policymakers, and the private sector by virtue of its market size, diversity, and impact on neighbouring cities and the country. South African government recognises the importance of Micro Small and Medium (MSME) in township and rural enterprises and their significant contribution to poverty alleviation, job creation, economic growth, and social stability. Revitalising township and rural economies are crucial for the generation of jobs and opportunities for young people who are not in education, employment, or training (NEETs). Promoting entrepreneurship and ensuring the inclusion of marginalised groups in the mainstream economy has been critical for the development and implementation of different government programmes.

Consequently, in 2022, Gauteng Province became the first province to enact legislation specifically aimed at directing public resources towards township businesses. KwaZulu Natal developed a Townships and Rural Economies Revitalisation Strategy (TRERS) also in 2022. More information on the Gauteng township legislation and KZN TRERS policy as well as several other interventions is provided under point 1.3 - Legislative and Policy Content Environment.

Despite several efforts, support for Township Economic Development (TED) has been both insufficient and uncoordinated. This fragmented and uncoordinated approach provides a compelling argument for the development of a National Policy on Township and Rural Economy Revitalisation.

1.2.3 International perspective on townships

Township and rural economy are not a phenomenon that is only applicable to South Africa as a developing country embedded by scars from the apartheid system, there are similarities and differences identified by different authors with other countries. Brazil which also forms part of the BRICS countries, share several similarities regarding the social and urban configuration of their urban slums' territories with the South African structure for townships.

A study[12] conducted in 2014, comparing experiences of Rio de Janeiro's favelas and Johannesburg townships indicated that Brazil and South Africa, share a common historical background in terms of townships/urban slums. This is in relation to the delayed industrialization process accompanied by intense migration of workforce to the periphery of the urban centres, where there was poor access to infrastructure and basic public services to accommodate the intense flow of people.

According to the World Bank study on the economics of South African townships, townships and especially informal settlements are similar to the slumps find in most developing countries with the only difference being that townships in South Africa were developed through central planning and purpose. The factors that led to the development of slumps or favelas are impoverished workers or migrants seeking job opportunities in urban areas.

During the industrial revolution so called blue-collar towns developed around factories and other industries that require manual labour. As farming became industrialised, it led to unemployment in rural areas and people moved to work in factories. Studies confirm a close correlation between the cost of living and the average income of blue coloured workers working and living in the different so-called blue-collar towns.

1.3 Legislative and policy content environment

The promotion of township and rural economic development and revitalisation is not to be viewed in isolation from wider national development policies, constitutional mandates, and government programmes. For the South African Township and Rural Economy Development and Revitalisation (TREDaR) Policy to realize its objectives, there has to be strategic relations between the different national and provincial departments as well as municipalities and their implementing agencies coupled with private partnerships. National and provincial departments responsible for economic development have enacted legislation and strategies with the objective of supporting the growth of small enterprises, including co-operatives. With the exception of the Gauteng Township Economic Development Act, 2022 (Act No. 2 of 2022), national and provincial government has not legislated specifically for township economic development, needless to mention rural development. These are clubbed and embedded within the realm of the existing policies and legislation without specific identification of the needs, gaps and opportunities that can be unearthed in township and rural spaces.

1.3.1 Constitutional responsibilities

The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (1996), here on further referred to as "the Constitution," in terms of Chapter 3, co-operative government, requires all three spheres of [12] Rampini, J. and Vilela, C., 2014. For Less Segregated BRICS-Cities: The experiences of Rio de Janeiro's favelas and Johannesburg's townships public policies. Rio de Janeiro: BRICS Policy Center/BRICS-Urbe. Available online government and all organs of state within each sphere share a common constitutional duty to ensure compliance to the principles of a co-operative government. This, amongst other specifically requires cooperation to preserve the peace, national unity and indivisibility of the Republic, provide basic and other services to the people and communities within their areas of jurisdictions, and co-operate with one another in mutual trust and good faith by informing one another of and consulting one another on matters of common interest and coordinating their actions and legislation with one another.

In terms of Chapter 14, schedule 4, part A of the Constitution, rural development falls under functional areas of concurrent national and provincial legislative competency. At a national level, the function is located within the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD) mandated for policy, strategy, legislation, programmes, and oversight in respect of implementation and reporting. At provincial level, the function is located under Provincial Departments of Agriculture and Rural Development.

Chapter 7 of the Constitution establishes the role of municipalities in local government and their responsibilities to townships. (Section 152) mandates local government to perform its powers and functions by:

a) Providing a democratic and accountable government for local communities;
b) Ensuring the provision of services to communities in a sustainable manner (Integrated Development Plans (IDPs);
c) Promoting social and economic development (Local economic and social development plans and programmes;
d) Promoting a safe and healthy environment; and
e) Encouraging and facilitating involvement of communities and community organisations in the matters of local government.

Local governments or municipalities have the power to:

a) Develop and adopt policies, plans, strategies, and programmes;
b) Establish and maintain administration;
c) Set targets for delivery;
d) Implement national and provincial legislation;
e) Prepare, approve and implement budgets; and
f) Set and collect service charges and other fees.

Chapter 7 of the Constitution also required the Department of Co-operative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA) to support and strengthen the capacity of municipalities to manage their affairs, exercise their powers and perform their functions.

Section 139 of the Constitution empowers national and provincial governments to intervene in a municipality that cannot or does not fulfil its constitutional obligations.

Section 22 of the Constitution protects the freedom of trade, occupation, and profession for all citizens. It allows people to choose their career path and start business without undue interference. Although the Constitution does not explicitly state a dedicated “small business development” clause, it is interpreted as the government’s responsibility to create an environment where citizens can exercise their right to start businesses through supportive policies.

1.3.2 The Local Government: Municipal System Act 32 of 2000

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Section 3(3) requires, local government, for the purpose co-operative government to

a) develop common approaches for local government as a distinct sphere of government
b) enhance co-operation, mutual assistance and sharing of resources among municipalities
c) find solutions for problems relating to local government generally and
d) facilitate compliance with the principles of co-operative government and intergovernmental relations.

1.3.3 Intergovernmental Relations Framework, Act 13 2005

The Intergovernmental Relations Framework, Act 13 of 2005 aims to establish a framework for national government, provincial governments and local governments to promote and facilitate intergovernmental relations to provide for mechanisms and procedures to facilitate the settlement of intergovernmental disputes and to provide for matters connected therewith.

1.3.4 1995 White Paper on the National Strategy for the Development and promotion of Small Business in South Africa

The 1995 White paper confirmed the importance of small, micro and medium enterprises to address the challenges of job, creation, economic growth and equity. The white paper emphasised the need for a systematic national approach to create an enabling environment for small enterprises, it set the objectives and principles of the strategy amongst other, the need for a support framework, called for institutional reform, i.e. establishment of the Advisory Council (Advisory Body) and Development Agency, and an enabling legislative framework.

The National Small Enterprise Act (NSEA), Act 102 for 1996 is the primary legislation that promotes small enterprise development in South Africa. NSEA defines a small enterprise and set the definitional thresholds for the different size categories of small enterprises, enabled the establishment of Advisory Council, the establishment of the Small Enterprise Development Agency, calls for the development of a national strategy to support small enterprise development, requires regular reviews on the state of the development of the sector and allows for the development of guidelines to promote small business development.

The Small Enterprise Amendment Act 21 of 2024 established a new entity called the Small Enterprise Development and Finance Agency (SEDFA) incorporating the Small Enterprise Development Agency (Seda), the Small Enterprise Finance Agency (sefa) and the Co-operatives Bank Development Agency (CBDA) into a single agency; it calls for the establishment of the Office of the Small Enterprise Ombud; enables the Minister to declare certain practices in relation to small enterprises to be prohibited unfair trading practices; amend the definition for a small enterprise and replace the schedule to the principal Act setting the different size categories of small enterprises with regulations.

1.3.6 National Small Enterprise Support Strategy

The first National Small Enterprise Support Strategy was called the Integrated Support Strategy for Entrepreneurship and Small Enterprises (ISPESE), 2004 to 2014. ISPESE was based on three pillars, i.e. a) increase supply for financial and non-financial support services, b) creating demand for small enterprise products and services and c) reduce small enterprise regulatory constraints.

A 2018 evaluation of the ISPESE revealed implementation challenges and a lack of collaboration and coordination amongst the different spheres of government. The strategic focus of the National Integrated Small Enterprise Development (NISED) Strategic Framework, approved by the Cabinet and proclaimed at the National Small Enterprise Support Strategy in February 2023, is on improved collaboration, coordination and partnerships. The NISED Strategic Framework guide and provide leadership towards a well-coordinated and collective ecosystem approach with shared responsibilities, commitments and mutual benefits. It provide guidance on improved knowledge management to enable better, evidence based, policies, tailormade targeted programmes based on partnerships informed by collective, well-coordinated interventions.

The reform of policies, laws and regulations to enable small enterprise growth and efficient governance is a key focus area, i.e. outcome 2 of the NISED Strategic Framework. To ensure the effective and efficient implementation of the policy it is imperative to, aligned with the National Policy Development Framework[13], ensure collaboration, cocreation and ownerships amongst all spheres of government and other role-players.

1.3.7 National Informal Business Upliftment Strategy (NIBUS)

NIBUS was developed in response to the policy and programme gap in respect of the informal business sector. The aim was to enable a policy, regulatory and programming environment promoting and supporting a developmental continuum for the graduation of informal businesses into the mainstream of South Africa's formal economy. This required the building of an enabling environment for enterprise support and coordinate intergovernmental and stakeholder relations.

The delivery mechanisms for the strategy are a) the Informal Micro-enterprise development programme and (IMEDP) and b) Shared Economic Infrastructure Facility (SEIF).

1.3.8 DSBD Intergovernmental relations Strategy

The DSBD IGR Strategy aim to filiate co-ordination in the implementation of policies and legislation. The objectives amongst other include consulting other organs of state, co-ordinating actions with regard to the implementation of policies and legislation, avoiding necessary wasteful duplication and jurisdictional contests and consulat, co-operate and share information.

1.3.9 The Reimagined Industrial Strategy (RIS) and Township and Rural Economy Development Framework

The RIS provides a multi-prong approach to industrial development and highlights the revitalisation of townships as one of the five engines of growth with a particular objective of achieving economic inclusion. In response to the challenges of under development in townships and rural areas, the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (the dtic) has also developed a coherent Township and Rural Economy Development Framework to support township and rural enterprise hubs, zones and clusters in partnership with provinces, development financial institutions and the private sector. This is a base to align to at national level with a strong view to coordinate and integrate all efforts towards township economy revitalisation programme. The programme of action emanating from this policy should take these into account.

1.3.10 Gauteng Township Economic Development Act

Gauteng is the first and currently still the only province that has a Township Economic Development Act. The Gauteng Township Development Act aims to promote economic growth and equality in the Gauteng province. It was signed into law in April 2022.

Goals	Strategies	Implementation
a) Create a more inclusive economy. b) Increase access to economic opportunities. c) Diversify ownership patterns. d) Promote entrepreneurship. e) Create jobs. f) Improve living conditions.	a) Focus on sectors with growth potential. b) Promote productive activities. c) Support township-based enterprises. d) Create a conducive regulatory environment. e) Release land for business purposes. f) Provide access to finance, training, and equipment.	a) The act applies to all organs of state and municipalities in provinces. b) The act is cumulative and take precedence over other laws that regulate township economic development. c) The act requires monitoring and evaluation. d) The act encourages partnerships between government and other stakeholders.

1.3.11 KwaZulu Natal (KZN) Township and Rural Economies Revitalisation Strategy (TRERS)

The vision of TRERS is to radically transform KZN's township and rural economies into a diversified, inclusive, and sustainable wealth generating economic system that promotes micro, small, medium and large enterprise development and actively contribute to KZN;s economic and social development.

The strategic goals of the strategy are as follows:

Create products and sustainable economies	To ensure that townships and rural economies become key players in the provincial economy as sustainable fully functioning economic systems
Grow township and rural enterprises	Make sure that townships and rural enterprises have access to appropriate finance and investments, including creation of own financial systems
Develop inclusive and capacitated communities	To result in shared growth and involve more citizens in economically productive activities that will serve to benefit all
A regulatory framework conducive to townships and rural development	To ensure spatial equity and economic transformation in townships and rural areas

TRERS is based on 7 pillars:
a) Access to commercial property and transformations
b) Infrastructure development
c) Access to digital innovation
d) Informal economy
e) Agriculture
f) Tourism and creative industry
g) Integrated support of existing businesses and manufacturing

1.3.12 Integrated Rural Sector Development Sector Strategy (IRDSS)

The IRDSS is a Department of Agriculture strategy that seeks to address the following problems: (i) triple challenges of high poverty levels, inequalities, discriminatory practices and inequitable distribution of income resulting in high levels of urban migration; (ii) Lack of common understanding of rural development mandate by various government and non-governmental stakeholders; (ii) Lack of investment in and maintenance of road, rail and communication infrastructure to revitalise rural economic development through industrialisation, agricultural production, mining, processing and value chain management, and access to markets; and (iii) Poor intergovernmental relations and rural governance guided by the District Development Model (One Plan), resulting in non-integrated and non-coordinated interventions by the three spheres of government departments and private sector addressing socio-economic challenges in rural areas located in the 44 districts and eight metropolitan municipalities.

The objectives of the Integrated Rural Development Sector Strategy are to:

a) Provide a guiding framework and principles for executing government's vision, plans and budget relating to rural development and the revitalisation of the rural economy through the Comprehensive Rural Development Programme and Rural Development Sector Plans.
b) Effective utilisation of all funding instruments across all spheres of government to foster an integrated approach to the revitalisation of the rural areas.
c) Institutionalise rural development and strengthen intergovernmental sector coordination through the District Development Model (One Plan) with clear monitoring and reporting systems. All sector departments to share their plans and budgets for implementation through the DDM One Plan.
d) Accelerate investment in and maintenance of critical infrastructure: road, rail and port basic services, digital connectivity, education, health and human settlement infrastructure to revitalise rural economic development and facilitate industrialisation, agricultural production, agro-processing, value chain management and access to markets.
e) Support integrated spatial planning, land use management and economic integration.

1.3.13 Integrated Urban Development Framework (IUDF)

The IUDF is coordinated by COGTA. It seek to foster a shared understanding across government and society about how best to manage urbanisation and achieve the goals of economic development, job creation and improved living conditions. The IUDF was developed in to deal with increased urbanisation and in response to the NDP requirement for meaningful and measurable progress in creating more functionally integrated, balanced and vibrant urban settlements. The IUDF provides a framework for reorganising the urban system so that cities and towns can become more inclusive, safe productive and resource efficient.

1.3.14 Incentive programmes providing support to township and rural base enterprises.

Annexure D contains a list of existing support programmes that benefit enterprise development in townships and rural areas.

1.4 Brief overview of the policy development process followed

Creating an enabling and supportive environment for township and rural enterprises to thrive is challenging and requires a collaborative and integrated approach. Therefore, in line with the National Policy Development Framework, a substantive approach to consultation and engagement was adopted during the policy development process to ensure participation by entrepreneurs, business owners, representative bodies, representatives from the three spheres of government and all other relevant role-players.

During the policy-making process, the engagement spectrum includes various levels of stakeholder involvement across five stages:

- Inform: This initial stage focuses on providing stakeholders with balanced and objective evidence to assist them in understanding the problem, alternatives, opportunities, and solutions.
- Consult: At this stage, stakeholders are invited to provide feedback on analysis, alternatives, and decisions between alternatives. This consultation allows for the gathering of diverse perspectives and insights, ensuring that the policy considers a wide range of evidence, views and experiences.
- Involve: In this phase, stakeholders are more actively engaged in the policy-making process. Their input is directly incorporated into the development of the policy. Follow up workshops, focus groups, and roundtable discussions are typically used to involve stakeholders, ensuring that their contributions significantly influence the policy outcomes.
- Collaborate: Collaboration involves partnering with stakeholders in preparing for the implementation of the agreed policy and its programmes. This includes joint planning and the formulation of integrated responses/programmes.
- Empower: The final stage of the engagement spectrum empowers stakeholders by placing decision-making authority in their hands. This might involve delegating certain decisions to implementers and being agile to the needs of beneficiaries while ensuring that policy objectives are met. Empowerment ensures that those affected by the policy have a direct influence over its outcomes and sustainability.

Evidence based policy

In addition to research and data the citizen participatory evidence method was applied to validate and verify the actual problem statement against the pragmatic situation experienced by the MSMEs operating in the townships and rural areas by conducting provincial and national policy dialogues to engage with stakeholders across South Africa.

Early consultation and policy co-creation

Conducting the provincial and national policy dialogues enabled robust early consultation processes with affected stakeholders in the townships and rural areas and gives opportunities for MSMEs in these areas to inform analysis and come up with policy solutions that will then achieve the policy objectives.

For effective policy co-creation, stakeholder mapping was initiated to ensure that relevant stakeholders are invited in the policy dialogues to ensure functional consultations and policy core creation is realised. Since consultation is not a once off linear process in the policy development, for the provincial and national policy dialogue undertaken, the policy dialogue outcome reports were shared with all relevant stakeholders, and further inputs and comments were allowed to enhance the policy reports.

Socio-Economic Impact Assessment (SEIAS)

To gauge the impact of the problem, an initial socio-economic Impact assessment report was developed to quantify on how the problem is hindering efforts to address the triple challenges that is; poverty, inequality ad unemployment in South Africa. In initial SEIAS has been developed in a full SEIAS report and submitted to the Presidency for consideration.

Policy Design

Post receiving policy responses aimed at addressing the identified problem from the stakeholder consultation sessions, the theory of change was formulated through clear activities, output, outcome and impact.

Draft policy process
The draft policy document on South African Township and Rural Economy Development and Revitalisation was developed in accordance with the guidelines outlined in the national policy development framework of 2020.

Consultation with stakeholders
Apart from a national policy dialogue hosted in Gauteng policy dialogues have also been hosted in the Free State, North West, Limpopo and Western Cape. The dialogues were hybrid, allowing entrepreneurs and small enterprises to attend, and focused on validating the concept note and getting provincial inputs and learnings on Micro, Small, Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) operating in townships. See table below for more detail.

The DSBD partnered with the provinces for the hosting of the provincial policy dialogues. Guidance was provided in terms of stakeholders to be invited but the provincial departments responsible for economic development, as the provincial custodians of small enterprise development did the actual invitations. Apart from provincial government and local government representatives responsible for policy and programme development and the implementation of policies and programmes as well as the monitoring and evaluation of progress and the impact of policies and programmes care was taken to ensure representation by business chambers, research institutions, business development support experts, development financial institutions, industry representative bodies, entrepreneurs and small business owners.

The first panel discussion is amongst government representatives, business development service providers and financial institutions as well as business chambers focussing on sharing challenges, experiences, lessons and best practices with regard to policy and programme development and implementation. It also assist to ensure role clarity. The second panel discussion is amongst entrepreneurs, small business owners and industry representative bodies and academia sharing their challenges, experiences, learnings and best practices. The last day focus on identifying policy responses to the problem dimensions identified during the panel discussions on day one. The policy responses takes into consideration costs, risks, benefits and identify winners and losers. This is done in breakaway groups.

Following the provincial policy dialogues a consultation session was also hosted with some of the national departments implicated in the policy responses. The dialogues was attended by 25 in person participants and 14 on-line participants. More consultations needs to be done with national departments that were not available to attend the consultation session with national departments.

Given the importance of access to finance and the level of financial exclusion still experienced by especially the lower-end MSMEs a dedicated workshop focussing on regulatory constraints to funding the lower-end MSME was hosted on 25 March 2025. The objectives were to a) detail the specific regulatory challenges impacting on the ability of funders, private and Development Financial Institutions (DFIs) to assist MSMEs at the lower end of the market b) proposing various options and solutions to address the regulatory challenges and c) agreeing on a practical plan of action and way forward commitments by all parties to address the specific priority challenges. It was an on-line session, and the session was attended by 191 representatives from private financial institutions and DFIs.

One of the panel discussions of the National Presidential Summit hosted on 21 and 22 November 2024 focused on township and rural economy development and revitalisation. The outcomes from this panel discussion was also incorporated in key challenges and policy considerations for the development of the Township and Rural Economy and Revitalisation Policy.

2. Problem Statement

2.1 Underlying policy statement

Notwithstanding the high growth potential of townships and rural areas and despite various government support interventions to develop, revitalise and grow township and rural economies, townships and rural areas remain underdeveloped, spatially disconnected and alienated from mainstream economic activity and economic opportunities, broadening the inequality divide and deepening the persistence of concentrated poverty, unemployment and lack of economic transformation. High levels of unemployment giving rise to crime syndicates further lead to the collapse of economic development initiatives.

Township and rural based enterprises continue to experience historical challenges such as insufficient and inadequate infrastructure; inconsistent to no service delivery, i.e. water, sanitation, electricity and communication networks; public amenities and government services, i.e. limited access to quality education and health care; complex and burdensome regulations; lack of training; and financial exclusion.

Townships and rural areas are regarded as high-risk for investments due to factors such as inadequate infrastructure, skills shortage, market access limitations and inability of small enterprises to secure funding. The combination of skills shortage and market access limitations as well as the gap between skills possessed and market needs hinders economic development. Entrepreneurs furthermore lack the necessary business and technical skills to manage and grow businesses effectively.

Small enterprises operating in townships and rural areas remain largely financially excluded due to unrealistic eligibility requirements, limited collateral, lack of the formalisation of businesses, low to no profitability and insufficient skills and knowledge.

The number of local entrepreneurs is decreasing within townships and rural areas due to the proliferation of foreign-owned businesses in townships. This exacerbates the high levels of unemployed South Africans due to foreign-owned businesses employing foreign labour. This creates an already tense atmosphere, especially within township areas but also in rural areas due to competing for limited resources available to communities.

These challenges prohibit investment opportunities and growth, perpetuating a cycle of poverty and unemployment.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Given the diverse challenges and interconnectedness of these challenges the interventions required will require dedicated focus and resources across all spheres of government, private sector and civil society partnerships to support the development of integrated and sustainable township and rural economic development and revitalisation.

2.2 Problem statements for different policy components

From the concept document, public dialogues hosted and the panel discussion at the National Presidential Summit the following problem statements for the different policy component have been identified. Although there were strong similarities, the importance of the critical nature of the challenges differed from province to province but the following three were identified as the most critical, a) illegal foreigners trading in fake and illicit goods and creating and unequitable market opportunities, b) non-compliance with regulatory requirements and no enforcement of these regulatory requirements and c) fragmented and uncoordinated government support interventions. See Annexure F. These problems represent empirical evidence obtained through stakeholder consultations and supported through documented evidence as per references throughout draft policy.

2.2.1 Illegal foreign nationals and trade in illicit and counterfeit goods

Foreign nationals dominate in many of the townships and rural areas, especially with regard to spaza shops, i.e. it is reported that between 70% and 95% of spaza shops are owned foreigner nationals. It is further reported that in many instances these foreign nationals are illegal immigrants, and their business operations do not comply with regulatory requirements, i.e. trade in illicit and counterfeit goods, non-compliance to health and safety, labour laws and are not tax compliant. It has also been reported that no action is taken by authorities against these illegal foreign nationals on matters of noncompliance as well as trade in illicit and counterfeit goods. In response, local authorities indicated that even if they do issue fines, the fines are not taking seriously because when they do go to court, the courts rejects the fines due to non-compliance with judicial requirements. The foreign business owners often also do not employ South African born nationalists. It was anticipated that the December 2024 announced decreed by the President that all spaza shops and food handling facilities within municipalities in which they operate will assist in improving compliance by spaza shops and food handling enterprises.

Illegal migrants are also often employed in the farming sector and service-based companies, displacing employment opportunities.

Aligned to the business licensing policy, certain sectors should be reserved for South African citizens and diversity an inclusion should be encouraged through preferential business licensing.

2.2.2 Crime, extortion and lawlessness

Crime and extortion is a widespread problem in most townships and rural areas, affecting business owners and individuals. It is not only the direct cost through the loss of merchandise or money, but it also adds indirect costs. This, amongst other, includes security expenses, repairs needed after burglary, insurance costs, and temporary business closure.

High levels of unemployment gives rise to uncontrollable crime syndicates that often lead to the collapse of economic development initiatives. Crime and extortions is also a major deterrent to household and private sector investment.

The deeper implications of the prominent levels of crime and extortions in townships and rural areas foster a culture of lawlessness, if remained ungoverned it may develop in full fledge revolt, xenophobia and unrest, destabilising the already low levels of economic activity in these areas.

2.2.3 Uncoordinated and fragmented government intervention across the three spheres of government

Lack of strategic alignment and coordination amongst government and the private sector and collaboration on interventions aimed at supporting small enterprise development in townships and rural areas leads to inefficient resource allocations, poor service delivery resulting in failure and minimal to no impact to improve the economic reality of small enterprises operating in these areas.

Need a coordinated structure to provide strategic direction and planning across the three spheres of government as well as a framework on incentives programmes targeting townships and rural areas to provide a roadmap on a theory of action and logic model to guide the optimal attainment of intended outcomes through collective efforts.

An incentives framework for township and rural development will specify interventions and proposed mechanisms for making a difference and helps to articulate where and how change needs to happen to achieve the intended outcomes. The mechanisms help to bring together different stakeholders and ecosystem players to work together towards achieving the intended outcomes collectively in the most efficient and effective manner, set the stage for strategic action, provides a clear rationale for programme activities that can facilitate broader partnerships with stakeholders wanting to achieve the same common outcomes, allows for greater participation, the sharing of risks and benefits through the application of best practices and community co-ownership.

2.2.4 Role clarity and collaboration amongst role players

To avoid duplication, confusion and to ensure the effective utilization of limited resources and efficient service delivery it is important to ensure role clarity amongst the different stakeholders.

2.2.5 Lack of access to research information and data to support business development as well as information of the different government incentives and programmes

Entrepreneurs and small enterprise owners do not have the time or resources to do or acquire research or gather data and information to improve their business efficiencies, products, services, and market opportunities. There is a need to centralise government research information, data as well as information on the different government programmes and incentives available to small enterprises operating in townships and rural areas.

2.2.6 Non-compliance to legislative obligations, regulatory and policy requirements

Compliance is the cornerstone of a functioning society in the realm of rules and regulations. Entrepreneurs and small enterprises owners are often not aware of legislative obligations, regulatory requirements, and industry standards that they are required to comply with. This not only create risks in terms of the integrity of the business operations of the enterprise owners but also create an elevated risk in terms of health and safety. This has become evident even during the spaza shop registration process and is prevalent in many of the township retail businesses. Non-compliance are often not intentional or malicious but as a result of ignorance and unawareness.

2.2.7 Regulatory barriers

Costly and time-consuming compliance requirements hampers the ease of doing business for small enterprises, resulting in missed business opportunities and exclusion from accessing government support interventions. These regulatory barriers cuts across all three spheres of government. Reducing regulatory burdens and improving business processes through digitisation and ensuring effective communication and compliance support should be prioritised. Interventions should ease compliance and improve pathways to formalisation, regulatory certainty and competitive financial offerings.

2.2.8 High propensity of informality in townships and rural areas

Unemployment, high regulatory burdens, and limited access to formal sector opportunities are some of the main contributing factors for informality in, especially townships and rural areas. Compliance requirements to access loans or to benefit from government support interventions to improve capabilities, capacities and the scalability of these enterprises limits economic growth and job creation. Lack of assets or collateral and credit data not only limits access to credit but increase credit cost which in return lower growth prospects and returns.

Interventions also need to focus on capacity building that will improve financial readiness or "bankability" of small enterprises to enable access to competitive financial offerings and accessibility to government support interventions.

2.2.9 Barriers to access finance – financial exclusion

Small enterprises operating in townships and rural remain financially excluded due unrealistic funding eligibility requirements such as no credit history, lack of assets that could be used as collateral, has limited resources and insufficient financial skills and knowledge. The un-coordinated approach on financial support furthermore result in failure of sustaining development initiatives. The prohibitive cost of debt financing furthermore often makes available finance options unaffordable and ineffective.

According to Finfind there is a total of at least 306 providers of financial services offering a minimum of 600 financial services products. The challenge is not a shortage of funding, but rather unrealistic eligibility requirements combined with the funding readiness of small enterprises. Finfind further established that formal micro businesses i.e. registered businesses with a turnover of less than R1m per annum, account for 86.5% of the businesses applying for funding. They create the majority of the jobs (80.5%) yet remain the most underserviced.

A Finfind report on access to funding by 20 000 township-based businesses provide insights on funding needs, sectors, loan sizes, average turnover, employment etc. as per the table below. The report confirms that 67.9% of these enterprises are in Gauteng, Western Cape and KwaZulu Natal. The full report is attached as Annexure F.

The vast majority of these businesses are private companies, i.e. 84.6%, 7% are close corporations, 5% sole proprietors, 1.4% partnerships and 0.9% primary co-operatives. Only 48.2% of these businesses are profitable and only 36.3% have collateral.

Need to review existing early-stage incentives and funds targeting marginalised township and rural entrepreneurs to improve coordination to maximise and leverage existing public and philanthropic funds to crowd in funding form Development Financial Institutions (DFIs) and private co-investment. Blended financial structures, including grants are important for risk sharing and to make private participation viable at scale, i.e. allowing private capital to enter markets and sectors where the risk-return profile would otherwise be prohibitive, thereby enabling the achievement of sustainable development goals. Grants and concessional loans should be used as part of blending to improve affordability and derisk funding support given the challenges associated with early stage marginalised enterprises in townships and rural areas. Special consideration should be given to concessional loans, patient capital blended financial structures and catalytic funds to support high impact driven township and rural enterprises. Consideration should also be given to the formalisation and integration of community investment mechanisms to enable active community participation in the shaping of funding priorities, contribute skills, local knowhow and reinforcing community ownerships. Need to expand credit innovation through the use of alternative and inclusive data.

2.2.10 Skills shortage, Incubation and Business Development Support

Townships and rural areas experience a significant skills shortage across various sectors but especially in high demand areas such as ICT, engineering, healthcare, and education. Townships and rural areas lack adequate access to post-schooling and tertiary education facilities, and skilled professionals are drawn to better opportunities in urban areas.

Incubation and Business Development Support (IBDS) is not aligned to the business needs of small enterprises operating in townships and rural areas. Accessing Business Development Support (BDS) is further restricted due to limited infrastructure, outreach and the lack of service hubs in townships and rural areas. Language is also often a barrier. The BDS ecosystem furthermore lacks a national accreditation framework to ensure consistent service quality across the different service providers.

Although traditional pathways to skills development via institutions of higher learning remain important to obtain skills there is a high demand of technical skills. Informal pathways of skills development through on the job training is valued as a more effective method for employment development. Equally important is social values such as decent work ethic, honesty, reliability, and trustworthiness. Work ethics, social connections and part work experience are key requirements for job opportunities given the current labour market opportunities in townships and rural areas. There is a need for continues learning and adult education[14].

Aligned to the National Entrepreneurship Strategy (NES) there is a need to have a deliberate focus on the development of an entrepreneurship culture in townships and rural areas through structured interventions and the building of entrepreneurial skills and capabilities.

2.2.11 Spatial disconnect and lack of access to Market opportunities.

Townships and rural areas are sapientially disconnected from employment and economic opportunities and small enterprises operating in townships and rural areas face significant barriers in accessing higher value market opportunities and access to value chains are inhibited, making it difficult for these small enterprises to participate in the formal economy. Lack of access to information limits the ability to identify niche market opportunities and to understand market operations. They are excluded from higher value business networks and digital market opportunities, especially market opportunities outside their immediate operating environments, i.e. townships and rural areas.

There needs to be a deliberate focus on promoting inclusive growth by empowering township and rural enterprises to participate in the economy through ESD as well as industrial opportunities in SEZs.

Market aggregators that provide platforms that brings together products, services, and information into a single user-friendly interface needs to be provided. These aggregators can be digital or physical. Services provided through these aggregators must ensure quality assurance to meet minimum market standards, customer needs and expectations and built credibility and trust.

The use of the co-operative business model to reduce costs through shared services, improve bargaining power and improve cost competitiveness must be explored.

2.2.12 Access to digital connectivity and digitisation

Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in townships and rural areas remain insufficient and under developed, isolating entrepreneurs and business owners from business opportunities. Challenges include access to reliable electricity, availability of broadband infrastructure and access to affordable fast-speed connectivity and the cost of data. High levels of crime in townships and rural areas furthermore discourage investment in the required infrastructure. Also see ICT infrastructure challenges under 2.2.13.

2.2.13 Inadequate infrastructure

Inadequate infrastructure ranging from clean, reliable pipe water; proper well maintained sanitation systems and facilities; inadequate electricity supply; lack of access and poor road networks; limited healthcare facilities; poor quality housing; insufficient, reliable, safe and affordable transport and very importantly needs based business infrastructure and access to internet hamper and stifle enterprise development and entrepreneurship in townships and rural areas.

Small-scale manufacturing in townships and rural areas faces significant infrastructure challenges, hindering growth and access to technology. Key areas include inadequate access to reliable electricity, limited transportation networks, and insufficient digital infrastructure. The latter restrict the adoption of new technologies and the expansion of businesses, into new growth manufacturing sectors such as renewable energy solutions, 3D printing and additive manufacturing, cloud computing and software as a service, mobile technology, and e-commerce platforms as well as precision agriculture and smart farming technologies.

Contributing factors to these challenges include funding limitations, poor planning and management, lack of capacity or technical expertise to manage and maintain infrastructure, corruption, i.e. misuse of funding allocated to infrastructure and geographic challenges, i.e. distance and difficult terrain that significantly increase the maintenance of infrastructure in rural areas.

Infrastructure challenges in townships and rural areas not only limited to physical infrastructure such roads, facilities and amenities but also lack of investment in communication infrastructure to improve internet and mobile phone connectivity that limits access to information and communication networks.

Inadequate infrastructure is a significant obstacle to investment and economic development, hindering both local businesses to operate efficiently, impacting productivity and profitability as well as broader economic growth through external investments.

2.2.14 Access to land

Lack of formal land tenure, limited availability of arable land, complex ownership structures, gender inequality in land rights, lack of proper land registration, bureaucratic hurdles in accessing land, customary laws restricting access, conflicts arising from competing land claims and limited access to finance for property acquisition are key challenges in especially rural areas but also relevant to townships. Lack of land ownerships in townships and rural areas historically led to and continues to reinforce economic inequality.

2.2.15 Access to facilities, buildings and commercial property

Lack of accessible and affordable business spaces with basic services linked to business opportunities, i.e. clients and marketing opportunities remain problematic. This also include operating spaces in or near shopping malls in townships and rural areas as well as a lack of facilities for logistics and distribution supplies leads to insufficient supply and service delivery in townships and rural areas.

The need for access to commercial property with title deeds has also been stressed as an important requirement to enable equity for entrepreneurs and business owners operating in townships and rural areas.

2.2.16 Spatial planning limitations

Spatial distance from economic opportunities has huge economic consequences for small business owners and entrepreneurs. Lack of accessible, adequate and affordable business spaces and inadequate zoning regulations that limit business opportunities whilst delays on obtaining SPLUMA certification for new development or rezoning deter investments aimed at creating new business development opportunities in townships and rural areas.

2.2.17 Shopping centres in townships and rural areas

The establishment of shopping centres and malls in townships and rural areas created sustainable job opportunities and improved the spending of money by residents within townships and rural areas rather than so-called “outshopping” at shopping centres in more urbanised areas. Research confirmed that small retails within a 2 km radius adopted to the competition. These research findings also identified various interventions that would further improve the competitiveness of these smaller retailers.

During the consultations the complaints where not against shopping centres being established in townships but rather the lack of accessibility for township and rural entrepreneurs and businesses owners to access operating space in these shopping centres or access to viable operating spaces in the immediate vicinity of these shopping centres.

2.2.18 Necessity entrepreneurs and job seekers

It was pointed out that a sizeable number of township and rural entrepreneurs are "necessity entrepreneurs" and that there is a need to create manufacturing opportunities in townships and rural areas that can provide job opportunities to job seekers. The revitalisation of Special Economic Zones (SEZ) was specifically mentioned.

2.2.19 Sector focus, transformation, and diversification to high growth green sectors, changing to demand-led supply.

Efforts to build township and rural economies cannot be delinked from broader efforts to grow and industrialise the South African economy. In other words, integrated with broader industrial and localisation policies aimed at structural transformation, diversification, decarbonization and digitalization.

Township and rural economic development strategies and interventions must also be built around industry-specific local growth drivers. In other words, be demand-led and based on an appreciation of comparative advantage, capabilities and how these can be developed to build competitiveness in township and rural enterprises.

Based on this understanding, it is suggested that 12 sectors are prioritised. These include (1) Energy and the Green Economy; (2) Transportation and Logistics; (3) Digital Services; (4) Tourism and Hospitality; (5) Agriculture, Food, and Agri-Business; (6) Community Services; (7) Financial and Business Services; (8) Construction and the Built Environment; (9) Manufacturing; (10) Mining, (11) Cultural and Creative Industries; and (12) Industrial Hemp and Cannabis.

These sectors have been selected based upon a combination of existing strengths, and areas of new comparative advantage in township and rural economies which could be actualised through appropriate aggregation and policy support.

They are aimed at building upon and consolidating on economic activities which already exist in the township and rural economy, as well as better linking the township and rural economy to broader efforts around localization and reindustrialization, as outlined in the various industry masterplans.

MSMEs and co-operatives in these sectors will become the engines for growth, employment and livelihoods in marginalized townships and rural areas if appropriately supported with scaled policy support and new instruments to address policy gaps, including financing, infrastructure, business skills and productivity improvement interventions, and market activation.

3. Policy vision and objectives

3.1 Rational for policy, strategic linkages and relevance

The policy is aimed at strengthening and developing a well-coordinated support ecosystem for small enterprise and entrepreneurship development to develop sustainable small enterprises as well as vibrant and thriving townships and rural economies integrated with the mainstream economy, able to make a significant contribution to GDP and alleviate the triple changes of poverty, unemployment and inequality.

The policy is responsive to and enabled by the following legislative provisions and the NDP.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

1) The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996 – freedom of trade, occupation and profession.
2) The NDP – contribute to reducing the triple challenges poverty, inequality and unemployment.
3) National Small Enterprise Amendment Act, Act 102 of 1996 as amended (inclusive of Amendment Act 21 of 2024) – Create a support ecosystem for small enterprises.
4) The Co-operatives Act (No. 14 of 2005) as amended, and the Co-operative Banks Act (No. 40 of 2007) as amended – Create a support ecosystem for co-operatives.
5) The Intergovernmental Relations Framework Act (No.13 of 2005), as amended, including regulations framing the institutionalisation of the District Development Model. Need for cooperations and NISED Strategic Framework, has been proclaimed in February 2023, in terms of the National Small Enterprise Act, Act 102 of 1996, as the National Small Enterprise Support Strategy, defined as the national policy in respect of small enterprise support. The NISED Strategic Framework is a strategic framework to coordinate governments efforts in partnership with the private sector by building a supportive ecosystem for small enterprises to thrive and grow i.e. a plan to lead an integrated well-coordinated ecosystem approach to small enterprise or micro small and medium enterprise (MSME) development. It consists of 4 intervention pillars.

a) Pillar one: Information on MSMEs with continues monitoring and evaluation and learning (better data)
b) Pillar two: Policies, laws and regulations reformed to enable MSME growth and efficient governance (better policies, laws and regulations)
c) Pillar three: Effective support services of delivery for MSME growth both financial and non-financial (better services)
d) Pillar four: Coordinated government with strengthened private sector partnerships for MSME growth (strengthened public private partnerships).

Given the uniqueness of township and rural enterprises the TREDaR calls specific interventions in terms of existing department strategies and policies, i.e. Small Enterprise and Co-operative Development policy, the Business Licensing Policy etc.

The Township and Rural Economy Development and Revitalisation (TREDaR) Policy applies to all ecosystem service role players supporting the promotion and development of small enterprises operating in township and rural areas through the provisioning of support services.

3.2 Vision

To create thriving, diversified and inclusive townships and rural economies, integrated with the mainstream economy, with sustainable small enterprises, co-operatives and residents have equal access to opportunities for entrepreneurship, employment, growth and sustainable livelihoods.

3.3 Policy objectives

To achieve this vision the TREDaR policy will focus on the following objectives:

1) Foster the development of sustainable township and rural entrepreneurs and small enterprises, including co-operatives, through needs-based skills development, incubation and business development support; diversification to high growth sectors changing the focus to demand supply as well as market access and market linkages opportunities thereby generating sustainable development, growth and income sources, creating meaningful employment opportunities to local residents and build resilient livelihoods through sustainable entrepreneurial ventures – bridging the social and spatial disconnect.

2) Support the development of vibrant and thriving townships and rural economies able attract new investments, fully integrated with the mainstream economy. This include provisioning basic services, appropriate infrastructure, access to internet connectivity, etc.
3) Guide and provide leadership towards a well-coordinated and collective ecosystem approach to small enterprise development in townships and rural areas across all spheres of government a) to avoid duplication, ensure complementarity and the provision of comprehensive support, maximising limited resources for maximum impact and b) needs-based business development and mentoring support.
4) Increase access to economic and market opportunities to enable participation in the economy, through access to job opportunities, entrepreneurship and business startups.
5) Enable access to and create appropriate funding instruments to enhance the accessibility, efficiency and effectiveness of funding for entrepreneurs and small enterprises operating in townships and rural areas.
6) Reducing regulatory burdens and improve business processes through digitisation and ensuring effective communication, real time feedback on applications, and support to facilitate compliance by small enterprises to regulatory requirements.

3.4 Policy Principles

The guiding principles of the TREDaR Policy align with the vision and objectives to ensuring effective and equitable implementation:

1) Participation, involvement and ownership: The support ecosystem for township and rural development must consult and involve community members, entrepreneurs and business owners in the development of project and programme interventions to ensure ownership, responsibility and accountability towards the achievements of intended objectives.

2) Collaborative well-integrated ecosystem: All ecosystem role-players to commit to work together and create shared value by pooling resources, expertise and innovations towards the development of sustainable small enterprises as well as vibrant and thriving townships and rural economies integrated into the mainstream economy.

3) Service standards and accountability: Service providers must comply with minimum service standards to ensure high quality service delivery and accountability to protect the interest of entrepreneurs and small enterprises.

4) Equitable access to business opportunities: Create and enabling environment where entrepreneurs and small enterprises have fair and equitable opportunities to participate in and benefit from business ventures, access to funding, networks, information and markets.

5) Collaborative partnerships: Foster strong multistakeholder partnerships, involving the public sector, private sector, NGOs, donors, and social enterprises to share risks and combining their unique resources and competencies to improve project outcomes to achieve sustainable impacts and mutual benefit.

3.5 Theory of Change

The Theory of Change for the TREDaR Policy provides a framework that outlines how the planned interventions are expected to bring about the desired change by identifying the necessary steps and causal pathways that lead from activities to outputs, immediate outcomes, intermediate outcomes, long term outcomes and impacts.

The Theory of Change include:

1) Activities: Actions or interventions to operationalise the policy
   If the activities are implemented effectively outputs will be achieved within 2 – 3 years. C1 page 34.
2) Outputs: The tangible deliverables of the actions
   If the outputs are consistently achieved the short-term strategic outcomes will be achieved in 1 – 2 years. C2 page 34.
3) Short-term Outcomes: Short-term changes expected to occur as a result of programme activities
   If the short-term outcomes are achieved consistently and well-coordinated with other actors, the developmental changes seeked through the policy will lead to intermediate outcomes within 3 – 4 years. C3 page 34.
4) Intermediate Outcomes: Changes that built upon the immediate outcomes of programme activities
   If the Intermediate outcomes show sustained improvement the required transformation in terms of the long-term outcomes and impact will be achieved. C4 Page 34.
5) Long-term outcomes: The ultimate desired or transformed change
6) Impact: Achieving the vision of the policy

Regular reviews, monitoring and evaluation is necessary to ensuring that:

1) Monitoring and evaluation informs adjustments to activities and outputs.
2) Lessons from intermediate outcomes are used to refine priorities and strategies.
3) Stakeholder engagement provides continuous insights to improve governance, coordination, and delivery.

Implementation failure happens when the indented outcomes or impacts are not achieved because of a breakdown during the implementation chain, i.e. inputs required to activate activities, to deliver the desirable outputs, outcomes and impacts.

To ensure the successful implementation of the key activities that will deliver the desirable, outputs, outcomes and impacts it is important to ensure a) that the required key inputs to activate and sustain the activities are in place and b) that there are regular reviews. The successful implementation of the policy is furthermore based on certain assumptions. These assumptions must be monitored and managed. To ensure the attainment of the desirable impacts it is important to ensure regular monitoring and evaluation.

a) Key inputs: Necessary to enable and support the successful activation of identified activities.
   i) Enabling policies and regulatory frameworks.
   ii) Financial resources.
   iii) Collaborative partnerships and networks.
   iv) Knowledge and expertise.

b) Regular reviews
   i) To ensure that financial resources are adequate and financial instruments appropriate for entrepreneurs and business owners in townships and rural areas.
   ii) Stakeholder engagements to ensure effective collaboration amongst stakeholders.
   iii) Inputs are effectively mobilised.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

c) Assumptions
   i) Leadership commitment (Cooperative Governance – Chapter 3 of Constitution) and active stakeholder participation (A1 on page 32).
   ii) Adequate funding and resource allocations (A2 on page 32).
   iii) Adequately skilled and experienced staff to dive implementation (A3 on page 32).
   iv) Suitable economic conditions and conducive business environment (A4 on page 32).

d) Monitoring
   i) Monitor implementation to ensure progress is on track
   ii) Identify challenges to make the required adjustments in real time.
   iii) Resources are used effectively.

d) Evaluate
   i) Ensure accountability for use or resources
   ii) Ensure attainment of objectives

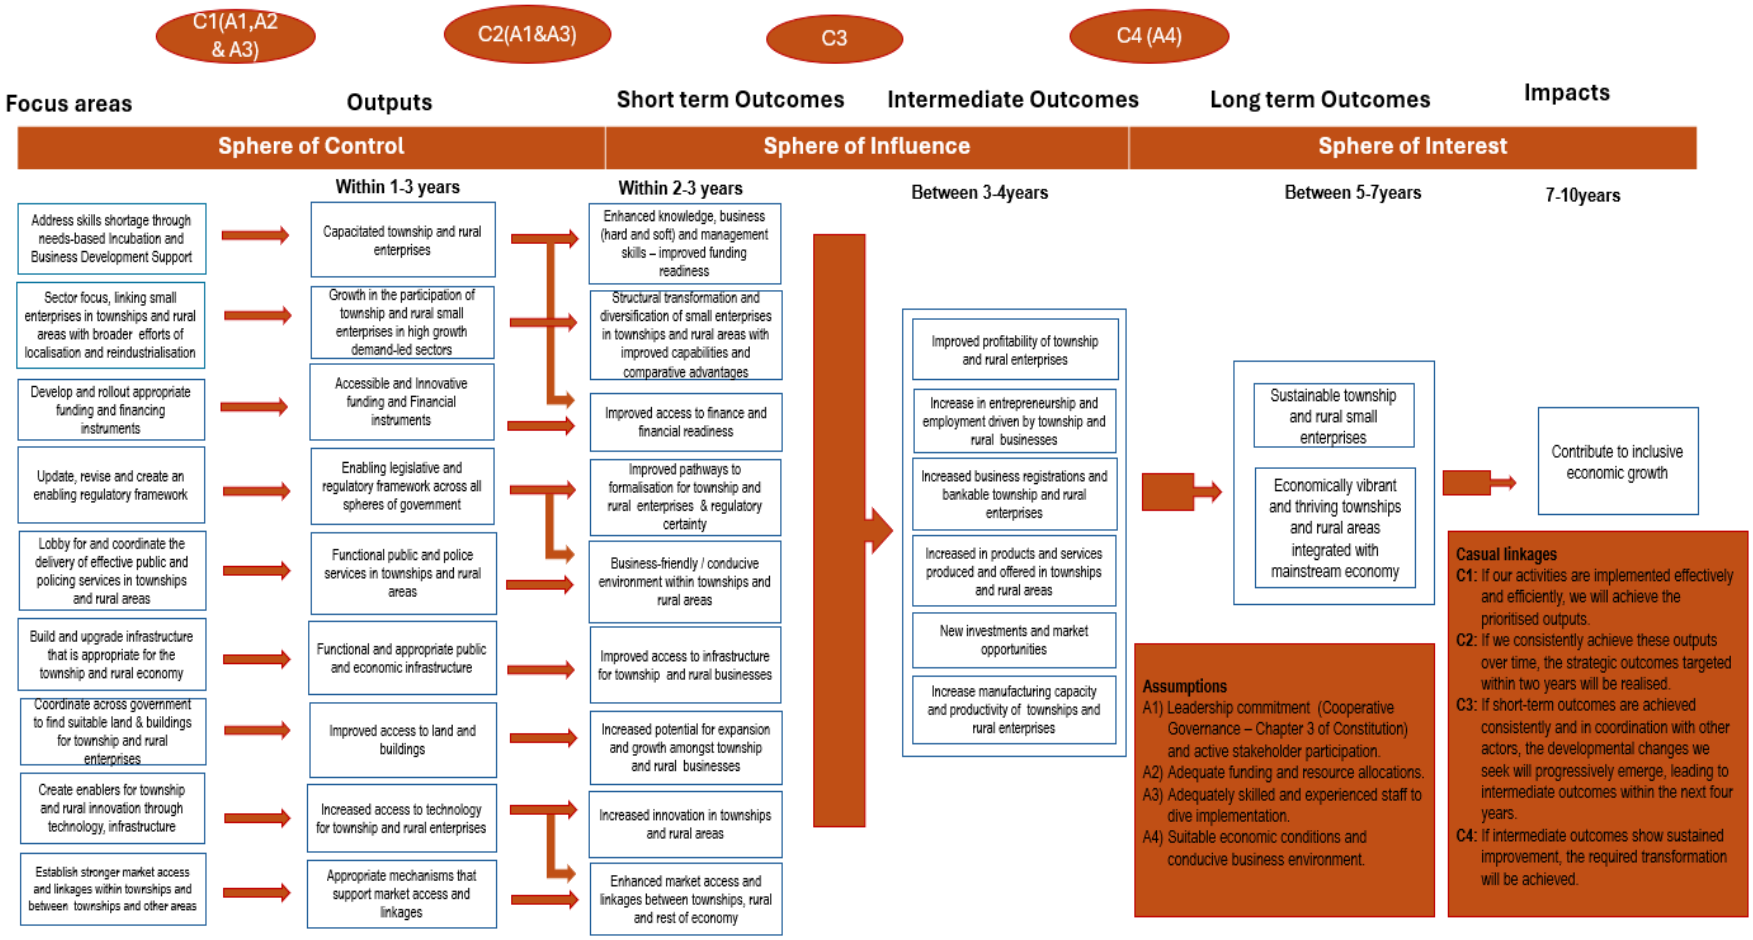

The Theory of change provides a roadmap on how the policy activities is expected to deliver the desired outputs, outcomes and impact to achieve the vision for the policy. The identification of key inputs and assumptions support the implementation readiness of the policy whilst the regular reviews, monitoring and evaluation ensure the identification of implementation challenges allowing for real time adjustments, ensure the effective use of resources and progress as well as accountability and the attainment of objectives.

The TREDaR Policy Theory of Change is illustrated visually on page 34.

Township & Rural Economy Development and Revitalisation (TREDAR) Policy

4. Policy Implementation

Critical success factors for the successful implementation of the policy, that are paramount to create an investment friendly environment and ensure the effectiveness of the policy, and its implementation programmes are:

a) Improve service delivery i.e. water, sanitation, electricity and communication networks and the provisioning of basic government services, i.e. health care and education.
b) Law enforcement, i.e. compliance with health and safety requirements and crime.
c) A "whole of government" and private sector approach
d) Implementation or execution readiness across the three spheres of government and partnerships with the private sector.

The success factors to ensure implementation readiness, putting the implementation plan into action i.e. inputs required to activate activities, to deliver the desirable outputs, outcomes and impacts have been addressed as part of the Theory of Change.

To ensure executional readiness, i.e. the act of carrying out the plan, it is important to focus on the following success factors:

a) Shared understanding by all stakeholders of the mechanisms and desired outcomes and impacts of the policy. The policy must be sufficiently clear, credible, and implementable for all stakeholders to understand, belief in and execute effectively and efficiently.
b) Leadership commitment and accountability structures to manage resources, resolve conflicts, steer, and drive implementation.
c) Staffing and skills available must be compared with what staffing and skills are required or needed to determine the capacity gap and strategies developed to effectively deal with the capacity gap.
d) Systems and technology need to support the effectiveness and efficiency of operational processes, workflows and information systems and should be capable to support all activities.
e) Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning (MEL) systems to contribute to data collection, analysis, reporting and learning. Evaluate how MEL allows policy makers and implementors to adopt strategies based on best practices.

4.1 Policy focus areas responding to the problem statements.

The agreed policy focus areas respond to the problem statements made during the stakeholder consultations. The nineteen (19) identified problem areas discussed under point 2.2 have been grouped in nine (9) key activity or focus areas for intervention.

4.2 Responses per policy focus area

The following table outline the challenges, proposed responses to challenges, current/existing interventions to these challenges and specific responses required in terms of the TREDaR policy

Policy focus area (PFA)	Problem statements	Responses required	Existing initiatives	Specific response from the TREDAR policy
1.Address skills shortage through a) needs-based Incubation and Business Development Support b) practical learning c) and refocus skills to align with industrialisation and move from supply driven to demand driven	1) There is a skills shortage in townships and rural areas hindering the ability to access high growth sectors. 2) BDS support is not aligned to the business needs of entrepreneurs and small businesses. 3) Apart from BDS there is a need for extended mentorship and coaching. 4) BDS is required at the different lifecycle stages of the business to assist small businesses to progress to the next business stage to support growth and sustainable scalability. Early-stage support is often available but as the business growth through the different lifecycles more sophisticated services, such as supply-chain management, export readiness and advance financial management is required. 5) Need for sector specific support. Incubation services often lack sector-specific expertise in specialised industries to provide appropriate targeted support. 6) Accessing BDS, especially in townships and rural areas, is restricted due to inadequate infrastructure, outreach and the lack of service bubs. (Improved infrastructure under PFA 7) Language is often a barrier. 8) The BDS ecosystem lacks a national accreditation framework and service standards to ensure service quality	1) Skills development in townships and rural areas should focus on unlocking access opportunities in high growth sectors. 2) BDS support offerings should be tailored to the needs of entrepreneurs and small businesses in townships and rural areas, taking into consideration their unique needs and business environments. 3) Needs based training and training needs to be supported through coaching and mentorship support. 4) BDS support offerings at the different stages of the lifecycle will ensure that small enterprises receive lifecycle-appropriate support that match their unique needs to support viable scalability and growth. 5) The development of sector frameworks that allow for specialisation will enable the provision of appropriate sector-specific services. 6) There should be a deliberate expansion of business hubs in townships and rural areas. The digital transformation of IBDS will leverage digital platforms and revolutionise the way IBDS are delivered, bridging the geographic divides. By providing and expanded virtual service offering and access to mentorship, training, and business support, small enterprises in underserviced areas can overcome logistical challenges and benefit from high quality service. Infrastructure challenges, especially digital infrastructure and accessibility in townships and rural areas might in the medium term, however, still hamper digital transformation.	1) Responses required covered in terms of existing BDS programmes strengthened through the IBDS policy and implementation plan. 2) Establishment of Internet Business Development Services 3) NISED SF – Access to quality research. 4) Existing BDS hubs with deliberate focus on expanding in townships and rural areas. Also reporting requirements in terms of IBDS support in townships and rural areas.	1) Link skills development in townships and rural areas with high growth sectors and sectors plans. 2) Strengthening of tertiary education institutions and skills development requires a broader focus. a) Practical learning and a focus on indirect skills such as knowing how to acquire knowledge and information, social values i.e. importance of good work ethics, communication, cultural values and communication skills are equally important. b) Specific focused interventions to strengthen mentoring and coaching support. c) There also a need for continues training and specifically adult education. 3) Through a Localised Entrepreneurial Competency Framework (LECF) determine entrepreneurial skills and capacity gaps that through NES inform entrepreneurial training to be performed at basic and tertiary education institutions. 4) BDS support offerings should be tailored to the needs of entrepreneurs and small businesses in townships and rural areas, taking into consideration their unique needs and business environments. 5) Establish a single access portal on non-financial offerings and opportunities by both private and public sector.

	and accountability across the different service providers. 9) Small enterprises lack the ability and do not have the capacity or resources to do research to improve evidence-based decision and planning. 10) Diversify skills towards skills needs to support high growth sectors.	7) There should be a deliberate effort to ensure that IBDS are available in the different languages required. 8) The IBDS policy calls for the enforcement of national IBDS service standards that will ensure consistency in service delivery and accountability by IBDS service providers. The professionalisation of certified IBDS service providers will ensure that IBDS service providers are better equipped to address the diverse needs of small enterprises and build trust between IBDS services providers and small enterprises. 9) Government to facilitate access to quality assured reach to small enterprises to improve their ability to take well informed decisions and do planning. Small enterprises to be able to access government research. Regular research sharing session to be held through LED forums in townships and rural areas. 10) Design practical, digital transformative toolkits to improve business effectiveness and efficiency that provide step-by-step guidance to small enterprises on compliance matters and how to e.g. manage client records, cashflow etc.		6) Translation of BDS material and offering of BDS in different languages.
2. Sector focus, linking small enterprises in townships and rural areas with broader efforts of localisation and reindustrialisation. (Support move towards demand-led growth.)	1) The growth and development of small enterprises in townships and rural areas needs to be linked to broader efforts to grow industrialisation. 2) Need to move away from the current over supply in supply driven sectors to demand-led growth. 3) Skills not aligned to market needs for high growth sectors.	1) Sector focus on 12 prioritised sectors , i.e. (1) Energy and the Green Economy; (2) Transportation and Logistics; (3) Digital Services; (4) Tourism and Hospitality; (5) Agriculture, Food, and Agri-Business; (6) Community Services; (7) Financial and Business Services; (8) Construction and the Built Environment; (9) Manufacturing; (10) Mining, (11) Cultural and Creative Industries; and (12) Industrial Hemp and Cannabis. 2) Focus on comparative advantages to determine sector focus for different rural and township areas 3) Skills development needs to be aligned to for high growth sectors.	1) Sector plans and master plans developed by various departments	1) Green energy sector: i) Clean tech incubators, ii) Renewable install-repair-maintain aggregators and iii) Just Transition MSME Fund including green tech/clean tech startup fund 2) Transportation and logistics: i) Enabling land rezoning, ii) Township and rural logistic hubs, iii) After-sales repairs and services automotive fund, iv) Taxi capitalisation fund and v) Business Infrastructure Support Programme 3) Digital infrastructure and services: i) Digital infrastructure roll-out to under-served township and rural areas, ii)

4.3 Targeted beneficiaries and stakeholders

To ensure clarity in terms of the direct beneficiaries and to optimise the successful implementation of the policy clarity is provided on the targeted beneficiaries and stakeholders.

4.3.1 Targeted beneficiaries

The primary beneficiaries will be entrepreneurs and small enterprises operating in townships and rural areas. A specific focus will be on small enterprises owned by women, youth, persons with disabilities, and military veterans.

Because the vision of the policy is not only to develop sustainable small enterprises in townships and rural areas, but to also develop and revitalise township and rural economies to facilitate their integration into the mainstream economy, indirect beneficiaries include residents in townships and rural areas and job seekers that will benefit from job opportunities.

4.3.2 Targeted stakeholders/role-players

The targeted stakeholders will include all ecosystem role-players responsible for amongst others, policy and programme development and implementation, service providers, corporates and established businesses, research institutions, universities and colleges as investors and venture capitalists.

1) National Departments and their agencies: National departments that has constitutional mandates in terms of small business development (DSBD), rural development (Department responsible for agriculture as well as overseeing municipal (COGTA) as well as sector departments with vested interests in townships and rural areas, i.e. tourism, the dtic, etc. – Coordination and collaboration with regards to the implementation of the policy

1) Provincial departments responsible for Economic Development: Facilitate and coordinate the implementation at a provincial level and ensuring oversight.

2) Local government, i.e. Metropolitan, district and local municipalities: Facilitate implementation at a local level and the provisioning of services.

3) Industry representative bodies and business chambers: Provide leadership, advocacy and oversight.

4) Private sector partners: Corporates, BDS service providers and financial institutions to partner with government in the economy development and revitalisation of small businesses.

5) Academic and research institutions: Universities and research organisations contributing to innovation and professionalisation.

4.4 Resource Allocations – Human, Financial, Equipment, Systems, etc.

For the successful implementation of the TREDaR policy , consideration should be given to the following resources.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

4.4.1 Human Resources

a) Establishment of intergovernmental forums across the three spheres of government to ensure collaboration and coordination on the different interventions required.

b) Establishment of monitoring and reporting systems on interventions to monitor progress and allow for early intervention when required.

4.4.2 Financial Resources

Co-design needs-based interventions that allows for partnerships, ownership and joint implementation, with shared responsibilities, commitments, and rewards to ensure maximum use of available resources, collective bargaining for additional resources and partnerships with the private sector.

4.4.3 Technology Resources

Invest in information technology (IT) infrastructure and advanced technologies to support the centralised digital platform and digital service delivery, ensuring broad accessibility and effective data management.

4.5 Roles and Responsibilities

The support ecosystem for township and rural economy development and revitalisation requires participation across all national provincial and local government as well as the support of private sector and the small enterprises communities in townships and rural areas.

4.5.1 National Government

National departments will collaborate, provide strategic direction through the formulation of programme interventions to achieve the objectives and vision of the TREDaR policy.

4.5.2 Provincial Government

Provincial governments will align with national directives to ensure the streamlining or resources and assist with the implementation, monitoring, and reporting of interventions.

4.5.3 Local Government, Metropolitan, Municipalities and Districts

Local government, metropolitans, municipalities, and districts will implement recommendations and collaborate with provincial and national to ensure the attainment of the required resources. There may be a need to incorporate these initiatives within the district development plans as part of collective implementation and prioritisation of critical interventions.

4.5.4 National and provincial government agencies

Implement programmes as directed by parent departments and assist with monitoring and reporting.

4.5.5 Industry leaders and business chambers

Industry leaders and business chambers will participate in the design and implementation of intervention and advocate for small-enterprise-friendly policies and facilitate networking opportunities.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

4.5.6 Private sector

The private sector contributes through partnerships, supply chain integration, and mentoring, leveraging its resources and networks to enable market access for small enterprises.

4.5.7 Educational institutions and research organisations

Educational institutions and research organisations enhance the ecosystem by providing training, capacity building, and sector-specific expertise.

4.5.8 Financial institutions and development finance entities

Funding institutions and development finance entities support small enterprises with funding mechanisms tailored to their growth needs.

4.6 Policy Communication

Communication plays a critical role in policy implementation in ensuring that all stakeholders understand the policy objectives and support the vision of the policy. It is pivotal in building consensus, manage resistance and the facilitation of the successful execution of the policy.

4.6.1 Stakeholder engagement

a) Building relationships: Establish and nurture relationships with key stakeholders, including government agencies, private sector partners, service providers, and small enterprises.

b) Information sharing: Disseminate relevant information about the policy framework and its objectives and available services to ensure stakeholders are well-informed and aligned.

c) Feedback collection: Implement channels for stakeholders to provide feedback, raise concerns, and suggest improvements, ensuring that the policy framework remains responsive and effective.

4.6.2 Awareness and outreach

a) Marketing campaigns: Develop and execute marketing strategies to increase awareness of the policy framework and its benefits, targeting both potential beneficiaries and service providers.

b) Educational initiatives: Conduct workshops, webinars, and seminars to educate small enterprises and service providers about the policy framework, its components, and how to access the available support.

c) Public relations: Manage public relations efforts to highlight successes, share success stories, and build a positive image of the policy framework.

4.6.3 Internal communication

a) Coordination and alignment: Ensure effective communication among SEDFA, DSBD, provincial hubs, service providers, and other stakeholders to align efforts and prevent duplication.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

b) Information flow: Facilitate the smooth flow of information between various levels of the organisation and between different stakeholders, ensuring that everyone is up-to-date and working towards common goals.

c) Training and support: Provide ongoing communication support for training initiatives, ensuring that staff and service providers have the information and resources needed to implement the policy effectively.

4.6.4 Monitoring and reporting

a) Progress updates: Communicate progress and outcomes to stakeholders through regular reports and updates, ensuring transparency and accountability.

b) Impact measurement: Share insights and data on the impact of the policy framework, using communication tools to highlight achievements and areas for improvement.

c) Crisis management: Develop strategies for managing communication during challenges or crises, ensuring that stakeholders are informed and reassured about the steps being taken to address issues.

5. Governance

Aligned to the National Small Enterprise Strategy, i.e. the NISED Strategic Framework the DSBD will provide guidance towards a well-coordinated ecosystem approach to a) the development of sustainable small enterprises generating sustainable income sources, creating meaningful employment opportunities to local residents and build resilient livelihoods through sustainable entrepreneurial ventures, and b) vibrant and thriving townships and rural economies able to attract new investments, fully integrated with the mainstream economy. The MSMEs and Co-operatives Funding policy as well as the finalisation of the National Entrepreneurship Strategy (NES) and Incubation and IBDS Policy as well as other small enterprise policies such as the Startup and Enterprise and Supplier Development policy still to be developed will feed into the implementation of this policy.

Apart from strategies, strategic frameworks and policies guiding implementation, a governance structure is required to facilitate greater engagement amongst the three speres of government and the private sector to ensure alignment of decision making on programmes aimed ensuring a at furthering the objectives of the township and rural economy development and revitalisation policy and to ensure that decisions remain structured, transparent and focused on the overall objectives of the policy. The governance structure should be developed in collaboration with COGTA and aligned to the intergovernmental Relations Framework Act to give effect to the DDM that is premised on improving an all of government and all of society approach through fostering intergovernmental joint planning, budgeting, including programme and project implementation as well as monitoring through one plans and annual performance plans. Dedicated reporting by all stakeholders on township and rural development programmes, outputs and outcomes should be a requirement.

5.1 Performance Reporting and Accountability

Performance reporting by all stakeholders is important to provide clarity on progress made towards the attainment of the objectives and vision of the policy. It furthermore enables timeous interventions, improve accountability, better communication with stakeholders and ultimately to better overall performance.

5.2 Transparency and Information dissemination

Regular reports on the implementation of the policy will be developed and made available to all key role-players to ensure transparency and information dissemination.

5.3 Risk assessment and mitigation strategy

Outcome 7: Increased potential for expansion and growth amongst township and rural businesses	Resistance to share best practices and learnings	▪ Facilitate special sessions to share best practices and learnings
Outcome 8: Increase innovations in townships and rural areas	In ability to attract investment in new innovations	▪ Facilitate interventions to reduce crime and extortions. ▪ Facilitate interventions to improve the delivery of basic services
	Resistance to share best practices and learnings	▪ Provide financial incentives for technology adoption. ▪ Establish digital hubs and innovation centres to offer direct (hands-on) training and exposure
Outcome 9: Enhanced market access and linkages	Barriers to market access and value chain integration	▪ Offer technical assistance to meet certification and quality standards and subsidised certification programmes.

6. Policy monitoring, evaluation and review

Policy monitoring, evaluation, and continuous improvement are important to track progress, assess impact, and adapt the policy framework to ensure it remains relevant and effective. Key considerations are to enable:

1) Real-time monitoring: Using the centralised digital platform to monitor service delivery and outcomes in real time, allowing for quick adjustments as needed.

2) Impact metrics: Define and track key performance indicators, such as reach, service quality, access to finance, business success rates, compliance to regulatory requirements, investments in townships and rural areas, appropriate workspaces, improved market access opportunities within and outside townships and rural areas, innovation adoption rates, and regional inclusivity.

3) Adaptive policymaking: Regularly review data and feedback to refine the policy framework, ensuring that it continues to meet the evolving needs of small enterprises across South Africa.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

6.1 Programme performance measurement indicators

Policy implementation monitoring and evaluation is important to track and assess how well the policy is implemented and to

Policy focus area	Key performance Indicator
Skills development, Incubation and Business Development Support	Growth and sustainability of small enterprises in townships and rural areas
Funding Support to Small Enterprises operating in Townships and Rural Areas	Increase in funding support to small enterprises operating in townships and rural areas / narrowing in the funding gap for small enterprises / increase in the percentage of loans by MSMEs in townships and rural areas
Improved access to needs-based infrastructure	Growth in the number of sustainable small enterprises operating from townships and rural areas
Business regulatory certainty	Decrease in non-compliance to regulatory requirements
Investment and business friendly environment	Increase in investment and growth of small enterprises operating in townships and rural areas
Enhance market access and linkages	Improved market access opportunities in townships and rural areas as well as outside townships and rural areas
Increase potential for expansion and growth amongst small enterprises as well as big business	Increase in the number and size of small enterprises and business expansion amongst enterprises operating in townships and rural areas
Increase innovation in townships and rural areas	The percentage of entrepreneurs, informal businesses and small enterprises, including co-operatives that has adopted innovation, including digitization of business operations.

6.2 Monitoring and reporting processes

The DSBD is tasked with overseeing, monitoring, and evaluating the implementation of the National Policy for Township and Rural Economy Development and Revitalisation (TREDaR). An integrated Monitoring, Evaluation, Research, and Learning Strategy and execution plan needs to be developed by the DSBD, SEDFA and COGTA in cooperation with other national departments, their agencies, provincial departments responsible for small enterprise development, their agencies as well as local government. This strategy should be designed to foster a culture of continuous improvement of interventions aimed at township and rural economy development and revitalisation across the whole of government, ensuring that all activities are driven by data and evidence-based management.

Key components of this strategy will include:

1) Governance structure: to give effect to the DDM that is premised on improving an all of government and all of society approach through fostering intergovernmental joint planning, budgeting, including programme and project implementation as well as monitoring through one plans and annual performance plans. Dedicated reporting by all stakeholders on township and rural development programmes, outputs and outcomes should be a requirement.

2) Regular needs assessments: Conduct systematic assessments of the business development support requirements of small enterprises. These assessments will inform the design, methodologies, and delivery of BDS programmes, ensuring they are tailored to the evolving needs of these enterprises.

3) Standardised monitoring and evaluation system: Implement a standardised Township and Rural Economy Development and Revitalisation monitoring and evaluation system with appropriate tools to measure and evaluate the impact of the implementation of the policy on entrepreneurs, small enterprises and co-operatives operating in townships and rural areas. This system will ensure consistent and accurate tracking of outcomes and strengthen coordination and reporting across the three spheres of government.

4) Data and knowledge sharing mechanisms: Establish robust mechanisms for collecting, classifying, curating, and disseminating relevant local and international data, research, and knowledge. This will be done in collaboration with reputable services providers in the ecosystem.

5) Alignment with reporting requirements: Ensure that monitoring and evaluation processes align with DSBD's data reporting requirements concerning enterprise development support offered to entrepreneurs, informal businesses and small enterprises, including co-operatives, operating in townships and rural areas, integrating monitoring and evaluation seamlessly into all DSBD and SEDFA programmes. This alignment will support a learning-oriented approach and facilitate consistent performance enhancement.

6) Market assessments and intelligence: Conduct annual assessments of the enterprise development in townships and rural areas to evaluate the performance and impact of the implementation of the policy. These assessments will provide critical insights into the effectiveness of the implementation of support interventions and identify areas for improvement.

Through this structured approach, the DSBD, SEDFA, other national departments and their agencies, provincial government departments responsible for small enterprise development as well as their agencies and local government will ensure that the national policy for township and rural economy development and revitalisation is implemented effectively, contributing to the sustainable growth and development of small enterprises, supporting the optimal development of townships and rural areas and their integration in the mainstream economy.

6.3 Evaluation of the policy

DSBD will plan for and conduct an implementation evaluation of the policy in the fifth year of implementation to inform its subsequent review.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

6.4 Policy review schedule

A review of the policy will be done following the evaluation of the policy in its fifth year of implementation. However, non-material amendments, mainly in the implementation framework, to assist with implementation and align to changes in the environment and context may happen annually informed by documented best practices and lessons learnt.

7. Conclusion

There are numerous interventions and programmes of government and its entities that are aimed at supporting Township and Rural Economic Development and Revitalisation. However, the vacuum in adequate governance of these interventions, has crippled government's ability to properly support and enable MSME and co-operative development in these areas and, to unlock the potential in terms of job creation and inclusive economic growth in these areas. Apart from ensuring the provision of needs-based support, tailored interventions and the creation of an investment friendly environment the goal of national policy is to provide for the coordination of the various interventions towards addressing small enterprise needs for township economic development and revitalisation, by government and its entities in partnership with the private sector.

Through outcomes-based partnerships with the private sector and other non- state actors, the policy aims to bring about collaborations that will drive innovation, healthy competition, the development of an appropriate regulatory environment as well as enforcement and compliance and the co-creation of economic value for stakeholders in the township and rural economy. The complexities and dynamic nature of townships and rural areas compels for a coordinated and structured whole of government approach, i.e. national, provinces, districts, local and metropolitan municipalities for a comprehensive approach and effective realisation of this policy objective. The infusion of the implementation framework into the district development plans becomes paramount for cascading the implementation of the policy. With some provinces already having development their own policies and strategies, a need for alignment arises.

Annexure D: Existing Financial support programmes for small enterprises in townships and rural areas

Introduction and Background

In recent years, South Africa has put more emphasis in supporting MSMEs to drive economic growth and enhance MSMEs inclusive participation to the entire economy. However, there are challenges experienced by the MSMEs in the ground level, such as access to finance, market, product standards, logistics, access to space and exposure to foreign competition. To address these challenges, there is need to boost funding for the MSMEs to grow and compete. Access to finance for MSMES has been a challenge due to lack of synchronisation of funding programmes for the MSMEs, hence the report aims to outline the funding programmes particularly for MSMEs operating in townships and rural areas in South Africa.

This report outlines financial financiers for the MSMEs in South Africa operating in various sectors. The first part of the report covers outlines the national sphere of financial offerings designed to assist the growth and development of the MSMEs. The second part of the report covers the financial offerings that are provided by the implementing agencies, and the last section talks to the provincial financial offerings by government departments and economic agencies to jerk up the local business in their provinces.

Section 1 National Departments

1. National Department MSMEs financial offerings

1.1. Department of Small Business Development

1.1.1 Informal and Micro Enterprise Development Programme (IMEDP)

The Informal and Micro Enterprise Development Programme (IMEDP) offers a 100% grant to informal enterprises operating in townships and rural areas. The focus is mainly on designated groups i.e. Women, Youth and Persons with Disabilities. Qualifying entrepreneurs are equipped with basic business management training, followed by a grant to the value of R10 000 for acquisition of equipment and tools.

1.1.2 Business Viability Programme (BVP)

The Department of Small Business Development is implementing the Business Viability Programme to assist small enterprises experiencing business distress. The primary purpose of the Programme is to support MSMES including co-operatives, to overcome both financial and non-financial constraints. The Programme is targeting MSMES experiencing business challenges with a view to assist them to achieve operational efficiencies, restore profit margins and contribute meaningfully to economic transformation as well as job creation. This is a Blended Finance which is a combination of a grant and a loan. The grant is up to a maximum of 30% of the total funding requirement dependent on the development impact calculated through the scorecard. Initial payment moratorium of up to maximum of 12 months depending on the business cashflows. Maximum funding accessible per entity is R15 million.

1.1.3 Co-operative Incentive Scheme (CIS)

The Co-Operative Development Support Programme (CDSP) is a programme of the Department of Small Business Development with an objective to support co-operative enterprises financially and non-financially in partnership with other key strategic stakeholders. The CDSP programme offers blended financing to eligible co-operatives on a cost-sharing funding of a combination of a grant and loan. The grant funding portion of funding is capped at R2.5 million towards qualifying activities. The grant support is available for machinery, equipment, infrastructure, commercial vehicles and business development support necessary to grow co-operative enterprises to ensure that the co-operative enterprise develop to be more sustainable and competitive.

1.1.4 Small Enterprise Manufacturing Support Programme

The purpose of the Small Enterprise Manufacturing Support Programme is to build a manufacturing sector for an improved industrial base (productive economy) through a focused import replacement programme; and build the industrial base for both the domestic market and external market (in particular, the African Union market).

1.1.5 The Township and Rural Entrepreneurship Programme (TREP)

This is a dedicated programme to transform and integrate opportunities in townships and rural areas into productive business ventures. The focus is to create platforms that provide the business support infrastructure and regulatory environment that enables entrepreneurs to thrive. The target beneficiaries are township and rural-based enterprises which are owned by entrepreneurs who are based in the townships or rural areas.

1.1.6 The Youth Challenge Fund (YCF)

YCF is a blended finance programme aimed at supporting young entrepreneurs in starting and growing their businesses. The initiative is designed to address the high unemployment rates among South African youth by providing them with access to finance, mentorship, and training.

Key features of the YCF program include:

a) Access to Finance: The program offers financial support in the form of loans and grants to young entrepreneurs who may struggle to obtain funding from the conventional lenders.
b) Business Development Support: In addition to financial assistance, the programme also provides training and mentorship to help youth develop their business skills, manage their operations effectively, and navigate the complexities of entrepreneurship.

c) Target Audience: The YCF is specifically geared towards individuals aged 18 to 35, recognising this age group's potential for innovation and contribution to the economy.
d) Focus on Job Creation: By empowering young entrepreneurs to establish their businesses, the initiative aims to create jobs and stimulate economic growth.
e) Collaboration and Partnerships: SEDFA collaborates with several stakeholders, including government entities, non-profits, and private sector partners, including international donors, to enhance the programme's reach and impact.

1.2 Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (the dtic)

The dtic administers several incentive schemes and cash grants to help entrepreneurs start and grow their own business, i.e. at least 32 incentives covering the following areas, enterprise development, Innovation, manufacturing investment, manufacturing and commercial vehicles/automotive, services investment and infrastructure investments. The following provides a brief summary of these incentives.

Enterprise Development Incentives

1.2.1 Black Business Supplier Development Programme (BBSDP)

To fast-track existing Small, Medium and Micro Enterprises (MSMES) that exhibit good potential for growth into the mainstream economy; To grow black-owned enterprises by fostering linkages between black MSMES and corporate and public sector enterprises; to complement current affirmative procurement and outsourcing initiatives of corporate and public sector enterprises; and to enhance the capacity of grant recipient enterprises to successfully compete for corporate and public sector tenders and outsourcing opportunities.

1.2.2 Incubation Support Programme (ISP)

The ISP is a support measure to encourage partnerships between small and big business; with big business assisting small, medium and micro enterprises (MSMES) with skills transfer, enterprise development, supplier development and marketing opportunities. conclusion of basic research and ends at the point when a pre-production prototype has been produced.

1.2.5 The Downstream Steel Industry Competitiveness Fund

The fund was established to provide targeted assistance to qualifying enterprises in the downstream steel sectors, aimed at improving competitiveness in the face of serious structural problems within the sector. The assistance is in the form of an interest subsidy that offers discounts to qualifying clients. This scheme targeted at the start ups and expansions.

1.2.6 Isivande Women's Fund

The Fund is managed by the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) on behalf of the dtic through a development fund manager. IDF Managers is an SME financier aimed at supporting the creation of self-sustaining black and women owned businesses in South Africa by providing primarily financial and non-financial support to investee companies.

1.2.7 Strategic Partnership Program (SPP) (business grants)

This programme, together with the Enterprise Investment program, replaced the Incubator Support Programme. The objective of this Programme is to encourage large private sector enterprises in partnership with government to support, nurture and develop SMEs within the partner's supply chain or sector to be manufacturers of goods and suppliers of services in a sustainable manner. The programme is intended to support Broad-Based Black Economic Empowerment (BBBEE) policy through encouraging businesses to strengthen the element of Enterprise and Supplier Development (ESD) of the Codes of Good Practice. The supported strategic partners are expected to develop and support programmes/interventions aimed at enhancing the manufacturing and services supply capacity of suppliers with linkages to strategic partner's supply chains, industries or sectors. The programme offers a cost-sharing grant to a maximum of R15 million towards the total qualifying costs, based on the number of suppliers to be supported. The grant support is available for machinery and equipment, infrastructure, commercial vehicles and business development services necessary to grow enterprises to ensure that within a period of three (3) years, the SME's will have developed to be self-sustainable by providing locally manufactured products and/or services relevant to the sector.

1.2.8 Small Enterprise Manufacturing Programme (SEMP)

The aim of the programme is to build a manufacturing sector for an improved industrial base (productive economy) through a focused import replacement programme, build the industrial base for both the domestic market and external market (in particular, the African Union market), contribute to South Africa's localization strategy by supporting manufacturing enterprises. Funding 50 000 up to a maximum of R15 million per small enterprise.

Innovation Incentives

1.2.9 Technology and Human resources for industry programme (THRIP)

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

The THRIP is intended to leverage collaborative partnerships between government and industry (working with academia) for research and development in science, engineering and technology on a cost-sharing basis, to produce highly skilled human resources and technology solutions for improved industry competitiveness.

Objectives

The objective of the programme is to increase the number of people with the appropriate skills in the development and management of applied, research-based technology for industry.

This will be achieved through:

a) Improved knowledge exchange and technology transfer through increased interaction and mobility among researchers in higher education institutions (HEIs) and science, engineering and technology institutions (SETIs) as well as technology personnel in industry; an increase in investment by industry and government in research and technology; and Technology transfer and product or process improvement or development, through research collaboration between enterprises (large and small), HEIs and SETIs.

Benefits

The THRIP is a cost-sharing grant of up to R8 million for a maximum period of three years for approved projects engaged in applied research and development in science, engineering and technology. Additional special inclusions in a grant may be funding for Technology Innovation Promotion through the Transfer of People (TIPTOP) and for the cost of legal advice on the development of intellectual property rights (IPR) agreements.

Eligibility criteria

a) The applicant must be a registered legal entity in South Africa.
b) The project must have a partnership, with at least one partner being a South African research institution, which includes HEIs, SETIs and national research facilities.
c) The duration of the partnership must be equal to or more than the period of the THRIP project.
d) The project must include at least four registered South African students at fourth year level in the SET fields, who will be involved and trained throughout the research conducted.
e) The project must be focused on applied research in the fields of science, technology or engineering, the outputs of which could make a significant contribution to improving the industry partner's competitiveness.
f) The project intention should be to innovate.
g) The project must have clearly defined scientific and technology outputs.

1.2.10 Support Programme for Industrial Innovation (SPII)

The SPII is designed to promote technology development in South Africa's industry, through the provision of financial assistance for the development of innovative products and/or processes. The SPII focuses specifically on the development phase, which begins at the conclusion of basic research and ends at production of a pre-production prototype.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

The SPII offers two schemes:

1.2.11 SPII Product Process Development (PPD) Scheme

a) Provides financial assistance to small and micro enterprises in the form of a non-repayable grant.
b) A percentage of 'qualifying' costs are incurred in the pre-competitive development activities associated with a specific project.
c) The scheme limit is a maximum grant of R2 million.
d) The scheme incurs 50% of the qualifying costs where the applicant has 25% or less black economic empowerment (BEE) ownership;75% of qualifying costs where the applicant has between 25% and 50% BEE ownership or more than 50% shareholding by women or persons with disabilities; and 85% of qualifying costs where the applicant has more than 50% BEE ownership.

1.2.12 SPII Matching Scheme

a) Provides financial assistance to all enterprises in the form of a nonrepayable grant.
b) The scheme has a maximum grant limit of R5 million.
c) If the applicant has less than 25% BEE ownership, 50% of qualifying costs are incurred by the scheme; between 25 and 50% BEE ownership, 65% of qualifying costs are incurred; and above 50% BEE ownership or more than 50% shareholding by women or persons with disabilities, 75% of qualifying costs are incurred.
d) Financial assistance under the Matching Scheme is provided to large companies on a 50% matching basis.

Criteria for SPII support

a) Development should represent a significant advance in technology.
b) Development and subsequent production must take place within South Africa.
c) Intellectual property to reside in a South-African-registered company.
d) Participating businesses must be South-African-registered enterprises.
e) Government-funded institutions (e.g. the CSIR) do not directly qualify for support but may
f) participate as subcontractor(s).
g) No simultaneous applications are allowed from the same company.

Qualifying costs

a) Personnel related
b) Travel expenses (defined maximum)
c) Direct material
d) Capital items and tooling
e) Software (not general software)
f) Documentation
g) Testing and trials
h) Licensing
i) Quality assurance and certification

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

j) Patent
k) Subcontracting and consulting

Non-qualifying projects/costs
a) Projects receiving other government funding
b) Military projects
c) Where SPII contribution is not significant (at least 20% of total project costs)
d) Production and commercialisation related
e) Marketing and administrative costs
f) Product/process development for a single client
g) Basic and applied research
h) Projects that at the time of application are more than 50% (70% for PPD) complete
i) All costs incurred prior to submitting a duly completed application

Manufacturing Investment Incentives

1.2.13 Automotive Investment Scheme (AIS)

The AIS is an incentive designed to grow and develop the automotive sector through investment in new and/or replacement models and components that will increase plant production volumes, sustain employment and/or strengthen the automotive value chain.

Objectives
a) Strengthen and diversify the sector through investment in a new and/or replacement
b) models and components.
c) Increase plant production volumes.
d) Sustain employment and/or strengthen the automotive value chain.

Benefits
The AIS provides for a non-taxable cash grant of 20% of the value of qualifying investment in productive assets by original equipment manufacturers (OEMs), and 25% of the value of qualifying investment in productive assets by component manufacturers and tooling companies, as approved by the dtic.

Eligible enterprises
1.2.14 Light motor vehicle manufacturers/OEMs

New OEM applicants must achieve a minimum production volume of 50 000 units per annum per plant. This should be achieved within 24 months after the anticipated start of production date and be maintained throughout the claim cycle. A special dispensation on volumes may be considered for new OEMs entering South Africa.

Existing OEM applicants must achieve a minimum production volume of 50 000 units per annum per plant to qualify for a grant offering of 20% of the qualifying investment. This should be achieved within 24 months after the anticipated start of production date and be maintained throughout the claim cycle. Failure to maintain the annual production threshold of 50 000 units per annum per plant will result in a reduction of the base grant of the qualifying investment.

Component manufacturers or deemed component manufacturers

Component manufacturers or deemed component manufacturers must have:

a) Been awarded a contract and/or received a letter of intent for the manufacture of components to supply directly into the OEMs supply chain locally and/or internationally; and
b) A local/international OEM supply chain turnover of at least 25% of total entity turnover or R10 million by the project in OEM supply chain invoicing per annum.

Competitiveness improvement costs for component manufacturers, deemed component manufacturers and tooling companies

a) The objective of this benefit is to improve the competitiveness of component manufacturers by facilitating improvements in processes, products, quality standards and related skills development through the use of business development services.
b) The grant will be limited to the competitiveness improvement costs incurred during the first two years after the start of production, with a total grant amount of R1 million per entity per two-year cycle.
c) The number of competitiveness improvement applications will be limited to two applications per two-year cycle.

1.2.15 People-Carrier Automotive Investment Scheme

The P-AIS is a sub-component of the AIS and provides a non-taxable cash grant of between 20% and 35% of the value of qualifying investment in productive assets approved by the dtic.

Qualifying projects will be evaluated on the following economic benefit requirements:

a) Tooling
b) Research and development (R&D) in South Africa
c) Employment creation/retention
d) Strengthening the automotive supply value chain
e) Empowerment

The approved P-AIS grant is to be disbursed over a period of three years, and, in all cases, grant payment is subject to an evaluation by the dtic to determine whether the project achieved the stipulated performance requirements.

Objectives

The P-AIS is designed to stimulate a growth path for the people-carrier-vehicle industry through investment in new and/or replacement models and components that will result in new jobs or the retention of employment and/or strengthen the automotive vehicle value chain.

Benefits

Complete-Knocked-Down (CKD) vehicle assembler

a) CKD investments that started production from 1 January 2012 to 31 March 2015 may qualify for a grant of 25% of the qualifying investment costs.
b) CKD investments with a start production from 1 April 2015 onwards may qualify for a grant of 20%.
c) For an additional 5%, the project must demonstrate that the investment will result in the maintenance of base-year employment levels throughout the incentive and model phase-out periods.
d) For a second additional 5% bonus grant (cumulative 10%), the project must meet the set economic benefit criteria.

Component manufacturers

a) Component manufacturers may qualify for a grant of 25% of the qualifying
b) investment costs.
c) For an additional 5%, the project must demonstrate that the investment will result in the maintenance of base-year employment levels throughout the incentive period and achieve at least two of the set economic benefit criteria.
d) For a second additional 5% (cumulative 10%) P-AIS grant, the project must meet the set economic benefit criteria.

a) People carriers for the transport of between 10 and 35 people, including the driver, with a vehicle mass exceeding 2 000kg.
b) Floor panels, body sides or roof panels are not permanently attached to each other; the engine and transmission assemblies, axles, radiators, suspension components, steering mechanisms, braking or electrical equipment or instrumentation are not fitted to such floor pans or chassis frames; the bodies/cabs are not fitted to floor pans or chassis frames.

Component manufacturers

a) A component manufacturer that can prove that a contract is in place or has been awarded or a letter of intent has been received for the manufacture of components to supply the medium and heavy commercial vehicle manufacturer supply chain locally and/or internationally
b) A component manufacturer that can prove that after this investment it will achieve at least 25% of total entity turnover or R10 million annually by the end of the first full year of commercial production, as part of the automotive (medium and heavy commercial vehicle) manufacturer supply chain locally and/or internationally.

Medium And Heavy Commercial Vehicles Automotive

1.2.16 Investment Scheme (MHCV-AIS)

the dtic has initiated the Medium and Heavy Commercial Vehicles Automotive Investment Scheme (MHCV-AIS), a sub-component of the AIS. This incentive aims to foster the growth and development of the automotive sector through investment in new and/or replacement models and components that will increase plant production volumes, sustain employment and/or strengthen the automotive value chain.

The MHCV-AIS provides for a non-taxable cash grant of 20% of the value of qualifying investment in productive assets by medium and heavy commercial vehicle manufactures, and 25% of the value of qualifying investment in productive assets by component manufactures and tooling companies for MHCVs, as approved by the dtic.

Mandatory conditions

a) The applicant must be a registered legal entity in South Africa in terms of the Companies Act, No. 71 of 2008 (as amended); Companies Act, 1973 (as amended); or the Close Corporations Act, 1984 (as amended), and must undertake manufacturing in South Africa.
b) The applicant must be a taxpayer in good standing and must provide a valid tax pin number before the grant is disbursed.
c) The grant will only be applicable to investment in assets that will be used in the entity's South African operations.
d) The applicant must submit a business plan with a detailed marketing and sales plan, a production plan, budget, and projected financial income statement, cash flow statement and balance sheet, for a period of at least three years for the project.
e) The applicant must, in addition to the information supplied in paragraph 5.10, submit an applicable B-BBEE certificate or sworn affidavit, ITAC registration certificate (excluding component/tooling manufacturers), projected financial income statement, cash flow statement and balance sheet for a period of at least three years of the relevant division, cost centre or branch where the project is located, if applicable.
f) Completed applications should reach the offices of the dtic no later than:
    i) 120 days prior to the start of production for medium and heavy commercial vehicle manufacturers; and
    ii) 90 days prior to commencement of production for component manufacturers, deemed component manufacturers and/or tooling companies.

Eligibility criteria

a) An existing or new manufacturer of medium and heavy motor vehicles (trucks) has to comply with the extent of assembly (i.e. CKD. definition as specified in Note 5 to Chapter 98.)
b) The engine and transmission, axles, radiators, suspension components, steering mechanisms, braking or electrical equipment and instrumentation may be imported into South Africa, but have to be fitted to the floor pan or chassis frame of the truck within South Africa.
c) The body or cab has to be fitted to the floor pan or chassis frame within South Africa.
d) Bus chassis manufacturers
e) The chassis, engine and transmission assemblies must comply with the CKD definition of Note 5, as stipulated in Chapter 98 of the Customs and Excise Act, 1964.
f) Projects will be required to comply with the amended CKD definition as specified.

g) Projects that do not comply with the revised definition will not be supported under the MHCV-AIS guidelines.

Component manufacturers, deemed component manufacturers, tooling companies, and bus and truck body manufacturers

a) A component manufacturer that can prove a contract is in place and/or has been awarded and/or a letter of intent has been received for the manufacture of components to supply into the medium and heavy commercial vehicle manufacturer supply chain locally and/or internationally.
b) A component manufacturer that can prove that after this investment it will achieve at least 25% of total entity turnover or R10 million annually by the end of the first full year of commercial production, as part of a medium and heavy commercial vehicle manufacturer supply chain locally and/or internationally.
c) In the case of bus body manufacturers, where the contract is awarded by the entity to the original equipment manufacturer (OEM) to supply the chassis (for example, if the bid to supply busses was awarded to the body manufacturer), proof must be provided that the bid has been awarded and a contract has been entered into with the OEM for the supply of the chassis to the body manufacturing entity.

1.2.17 The Black Industrialists Scheme (BIS)

The purpose of the Black Industrialists (BI) policy is to leverage the state's capacity to unlock the industrial potential that exists within black-owned and managed businesses that operate within the South African economy through deliberate, targeted and well-defined financial and non-financial interventions.

Objectives

Accelerate the quantitative and qualitative increase and participation of black industrialists in the national economy, selected industrial sectors and value chains, as reflected by their contribution to growth, investment, exports and employment. Create multiple and diverse pathways and instruments for black industrialists to enter strategic and targeted industrial sectors and value chains.

In short, the broader objective aims to promote industrialisation, sustainable economic growth and transformation through the support of black-owned entities in the manufacturing sector and related services linked to the manufacturing value chain.

Focus areas

The programme focuses on the following productive sectors:

a) Blue/ocean economy, including vessel building and repair
b) Oil and gas
c) Clean technology and energy
d) Mineral beneficiation
e) Aerospace, rail and automotive components

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

f) Industrial infrastructure
g) Information communication technologies
h) Agro-processing
i) Clothing, textiles/leather and footwear
j) Pulp, paper and furniture
k) Chemicals, pharmaceuticals and plastics
l) Nuclear
m) Manufacturing-related logistics
n) Designated sectors for localisation

Benefits

The BIS offers approved entities a cost-sharing grant ranging from 30% to 50%, to a maximum of R50 million. The size of the grant will depend on the level of black ownership and control, the economic benefit of the project and the project value.

The BIS offers support on a cost-sharing basis towards:
a) Capital investment costs
b) Feasibility studies towards a bankable business plan (to a maximum of 3% of projected investment costs)
c) Post-investment support (maximum of R500 000)
d) Business development services (maximum of R2 million)

1.2.18 Agro-Processing Support Scheme (APSS)

Objectives

The APSS aims to stimulate investment by the South African agro processing/beneficiation (agri-business) enterprises. The investment should demonstrate that it will achieve some of the following:

a) Increased capacity
b) Employment creation
c) Modernised machinery and equipment
b) Competitiveness and productivity improvement
e) Broadening participation

The APSS will target five key sub-sectors:
a) Food and beverage value addition and processing
b) Furniture manufacturing
c) Fibre processing
d) Feed production
e) Fertilizer production

Benefits

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

The scheme offers a 20% to 30% cost-sharing grant to a maximum of R20 million over a two-year investment period, with a last claim to be submitted within six months of the final approved milestone.

a) the dtic may consider an additional 10% grant for projects that meet all economic benefit criteria such as employment, transformation, geographic spread and local procurement.
b) The maximum approved grant may be utilised on a combination of investment costs provided the applicant illustrates a sound business case for the proposed investment activities.

Eligibility criteria

a) An applicant must submit a completed application form and business plan with detailed agro-processing beneficiation activities, budget plans and projected income statement and balance sheet for a period of at least three years for the project. The project/business must exhibit economic merit in terms of sustainability.
b) The application must be submitted within the designated application window period, prior to the start of processing/beneficiation or undertaking of activities applied for. Any assets bought and taken into commercial use, or competitiveness improvement costs incurred before applying for the incentive will be considered as non-qualifying.
b) Existing entities must submit latest financial statements, reviewed by an independent external auditor or accredited person and not older than 18 months.
a) The approved entity may not reduce its employment levels from the average employment levels for a 12-month period prior to the date of application, and these employment levels should be maintained for the duration of the incentive period/agreement.

Minimum qualifying investment size, including competitiveness improvement cost, will be at least R1 million.

Aquaculture Development

1.2.19 Enhancement Programme (ADEP)

The ADEP is an incentive programme available to South-African-registered entities engaged in primary, secondary and ancillary aquaculture activities in both marine and freshwater classified under SIC 132 (fish hatcheries and fish farms) and SIC 301 and 3012 (production, processing and preserving of aquaculture fish). The grant is provided directly to approved applications for new projects or the upgrading of existing projects.

The programme offers a reimbursable cost-sharing grant of up to a maximum of R20 million qualifying costs in machinery, equipment, bulk infrastructure, owned land and/or buildings, leasehold improvements, and competitiveness improvement activities as outlined in section 8 of the ADEP guidelines.

Objectives

The objective of the incentive is to stimulate investment by commercially viable enterprises in the aquaculture sector. The secondary objectives are to:

a) Create and/or sustain jobs;

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

b) Broaden participation;
c) Increase production; and
d) Geographical spread

Benefits

ADEP's contribution is up to 50% (capped at R20 million) of qualifying costs for new, upgrading or expanding projects in the following:

a) Machinery, equipment and tools
b) Bulk infrastructure (only in water and electrical infrastructure)
c) Owned land (only applicable to small black enterprises)
d) Buildings (ponds, cages, tanks, etc.)
e) Leasehold improvements, capitalised in the balance sheet, where lease agreement is at least 10 years
f) Rental costs, (only for small black enterprises), capped at R20 000 per month and claimable at stage two only
g) Aquaculture feed, up to a maximum of 10% of total costs, (capped at 20% for small lack enterprises)
h) Commercial vehicles or work boats (owned or capitalised financial lease), not to exceed 50% of total qualifying costs
i) Competitiveness improvement activities (e.g. skills development) up to R500 000
j) Environmental impact assessments (EIA) and permit authorisation costs (only for small black enterprises)
k) Mentorship (only or small enterprises), up to R200 per hour, eight hours per day capped at R200 000 per approved project or application

Eligible enterprises

Primary aquaculture operations

a) Hatchery facilities and operations (e.g. broodstock, seed, spat, fry, fingerling, etc.);
b) Nursery facilities and operations;
c) Grow-out facilities and operations [e.g. rafts, net closures, net pens, cages, tanks raceways and ponds; Recirculating Aquaculture System (RAS), ranching, etc.]

Secondary aquaculture operations

a) Primary processing: post-harvest handling, gutting, packing, quick freezing
b) Secondary processing: filleting, portioning, packaging, setting up trader, and distribution networks
c) Tertiary processing or value adding,i.e. curing, brining, smoking, further value adding such as terrines, roulades, pates, paters
d) Waste stream

Ancillary aquaculture operations

Aquaculture feed manufacturing operations

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Small black enterprises

ADEP's definition of small black enterprises:

a) 100% black-owned
b) Exercises operational and management control over the business
c) Makes a long-term commitment to the business and is a medium- to long-term
d) investor
e) Investment of less than R5m

The dtic may consider an additional 5% grant for small black-owned enterprises that achieve a score of eight, and other enterprises that achieve a score of 10 in the economic benefit criteria outlined in Section 7 of the ADEP Guidelines.

1.2.20 Manufacturing Competitiveness Enhancement Programme (MCEP) Loan Facility

The MCEP is designed to make existing South African manufacturing companies more competitive. The programme provides working capital loans to qualifying companies. Plant and equipment loans are also provided to manufacturing companies that are owned by black industrialists. Both the working capital loan and plant and equipment loan are priced at a preferential rate fixed of 4% per annum.

Qualifying criteria for a working capital loan

a) The facility is available for working capital
b) It is not applicable to start-ups
c) Capped at R50 million per annum
d) Only applicable to manufacturers under Standard Industry Classification Code 3
e) The maximum repayment term is 48 months (including moratorium)
f) The first drawdown must be within six months of the date of approval
g) The applicant may not cut jobs during the term of the facility
h) The applicant should be at B-BBEE level 4 – if not, this status should be achieved
b) within 24 months of approval of the loan
a) Fees are not applicable

Qualifying criteria for plant and equipment loan

a) Only available for black industrialists
b) Start-up businesses may apply
c) The maximum term for plant and equipment loans is 84 months (including
b) moratorium)
a) Maximum loan amount of R50 million per qualifying applicant
b) Pre- and post-business-development sector support will be capped at R3 million
c) per application
a) Applicants must meet the dtic' s definition of black industrialist

The Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) administers the programme.

1.2.21 Clothing and Textile Competitiveness Improvement Programme (CTCIP)

The CTCIP aims to build capacity among clothing and textile manufacturers and in other areas of the apparel value chain in South Africa to enable them to effectively supply their customers and compete on a global scale. Such competitiveness encompasses issues of cost, quality, flexibility, reliability, adaptability and the capacity to innovate.

Objectives

The main objective of the CTCIP is to create a group of globally competitive clothing and textile companies, thus ensuring a sustainable environment that will retain and grow employment.

The IDC administers the programme.

1.2.22 Strategic Partnership Programme (SPP)

The SPP provides cost-sharing grants to develop and support programmes/ interventions aimed at enhancing the manufacturing and service capacity of SMME suppliers with linkages to strategic partner supply chains, industries or sectors.

Objectives

The objective of the SPP is to encourage large private-sector enterprises in partnership with government to support, nurture and develop small and medium enterprises within the partner's supply chain or sector to be manufacturers of goods and suppliers of services in a sustainable manner.

Qualifying costs

The following costs are eligible for support:

a) Machinery, equipment and tools
b) Infrastructure linked to the strategic partner's supplier development initiative
b) (owned/leased buildings, leased improvements)
a) Product or service development
b) Information and communication technology
c) Operational costs
d) Business development services

Grant support

The grant approval is capped at a maximum of R15 million (VAT inclusive) per financial year over a three-year period towards qualifying costs, based on the number of qualifying suppliers, and is subject to the availability of funds. The SPP offers a cost-sharing support of 50:50 towards manufacturing projects and 70:30 for projects that support manufacturing-supply-chain-related services and deemed strategic by the dtic.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Eligibility criteria

a) A South African registered legal entity in terms of the Companies Act, 1973 (as amended) or the Companies Act, 2008 (as amended); the Close Corporation Act, 1984 (as amended) or the Co-operatives Act, 2005 (as amended).
b) An entity with a minimum turnover of R100 million per annum for at least two consecutive years at application stage, confirmed by the latest available audited financial statements.
c) An association with five or more registered legal entities.
d) An association that can organise itself for this purpose and must in this regard provide a letter(s) of commitment from manufacturer(s) that control(s) and/or has a direct influence in the market/manufacturing value chain to be developed.

1.2.23 Export Marketing and Investment Assistance (EMIA)

In order to grow export markets, the EMIA individual exporter incentives provide cost reimbursable grants to individual exporters in order to grow export markets for South African products and services.

Objectives

a) Provide export event marketing assistance to develop new and grow existing export markets.
b) Assist with the identification of new export markets through international exhibitions and market research.
b) • Assist companies to increase their competitiveness by supporting patent registrations, quality marks and product marks.
a) Assist with facilitation to grow foreign direct investment (FDI) through missions and FDI research.
b) Increase the contribution of black-owned businesses and small, medium and micro enterprises (SMMEs) to South Africa's economy.

Benefits

a) Capped costs for individual exhibition participation.
   i) Transport of samples
   ii) Rental of exhibition space
   iii) Construction of stands
   iv) Interpretation fees
   v) Internet connection
   vi) Telephone installation
   vii) Subsistence allowance per day viii) Return economy-class airfare ix) Exhibition stand fees

b) Capped Primary market research and FDI

Exporters will be compensated for the following capped costs incurred while recruiting new FDI into South Africa through personal contact in foreign countries:

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

i) Return economy-class airfare
ii) Subsistence allowance per day
iii) Transport of samples
iv) Marketing material
v) 50% of patent registration costs

c) Capped individual inward missions

i) Assistance is provided to South African entities organising an inward buying investor, to
ii) make contact with them to conclude an exporter's order or to attract FDI.
iii) Return economy-class airfare
iv) Subsistence allowance per day
v) Rental of vehicle

Eligible enterprises

a) South African individual exporters
b) South African export trading houses representing at least three SMMEs or
b) businesses owned by historically disadvantaged individuals (HDIs)
a) South African commission agents representing at least three SMMEs/HDIowned
c) businesses
a) South African exports councils, industry associations and joint action groups
d) (JAGs) representing at least five South African entities.

1.2.24 Sector-Specific Assistance Scheme (SSAS)

The SSAS is an upfront and reimbursable cost-sharing incentive, which grants financial support to registered sector coordinators that are recognised by the dtic, supporting the development of industry sectors and contributing to the growth of South African exports. The incentive is also available for international exhibition support.

Objectives

a) Developing an industry sector as a whole
b) Developing new export markets
c) Stimulating job creation
d) Broadening the export base
e) Developing and implementing sector-wide solutions to factors inhibiting export
b) growth
a) Promoting broader participation of black-owned companies and SMMEs to the
c) economy

Nature of SSAS projects

a) A project is a task with a predetermined outcome, a defined or short-term
b) Timeframe and measurable milestones.
c) The project must be developmental or promotional in nature.
d) The project should benefit the sector as a whole in terms of the SSAS objectives.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Note: Any research/studies undertaken or databases obtained will become the property of the dtic.

Benefits of sector-specific project funding

Funding in sectors and sub-sectors of industry prioritised by the dtic.

a) Sector-specific export development and promotional costs
b) Sector-focused export product and service development costs
c) Sector-specific projects that enhance export capabilities

Nature of SSAS exhibition projects

International exhibitions arranged by the dtic recognised sector coordinators on behalf4 of groups of qualifying emerging exporters of between 10 and 20 exporters per event.

Benefits of exhibition funding for emerging exporters

a) Compensation of costs in respect of activities aimed at the development of
b) South African emerging exporters, for travel and accommodation, transport of samples and marketing materials, exhibition costs, subsistence allowance, specialised training (product development, project management, etc.).
b) Maximum funding allocation per exhibition project is R1.9 million

Eligible coordinator

a) Export councils established through application to the dtic (an export council is a
b) Section 21 non-profit company that represents the developmental and promotional
c) objectives of a particular industry on a national level)
d) Industry associations, which are representative of sectors or sub-sectors of industry prioritised for development and promotion by the dtic, as determined by the relevantcustomised sector desk and export promotion unit

Africa, through the export of capital goods and services that align with the country's industrial policy.

Secondary objectives include:

a) ttracting high levels of domestic and foreign investments through capital projects;
b) strengthening international competitiveness of South African capital goods sector and allied industries;
c) creating sustainable jobs in South Africa;
d) creating a long-term demand for South African capital goods and services;
e) stimulating project development in Africa and in particular the Southern African Development Community (SADC) countries as well as support for the objectives of the New Partnership for Africa's Development (Nepad); and
f) stimulating upstream and downstream linkages with SMMEs and BEE companies.

Benefits

The grant is capped at R8 million for qualifying capital project BFS internationally, and domestically for manufacturing projects not exceeding 50% of the qualifying cost of the BFS project.

For projects in the rest of Africa, it is capped at 55% of the qualifying cost.

Eligibility criteria

South-African-registered legal entities are eligible for the CPFP. A foreign entity will only be considered if it partners with a South-African-registered entity and the application is submitted by the South African entity.

BFS projects that fulfil the following non-financial criteria are eligible:

a) New projects and expansions or rehabilitation of existing projects domestically or
b) internationally
c) Achieve minimum South African local content of 50% for capital goods and 70% for
d) professional services
e) Satisfy all the mandatory qualifying criteria such as B-BBEE and TCC compliance
f) Demonstrate the ability and credentials to complete the BFS successfully
g) Clarity of the BFS project scope and work schedule
h) Entities with applications for the BFS in South Africa must be engaged in the manufacturing sector (SIC3)

Additional evaluation criteria that could be considered as motivational factors include the following:

a) The project would have a positive impact on other developmental aspects, including job creation, skills development, linkages with SMMEs etc.
b) A minimum of 10% of the total professional services involved during the feasibility study should be sub-contracted to South African black-owned professionals/entities.

c) A clear, detailed time period within which the project emanating from the feasibility study will be realised.
d) Buy-in and other sources of funding from private and public sector organisation(s) to realise the project.

Services Investment Incentives

1.2.26 Global Business (GBS)

South Africa provides a robust enabling environment for potential investors, as well as a deeper domain skills advantage, a young and empathetic workforce, significant cost savings and world-class infrastructure for those who set up their operations in the country. The GBS incentive programme was designed to ensure that South Africa offers a globally competitive business case to investors. The GBS incentive programme was implemented from 1 January 2019 to attract investment and create employment opportunities, predominantly for youth in the country, through offshoring activities.

Objectives

The primary objective of the incentive is to create employment in South Africa through offshore activities.

The secondary objectives of the programme are to:
a) create employment opportunities for the youth (age 18-34 years); and
b) contribute to the country's export revenue from offshoring services.

Eligibility criteria

a) The applicant must:
b) be a registered legal entity in South Africa in terms of the Companies Act, 1973 (as amended) or the Companies Act, 2008, the Close Corporations Act, 1984 (as amended) or the Co-operatives Act, 2005 (as amended);
c) be a taxpayer in good standing and must in this regard provide a valid tax clearance certificate;
d) be B-BBEE compliant in terms of the B-BBEE Codes of Good Practice, 2013 and submit a valid B-BBEE certificate of compliance or affidavit;
e) pay a minimum wage of R5 000 per month, or in the case of inclusively hired resources pay a minimum wage of R4 000 per month for the first 12 months of employment; and
f) be involved in starting a new operation or expanding an existing operation in order to perform GBS activities and which may be operated from more than one physical location in South Africa.

The new project or expansion of an existing project must:
a) have created at least 50 new offshore jobs in South Africa by the end of the three years from the start of operation, as defined by these guidelines;
b) be financially viable;

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

c) commence operations no later than six months from the date of the GBS incentive grant approval;
d) in a joint venture arrangement, at least one of the parties must be registered in South Africa as a legal entity; and
e) a pilot project must result in investment and the creation of jobs within the six-month trial period.

Benefits

a) The base incentive is calculated on projected offshore jobs to be created, based on a tapering scale and is awarded on actual offshore jobs created as per the definition of full-time equivalents.
b) The base incentive offers a differential (three-tier structure) incentive for noncomplex, complex and highly complex jobs based on a fully loaded operating cost per job.
c) The base incentive is paid for a period of five years (60 months) from the date on which an offshore job is created.
d) The base incentive will be determined at application stage, depending on the fully loaded operating costs.
e) The bonus incentive is to be paid only at the end of year five, when the applicant becomes eligible for it.
f) The bonus incentive for non-complex jobs is only available to applicants that create and maintain more than 500 offshore jobs over a five-year period.
g) The bonus incentive for complex jobs is only available to applicants that create and maintain more than 200 offshore jobs.
h) The bonus incentive for highly complex jobs is only available to applicants that create and maintain more than 100 offshore jobs.

Non-eligible applicants

An applicant will not qualify if it is:

a) Expected to displace existing jobs within South Africa, for example, by way of relocating an existing facility in full or part within South Africa; and/or
b) • Entitled to concurrent incentive benefits under the BPS incentive, Black Business Supplier Development Programme (BBSDP) or the Jobs Fund.

1.2.27 South African Emerging Black Filmmakers Incentive

Infrastructure Investment Incentives

1.2.31 Special Economic Zone (SEZ) Programme

SEZs are geographically designated areas of a country set aside for specifically targeted economic activities and supported through special arrangements (that may include laws) and systems that are often different from those that apply in the rest of the country.

The purpose of the SEZ programme is to:

a) expand the strategic industrialisation focus to cover diverse regional development needs and context;
b) provide a clear, predictable and systematic planning framework for the development of a wider array of SEZs to support industrial policy objectives, the Reimagined Industrial Strategy and the New Growth Path;
c) clarify and strengthen governance arrangements, and expand the range and quality of support measures beyond provision of infrastructure; and
d) provide a predictable financing framework to enable long-term planning. SEZs have been identified as key contributors to economic development. They are the growth engines towards government's strategic objectives of industrialisation, regional development and employment creation. SEZs may be sector-specific or multi-product, and the following categories have been defined as per the SEZ Act No. 16 of 2014:

Definitions:

Industrial Development Zone means a purpose-built industrial estate that leverages domestic and foreign fixed direct investment in value-added and export-oriented manufacturing industries and services.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Free Port means a duty-free area adjacent to a port of entry where imported goods may be unloaded for value-adding activities within the SEZ for storage, repackaging or processing, subject to customs import procedures.
Free Trade Zone means a duty-free area offering storage and distribution facilities for value-adding activities within the SEZ for subsequent export.
Sector Development Zone means a zone focused on the development of a specific sector or industry through the facilitation of general or specific industrial infrastructure, incentives, technical and business services primarily for the export market.

Benefits of operating within an SEZ
A number of incentives will be available to ensure SEZ growth, revenue generation, creation of jobs, attraction of FDI and international competitiveness.

These SEZ incentives include:

a) Preferential 15% corporate tax Businesses (prescribed in section 24(4) of the SEZ Act) that are located in a SEZ may be eligible for tax relief, including the reduced rate of corporate income taxation. In addition to satisfying the requirements of the SEZ Act, further criteria for some of the available tax incentives are stipulated in the Income Tax Act, 1962 (Act No. 58 of 1962).

b) Building allowance
Businesses and operators (prescribed in section 1of the SEZ Act) operating within a SEZ may be eligible for tax relief, including a building allowance, subject to requirements contained in the Income Tax Act.

c) Employment incentive Businesses and operators operating within a SEZ may be eligible for tax relief, including the employment tax incentive, subject to requirements contained in the Employment Tax Incentive Act, 2013 (Act No. 26 of 2013).

d) Customs-controlled area
Businesses and operators located within a customs-controlled area of a SEZ will be eligible for tax relief as per the Value-Added Tax Act, 1991 (Act No. 89 of 1991), the Customs and Excise Act, 1964 (Act No. 91 of 1964), the Customs Duty Act, 2014 (Act No. 30 of 2014) and the Customs Control Act, 2014 (Act No.31 of 2014).

1.2.32 Critical Infrastructure Programme (CIP)

The CIP aims to enhance investment by supporting critical infrastructure and thus lowering the costs of investment. It is made available to approved eligible enterprises upon the completion of the project concerned. Infrastructure for which funds are required is deemed to be 'critical' if the investment would not take place without the said infrastructure or the said investment would not operate optimally.

Objectives
The programme is primarily designed to leverage private investment, but will also promote certain public-sector investments that create an enabling environment that leads to private investments.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Benefits

a) The CIP offers a grant of 10% to 30% of the total qualifying infrastructural development costs, up to a maximum of R50 million, based on the achieved score in the economic benefit criteria.
b) Agro-processing applicants and state-owned aerospace and defence national strategic testing facilities: The CIP will offer a grant of 10% to 50% of the total infrastructural development costs, up to a maximum of R50 million.
c) Projects that alleviate water and/or electricity dependency on the national grid: The CIP will offer a grant of 10% to 50%, up to a maximum of R50 million.
d) Distressed municipalities and state-owned industrial parks: The CIP offers a maximum grant of up to 100%, capped at R50 million for infrastructural development. Applicants are encouraged to make a contribution according to affordability.

Eligible enterprises

a) The applicant must be a registered legal entity in South Africa.
b) The project must be at least a level four B-BBEE contributor in terms of the Codes of Good Practice for B-BBEE. This requirement takes into account the exemptions in terms of Qualifying Small Enterprises (QSEs) as set out in terms of the Codes of Good Practice.
c) For FDI (i.e. foreign investors incorporated in South Africa), where it can be proven that such a foreign investor does not enter into any partnership arrangements in foreign countries, the Codes of Good Practice make provision for the recognition of contributions in lieu of a direct sale of equity.
d) For all projects, a grace period of 15 months after date of submission of the application is given to be able to comply. In all cases, a B-BBEE certificate should be submitted at claims stage.
e) The envisaged investment projects that may qualify for benefits under any investment incentive schemes offered by the dtic are eligible to apply for the CIP, provided such application is not for the same infrastructure activity items proposed by the project.
f) Projects that have applied for the Shared Economic Infrastructure Facility (SEIF) will not be funded or co-funded for the same infrastructure activity under CIP.

1.3 Department of Transport

1.3.1 Taxi Recapitalisation Programme

The fund was established under the department of transport to transform the taxi industry by paying taxi owners for scrapping their old taxis.

1.3.2 Taxi Relief Fund

The fund was allocated to struggling taxi operators as a relief during the Covid 19 Period and over R1 billion has been availed for the taxi industry to stay on the roads beyond the Covid-19 pandemic.

1.4 Department of agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development

1.4.1 Comprehensive Agricultural Support Programme Grant

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

This is a programme aimed at expanding the provision of agricultural support services and promoting and facilitating agricultural development by targeting subsistence, smallholding and black commercial farmers from a previously disadvantaged background.

1.4.2 Ilima/Letsema Projects Grant

This programme aimed at reducing poverty through increased food production initiatives by funding smallholder farmers; funding land and agrarian reform beneficiaries; farm workers; self-help groups (SHGs)/cooperatives; small agribusinesses; farmers on communal land in transition stage; from subsistence to smallholder; women and youth.

Land and Agricultural Development Bank of South Africa

1.4.3 Blended Finance Scheme (BFS):

BFS is a blended finance programme, established in partnership with the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD) to commercialise development farmers with the objective to facilitate meaningful participation of black producers and majority black owned enterprises owning and controlling the agricultural value chains. The targeted producers at land bank are; Small, medium and large scale producers in primary agriculture and agro-processing subsectors.

1.4.4 Agro Energy Fund (AEF)

The AEF is a blended finance programme, established in partnership with the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD) to provide funding support for the acquisition of alternative energy assets to alleviate the impact of loadshedding on farming operations and the agricultural sector. The fund will focus on financing energy intensive agricultural activities which include irrigation, intensive agricultural production systems and on-farm cold chain related activities. The targeted producers at land bank are; mega commercial producers; large scale producers; medium scale producers; and smallholder producers.

1.4.5 AGRIBEE

The AgriBEE Fund supports black-owned agricultural enterprises to promote transformation in the sector. Under the fund, all businesses related to agriculture, whether it's a farm or agro-processing business, are covered. The fund is under the management of the Department of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries. Grants are available from R 1 000 000 (with 10% applicant contribution) to R 5 000 000 (with 20% applicant contribution).

1.5 Department of Employment and Labour

Innovation Fund

The National Pathway Management Network (NPMN) Innovation Fund (The Fund) is a grant initiative led by the National Department of Employment and Labour, under the auspices of the Presidential Youth Employment Intervention and administered by the IDC. This Fund seeks to identify and support innovative solutions to barriers faced by young people in meaningfully participating in the labour market and the wider economy. The Fund seeks to support innovative initiatives focused on resolving barriers related to the 3 key focus areas of the NPMN i.e., stimulating and aggregating demand, driving systems change to address barriers and linking young people to opportunities. This Fund will prioritise initiatives that unlock new earning opportunities for young people.

1.6 National Treasury

1.6.1 The Neighbourhood Development Partnership Grant (NDPG)

The primary focus of the NDPG is to stimulate and accelerate investment in poor, underserved residential neighbourhoods by providing technical assistance and capital grant financing for municipal projects that have either a distinct private sector element or an intention to achieve this. Key to the programme is the principle of contribution and ownership. The programme recognizes and strives to ensure local buy-in and contribution (which could be in the form of financial or "sweat equity) of local communities, MSMES and other local role players.

1.7 Department of Tourism

1.7.1 Green Tourism Incentive Programme (GTIP) (business grants)

The Green Tourism Incentive Programme (GTIP) is a resource efficiency incentive programme managed by the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) on behalf of the Department of Tourism. The grant aims to encourage and assist privately-owned tourism enterprises to adopt responsible tourism practices through installing solutions for the sustainable management and usage of electricity and water resources.

The GTIP offers the following benefits to qualifying tourism enterprises:

a)The full cost for a new resource efficiency audit or the full cost for reviewing an existing resource efficiency audit;
b)Grant funding to qualifying MSMES on a sliding scale from 50% to 90% of the total cost of implementing resource efficiency interventions, capped at R1 million; and c)Qualifying enterprises may implement projects in phases to effectively manage their cash flow over a two-year project implementation period.

1.7.2 Tourism Relief Fund

Once-off capped grant assistance to Small Micro and Medium Sized Enterprises (MSMES) in the tourism sector to mitigate the impact of COVID-19 in order to ensure their sustainability. Capped at R50 000 per entity, grant funding can be utilised to subsidise expenses towards fixed costs, operational costs, supplies and other pressure cost items. The applications will be processed weekly, subject to availability of funds, while observing equitable spatial distribution in terms of provinces. Categories eligible to apply for the Tourism Relief Fund include the following:

Accommodation establishments: Hotels, Lodges, Bed and Breakfast (B&B's), Guest Houses and Backpackers. Hospitality and related services: Restaurants (not attached to hotels); Conference venues (not attached to hotels); Professional catering; and Attractions. Travel and related services: Tour operators; Travel agents; Tourist guiding; Car rental companies; and Coach Operators.

1.7.3 Tourism Transformation Fund (TTF)

Administered by the NEF on behalf of the Department of Tourism, the Tourism Transformation Fund (TTF) is a dedicated capital investment funding mechanism that focuses on financial support for black entrepreneurs for projects in the tourism sector. The Fund aims to drive transformation in the tourism sector in a more direct and impactful manner that will not only assist black-owned tourism enterprises to expand and grow, but to also catalyse the growth of a new generation of black owned youth, women, and community owned tourism enterprises to take the tourism sector to new heights.

1.7.4 The Tourism Equity Fund (TEF)

TEF plays a crucial role in addressing inequality in tourism entrepreneurship and fostering a more diverse and resilient tourism economy in South Africa. The programme is designed to promote transformation and inclusivity within the tourism sector. The fund targets small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) that are historically disadvantaged, providing them with financial support to enhance their capacity and competitiveness in the tourism sector.

Key aspects of the Tourism Equity Fund include:

a) Financial Support: The TEF offers financial assistance to qualifying businesses, enabling them to invest in areas such as infrastructure, marketing, and other operational costs.
b) Promotion of Inclusivity: The fund is aimed at empowering previously disadvantaged individuals and communities by providing them opportunities to participate in the tourism industry.
c) Capacity Building: Apart from financial aid, the fund also supports businesses with training and development initiatives to improve their operations and service delivery.
d) Economic Development: By supporting tourism SMEs, the fund contributes to broader economic growth, job creation, and sustainable development within the sector.

1.8 Department of Environmental Affairs

1.8.1 Recycling Enterprise Support Programme (RESP) (business grants)

Promoted through Department of Environmental Affairs aims to drive entrepreneurship and job creation by ensuring the economic benefits emanating from waste are fully exploited by promoting waste minimisation, re-use, recycling and recovery of waste. The grant provides up to R5m for new entrants and emerging enterprises in the recycling economy (HDIs). Fund support is for waste management related machinery and equipment, infrastructure (with the exclusion of

Section 2. Financial Agencies

2. Financial Agencies MSMEs financial offerings

2.1 Industrial Development Corporation (IDC)

The IDC offers a range of financial products for small businesses, including commercial loans, equity, quasi-equity, bridging finance, shareware housing, guarantees, suspensive sales, wholesale finance, export finance, import finance, support programmes for industrial innovation.

2.1.1 Gro-e-Youth Scheme

Offered through the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC), the Scheme provides financial and non-financial support to youth enterprises that actively contribute towards job creation and growing South Africa's economy. The grant offers qualifying individuals and/or businesses a minimum of R1 million with a maximum of R50 million per project, with loans at an interest rate of up to prime minus 3%. Start-up and expansion businesses with more than 25% ownership by individuals under the age of 36 may apply for the grant. Sectors that the Grant assists in include the green industry, mining value chain, media and motion pictures, strategic high-impact projects, as well as tourism and high-level services.

2.2 Small Enterprise Development and Finance Agency (SEDFA)

SEFA was established because of the merger of South African Micro Apex Fund, Khula Enterprise Finance Ltd and the small business activities of IDC. Objectives are to develop sustainable enterprises through the provision of finance in the form of loans. Through its wholesale lending, SEFA provides facilities (debt/equity) to intermediaries, joint venture and partnerships (specialised funds). The target market is survivalists, micro, small and medium businesses including cooperatives (MSMES) falling in the following funding gap: Survivalists and microenterprises - loans between R500 and R50 000. Small enterprises – loans between R50 000 and R1 million. The mandate of SEFA is to foster the establishment, survival and growth of MSMES and contribute towards poverty alleviation and job creation. SEFA has a regional footprint of 9 offices around the country. Government is helping small businesses deal with income losses incurred due to loadshedding. SEFA introduced the Energy Bounce Back Loan Guarantee Scheme (EBB) that will facilitate loans to Small and Medium Enterprises (SMEs) for investments related to rooftop solar generated energy.

Since October 2024, following the promulgation and proclamation of the National Small Enterprise Amendment Act, Amendment Act 21 of 2024, the Small Enterprise Development Agency (SEDA), sefa and the Co-operatives Bank Development Agency (CBDA) has been incorporated into a single entity called the Small Enterprise Development and Finance Agency.

2.2.1 Amavulandlela Funding Scheme (business grants)

2.2.4 The Spaza Shops Support Programme (SSSP)

SSSP is aimed at supporting and empowering the local spaza shops, which are informal retailers that play a crucial role in providing goods and services in their communities. In essence, the programme is designed to strengthen informal businesses, promoting sustainability and resilience within the retail sector in the country.

The programme focuses on several key aspects, namely:

a) Financial Assistance: SEDFA offers spaza shop owners grant funding and access to credit to help them buy stock, equipment, and operational costs.
b) Capacity Building: The program provides training and mentorship to shop owners, helping them enhance their business skills, improve operational efficiency, and develop better management practices.
c) Market Access: Efforts are made to connect spaza shops with suppliers, ensuring they can stock a variety of products at competitive prices, thereby improving their profitability.
d) Community Development: By supporting spaza shops, the program aims to contribute to local economies, create jobs, and foster entrepreneurship in underserved communities.

2.2.5 The Autobody Aftermarket Programme (AA)

The AA Programme implemented by Khula Credit Guarantee in South Africa is designed to support small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) in the automotive aftermarket sector.

The main objective of this program is to provide financial assistance, and credit guarantees to help these businesses access funding, which can be crucial for their growth and sustainability.

The programme focuses on:

a) Financial Support: to assist SMEs operating in automotive aftermarket to obtain the necessary financing from conventional lenders, by offering credit guarantees that reduce the risk for lenders, and in turn encourage the lenders to provide loans to SMEs.
b) Empowerment of SMEs: the programme seeks to foster entrepreneurship in the automotive aftermarket, helping to create jobs and stimulate economic growth.
c) Market Access: the programme may facilitate access to markets and promote networking opportunities for SMEs, allowing them to connect with larger players in the automotive industry and expand their reach.
d) Encouraging Local Production: by supporting local automotive aftermarket businesses, the programme tends to reduce dependence on imports, thereby promoting local manufacturing and ensuring a more sustainable automotive industry in South Africa.

4.2 Gauteng MSMEs Financial offerings

4.2.1 Township Economy Partnership Fund (TEPF)

Is a partnership between the Gauteng Department of Economic Development (GDED), the Gauteng Enterprise Propeller (GEP) and the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC). The fund supports MSMES in the township economy of Gauteng in sectors that include (but not limited to) Manufacturing, The Taxi Economy, ICT, Backyard Real Estate upgrading and retail. The TEP is a fund aimed at supporting vulnerable township small businesses that are unable to access funding from private funding institutions, government, and other business support programmes.

4.2.2 The SMME Crisis Partnership Fund

The Gauteng Provincial Government, the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) and the SA SME Fund have launched the SMME Crisis Partnership Fund, a R300 million debt fund for small businesses based in Gauteng townships. The Fund aims to reach a critical segment of the SMME Market that requires relatively small loans from (R500k to R1,5m) to fund their businesses. Qualifying MSMES are those with revenues of less than R20 million.

- The fund will allocate capital to non-bank lenders/intermediaries to on-lend to final beneficiaries. This will result in quite an extensive reach.
- The intermediaries have diverse product offerings, unique platforms; and approaches. They each have a niche market segment that they will service in the broader SMME sector. This diversity bodes well in that many more SMME's are likely to fall into the net and be assisted.
- The intermediaries will manage the application and credit processes.
- Loan Funding will be provided at the lowest interest rates – max of 1% per month.

4.2.3 Gauteng rebuilding fund

This fund only supports businesses that have suffered losses due to COVID-19 and looting in July. Funding is available on a first-come, first-served basis for those who qualify until they are exhausted.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

It is the applicant's responsibility to prove that they suffered losses through COVID-19 or looting and unrest. The Gauteng Rebuilding Fund is the Gauteng Provincial Government's response to the recent unprecedented challenges faced by small business. The R100 m fund includes a R50m contribution by the Gauteng Provincial Government and a further R50m from the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC). This fund has been exclusively set aside to support businesses that have suffered losses due to COVID-19 and looting that took place in July. The loan/grant blend will be capped at R1 million for smaller formal business in distress and R50 000 for informal business. The fund will help business cover rebuilding costs, replacement of infrastructure, inventory, equipment and critical suppliers. It will also cover increased business security and employee costs.

Annexure G: Extract from Competition Commission grocery retail market inquiry – Recommendations

The grocery-retail-market inquiry recommended that there should long-term exclusive lease agreements- National supermarket chains must, with immediate effect, cease enforcing exclusivity provisions, or provisions that have a substantially similar effect, in their lease agreements against: SMME's; speciality stores; and other grocery retailers (including the emerging challenge retailers) in shopping centres located in non-urban areas. No new leases or extensions to leases by grocery retailers may incorporate exclusivity clauses (or clauses that have substantially the same effect) or clauses that may serve to restrict the product lines, store size and location of other stores selling grocery items within the shopping centre. the Government should introduce legislation, in the form of a statute, regulations, or a code of practice to give effect to these recommendations.

Rental rates

Property owners and managers of shopping centres must: use fair, transparent and commercially justifiable criteria in determining differences in rental rates across tenants; ensure that escalation rates across tenants are uniform unless there are fair, transparent and commercially justifiable reasons for them to differ; and ensure that lease deposits and shop fitting allowances are based on fair, transparent and commercially justifiable criteria. The Government should introduce a legislative framework to give effect to these recommendations in the form of a code of good practice and the establishment of an industry Ombudsman to be financed by landlords.

Buyer power

Suppliers of fast-moving consumer goods must ensure that trade terms are uniformly available to all retailers, wholesalers and buyer groups; that the trade terms offered have an objective justification based on cost savings, supply chain efficiencies, efficient risk-sharing or sales promotion. The supplier must clearly stipulate and communicate the link between the trade terms offered and the efficiencies to all retailers, wholesalers and buyer groups; that the available trade terms and the conditions required to qualify for those terms are clearly communicated to all retailers, wholesalers and buyer groups and applied in a fair and uniform manner; that the percentage value provided under each trade term to different customers is reasonably related to qualifying criteria and value provided in respect of the objective justification for the trade term; and that the volume purchased may not form the basis for qualification or relative percentage value offered for any trade term to the designated class of retailers or wholesalers.

In order to address the challenge faced by small suppliers in accessing the shelf space of the national supermarket chains and taking into account the recent amendments and retailer initiatives noted above, the Inquiry recommends the following actions: First, that the current draft regulations designating agro-processing and grocery wholesale/retail, as well as the draft enforcement guidelines detailing specific practices as unfair be confirmed in the final regulations and guidelines. It is also recommended that these are widely publicised in order to empower small and historically disadvantaged suppliers in negotiations with the large national retail chains. In addition, the Inquiry recommends that once the regulations and guidelines are finalised, the Commission must engage the large national retail chains on their procurement practices to ensure that their procurement practices are aligned with the final enforcement guidelines, failing which, it should consider initiating an investigation of these firms' trading practices.

Second, the enterprise development programmes of the national retail chains should be formalised and strengthened. Accordingly, the Inquiry recommends that the national supermarket chains commit to a formal ongoing programme to develop small and historically disadvantaged suppliers. Furthermore, that such a programme should establish binding industry targets for a proportion of turnover to be supplied by SMMEs and historically disadvantaged suppliers, as well as a proportion of turnover to be spent on the development of new SMME and historically disadvantaged suppliers. These may initially be set in line with current enterprise development spend in order to entrench such programmes. However, the formal commitments should also entail a gradual escalation of these binding commitments over time. This escalation should take into account what is realistic and achievable but should also be ambitious in its efforts to address concentration in the supply chain. Given that it is also the government department that oversees the B-BEEE codes of practice which incorporate an enterprise development component, this industry commitment may be facilitated by the DTIC.

Government should facilitate the establishment of distribution centres to be located in peri- and non-urban areas to service small and independent retailers and wholesalers. Government should establish an incentive programme that will provide seed finance for innovative commercial models of private businesses that aim to offer the following support for small informal spaza shops: the effective incorporation of spaza shops into buyer groups and larger wholesale operations in order to assist them to realise economies of scale and scope in purchasing; the generation of key information on individual spaza shop operations such that the risks of extending credit finance to these shops can be more accurately assessed in order to facilitate credit access for the purchase of stock; and the development of consumer and business information to assist in the improvement of such businesses, including business and financial management training.

Removal of regulatory obstacles to meeting competitive challenges

All three spheres of government involved in the regulation of planning and trade should cooperate with one another to coordinate their activities and legislation in accordance with section 41(h)(iv) of the Constitution and coordinate their actions in terms of section 35 of the Intergovernmental Relations Framework Act, 13 of 2005 to give effect to the following recommendations: Organised local government must seek to develop a common approach for local government in terms of section 3(3)(a) of the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 32 of 2000 to develop uniform guidelines for by-laws and regulations to give effect to these recommendations; provinces and municipalities must coordinate and streamline applications for liquor licenses with applications for the rezoning of premises; municipalities must review the trading times in by-laws and regulations in relation to spaza shops and street traders, with a view to amending or abolishing those by-laws and regulations in accordance with the uniform guidelines; municipalities must fast-track the processing of existing re-zoning requests for spaza shops in township areas; municipalities must proactively rezone areas to enable them to carry on business in a more effective and formalised manner and in accordance with the uniform guidelines; municipalities must develop and implement preferred zoning processes and practices that facilitate ease of entry for SMMEs in non-urban areas including imposing conditions on the approval of shopping centre developments to secure the inclusion of SMME businesses in and around shopping centres; and municipalities must develop and implement a simplified framework for the registration of informal businesses, particularly spaza shops. In so far as counterfeit goods are concerned, it is recommended that- law enforcement officers appointed by municipalities are given powers to enforce the Counterfeit Goods Act, 37 of 1997 either under section 22 of that Act or by way of declaration in terms of section 334(1) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 51 of 1977; and there must be increased coordination between the South African Revenue Services, South African Police Services and municipalities to facilitate proactive policing of counterfeit goods. Given the multiplicity of issues that appear to distort and impede competition in the South African grocery retail sector, the Inquiry recommends that government should develop a legislative framework with a statutory industry body for the regulation of the retail sector in South Africa, taking into account, among others, the findings and recommendations of this Inquiry.

Competition Commission Grocery Retail Inquiry Recommended remedial action

"Having regard to the foregoing, the Inquiry recommends a number of remedial actions that may rectify the circumstances identified that have the effect of preventing and distorting competition in the grocery retail sector and inhibiting the effective participation of spaza shops and independent retailers in this sector.

Broadly, the required remedial actions comprise a suite of interventions ranging from (i) changes in firm behaviour in order to ameliorate the distortions in competition in relation to long-term exclusive lease agreements and buyer power; (ii) support mechanisms to bolster the sustainable competitiveness of small and independent retailers; and (iii) modernisation of the regulatory landscape in order to create a conducive environment for the optimal functioning of competition.

The following is a direct extract from the Inquiry recommends, recommended to be effective as of the date of publication of the Final Report, i.e. 2029.

Long-term exclusive lease agreements

1. National supermarket chains must, with immediate effect, cease from enforcing exclusivity provisions, or provisions that have a substantially similar effect, in their lease agreements against:
   1.1 SMME's;
   1.2 speciality stores; and
   1.3 other grocery retailers (including the emerging challenger retailers) in shopping centres located in non-urban areas.

2. No new leases or extensions to leases by grocery retailers may incorporate exclusivity clauses (or clauses that have substantially the same effect) or clauses that may serve to restrict the product lines, store size and location of other stores selling grocery items within the shopping centre.

3. Subject to 1 above, the enforcement of exclusivity by the national supermarket chains as against other grocery retailers must be phased out by the next extension of the lease or within five years from the date of the publication of this Final Report, whichever is earlier.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

4. In order to continue the work of the Inquiry, the Commission must seek to secure voluntary compliance by the national supermarket chains within six months from the date of publication of this Final Report. If the national supermarket chains do not undertake to give effect to these recommendations, the Government should introduce legislation, in the form of a statute, or regulations, or Code of Practice to give effect to these recommendations.

5. Lastly, the above recommendations do not preclude the Commission from pursuing litigation in respect of the existing complaints and evidence gathered in this Inquiry. A final decision on a referral to the Tribunal should have regard to the response of each of the national supermarket chains to the efforts of the Commission in relation to the procurement of voluntary compliance with the above recommendations. The Inquiry is of the view that the evidence gathered in these proceedings may establish a prima facie case for a referral to the Tribunal. However, the Inquiry also accepts that litigation is a protracted process, and the interests of consumers may be best served by an immediate and voluntary compliance by the national supermarket chains.

Rental rates

6. Property owners and managers of shopping centres must:
   6.1 use fair, transparent and commercially justifiable criteria in determining differences in rental rates across tenants;
   6.2 ensure that escalation rates across tenants are uniform unless there are fair, transparent and commercially justifiable reasons for them to differ; and
   6.3 ensure that lease deposits and shop fitting allowances are based on fair, transparent and commercially justifiable criteria.

7. In order to continue the work undertaken by the Inquiry, the Minister should appoint a facilitator to seek to secure voluntary compliance by property owners and managers of shopping centres. If the facilitator is unable to secure voluntary compliance within six months from the date of publication of this Final Report, the Government should introduce a legislative framework to give effect to these recommendations in the form of a code of good practice and the establishment of an industry Ombudsman.

Buyer power

8. Suppliers of fast-moving consumer goods must ensure:

8.1 that trade terms are uniformly available to all retailers, wholesalers and buyer groups;

8.2 that trade terms offered have an objective justification based on cost savings, supply chain efficiencies, efficient risk-sharing or sales promotion; the supplier must clearly stipulate and communicate the link between the trade terms offered and the efficiencies to all retailers, wholesalers and buyer groups;

8.3 that the available trade terms and the conditions required to qualify for those terms are clearly communicated to all retailers, wholesalers and buyer groups and applied in a fair and uniform manner;

8.4 that the percentage value provided under each trade term to different customers is reasonably related to qualifying criteria and value provided in respect of the objective justification for the trade term; and

8.5 that the volume purchased may not form the basis for qualification or relative percentage value offered for any trade term to the designated class of retailers or wholesalers.

9. In order to address the challenge faced by small suppliers in accessing shelf space of the national supermarket chains and taking into account the recent amendments and retailer initiatives noted above, the Inquiry makes the following recommends:

9.1 First, that the current draft regulations designating agro-processing and grocery wholesale/retail, as well as the draft enforcement guidelines detailing specific practices as unfair be confirmed in the final regulations and guidelines. These should be widely publicised in order to empower small and historically disadvantaged suppliers in negotiations with the large national retail chains. In addition, the Inquiry recommends that once the regulations and guidelines are finalised, that the Commission engage the large national retail chains on their procurement practices to ensure that their procurement practices are aligned with the final enforcement guidelines, failing which, consideration should be given to initiating an investigation into these firms' trading practices.

9.2 Second, the enterprise development programmes of the national retail chains should be formalised and strengthened. Accordingly, the Inquiry recommends that the national supermarket chains make industry commitments to a formal ongoing programme to develop small and historically disadvantaged suppliers. Furthermore, such a programme should establish binding industry targets for a proportion of turnover to be Given that it is also the government department that oversees the B-BEEE codes of practice which incorporate an enterprise development component, this industry commitment may be facilitated by the DTIC.

10. In order to continue the work undertaken by the Inquiry, the Minister should appoint a facilitator to seek to secure voluntary compliance by suppliers of fast-moving consumer goods. If the facilitator is unable to secure voluntary compliance within six months from the date of publication of this Final Report, the Government should introduce a legislative framework to give effect to these recommendations in the form of a code of good practice and the establishment of an industry Ombudsman.

Removal of regulatory obstacles to meeting competitive challenges

13. All three spheres of government involved in the regulation of planning and trade should cooperate with one another to coordinate their activities and legislation in accordance with section 41(h)(iv) of the Constitution and coordinate their actions in terms of section 35 of the Intergovernmental Relations Framework Act, 13 of 2005 to give effect to the following recommendations:

13.1 organised local government must seek to develop a common approach for local government in terms of section 3(3)(a) of the Local Government: Municipal Systems Act, 32 of 2000 to develop uniform guidelines for by-laws and regulations to give effect to these recommendations;

13.2 municipalities must review the trading times in by-laws and regulations in relation to spaza shops and street traders, with the view to amending or abolishing those by-laws and regulations in accordance with the uniform guidelines;

13.3 municipalities must fast-track the processing of existing re-zoning requests for spaza shops in township areas;

13.4 municipalities must proactively rezone areas to enable them to carry on business in a more effective and formalised manner and in accordance with the uniform guidelines;

13.5 provinces and municipalities must coordinate and streamline applications for liquor licences and for rezoning;

13.6 municipalities must develop and implement preferred zoning processes and practices that facilitate ease of entry for SMMEs in non-urban areas including imposing conditions to the approval of shopping centre developments to secure the inclusion of SMME businesses in and around shopping centres;

13.7 municipalities must develop and implement a simplified framework for the registration of informal businesses, particularly spaza shops.

14 In so far as counterfeit goods are concerned, it is recommended that

14.1 law enforcement officers appointed by municipalities are given powers to enforce the Counterfeit Goods Act, 37 of 1997 either under section 22 of that Act or by way of declaration in terms of section 334(1) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 51 of 1977; and

PART ONE: ANALYSIS FOR FINAL SEIAS REPORT

Please keep your answers as short as possible. Do not copy directly from any other document.

1. Conceptual Framework, Problem Statement, Aims and Theory of Change

1.1 What socio-economic problem does the proposal aim to resolve?

Since the advent of democracy in South Africa, support for rural areas and township economic development to date has been insufficient and uncoordinated. Support initiatives need to be reorganized and overhauled through existing resources from the different role players within the entire eco-system. The approach should be through improved co-ordination, cooperation, collaboration and directed focus of multiple disjointed support that exists across government.

Townships were originally designed by the apartheid system to be dormitories of cheap black labour, with little commercial or industrial activity to support considerable job creation in the mainstream economy. Given the lack of the overall township economy being absorbed in the mainstream economy, townships ended up having disproportionately high levels of informal enterprises and in some instances a proliferation of illicit goods were traded in these areas across the country. Publications such as Township Businesses in South Africa highlight the socio-economic isolation of townships which resulted in the development of what was considered an "informal" economic sector containing nearly six (6) million businesses across the country. It is estimated that around 65 % of all township enterprises are informal.

World Bank [15]research on South African townships notes that due to the township low development and weak linkages with the formal sector and the negligible industrial production within the township borders, it was important for policy to address the economic deficiency within the township economy. Rural areas have also through the years suffered the effects of being at the periphery of the mainstream economy. Studies on the rural economy show that rural communities face numerous difficulties, such as unemployment, poverty and inequality. These studies corroborate research findings on challenges experienced by entrepreneurs in rural areas that there is lack of access to finances, human resources, infrastructural challenges and social issues such as crime and lack of demand for products or services of entrepreneurs in these areas. Generally, these challenges are experienced by entrepreneurs in townships, rural areas and to a large extend by small enterprises on a universal level. Examining the impact of job location on violent crime: the study of South African metropolitan areas

Studies [16]on crime in South Africa that compare areas that are integrated with economic opportunities with those that are disintegrated from economic opportunities and are less affluent and have lower job opportunities show that these areas have high levels of crime in the country, which to an extend is attributable to lack of opportunities, poverty and inequality. Furthermore, the World Bank [17]indicates that approximately over forty percent (40%) of the working-age population resides in township areas and over sixty percent (60%) of the unemployed in the country reside in townships. Poverty levels are therefore skewed towards township areas in the country and given the Stats SA Quarterly Labour Force Survey (QLFS) publication for 2025, the official unemployment rate was 32.9 % in the first quarter of 2025. According to 2024 QLFS data the informal sector accounted for 19.5% of total employment in South Africa. The need for policy to redress the township and rural economic trajectory is amplified given these national statistics.

What socio-economic problem does the proposal aim to resolve	What are the main roots or causes of the problem
Investment in infrastructure and maintenance	Inadequate infrastructure investment i.e. economic and business infrastructure. The World Bank states that infrastructural inadequacies in South Africa were mostly rampant in townships characterised by poor road networks. Different studies such as the Re-imagining the complexities faced by rural entrepreneurs in South Africa: Implications for local economic development in the post COVID-19 pandemic period and the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD) through its Infrastructure Development in Rural Areas Policy acknowledges that the need for investment in infrastructure has been an identified key requirement for transformation of the rural economy. In addition, journals such as The Availability of Infrastructure in Townships: Is there Hope for Township Businesses, show that lack of business and basic infrastructure is a challenge for entrepreneurs in township areas. Furthermore, the report notes that in order for township businesses to improve, infrastructure was a prerequisite. Aforementioned research reports indicate that there is generally lack of adequate infrastructure to support entrepreneurship endeavours in township and rural areas.
Lack of adequate skills by rural and township entrepreneurs	Generic entrepreneurship training. The Aspen Network of Development Entrepreneurs' (ANDE) Entrepreneurship in South Africa's Townships: Ecosystem Challenges and Recommendations for the Path Forward report highlights that the lack of specialisation among business development service (BDS) offerings did not assist entrepreneurs in their stage of growth and sector-specific needs.

[17] Ibid (Refers to the same source as footnote 1)

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

	The report further notes that lack of mentors and language mismatch between BDS providers and entrepreneurs, especially in rural and township areas was also noted to be an impediment in the entrepreneurship journey.
Lack of access to finance for rural and township-based enterprises	Lack of patient [18]capital for township and rural-based enterprises. Regulatory requirements which render township and rural-based small enterprises not investment ready and therefore not viable to be funded.[19] Lack of appropriate funding instruments for township and rural-based MSMEs. According to the aforementioned research by ANDE, township enterprises do not have access to lenient finance which offers favourable terms such as long-term investments or below-market interest rates. Furthermore, the research by ANDE refers to a gap in funding eligibility requirements between what funders require and realities of entrepreneurs in township and rural areas. Requirements such as documentation, including bank statements, lease agreements amongst others.
Trade in illicit or counterfeit goods	Poor law enforcement by government i.e., lack of capacity to employ enforcement officers. Studies by the Durban University of Technology (DUT) indicate that there has been a rise in counterfeit goods being traded in South Africa. The Safeguarding Township Tourism in South Africa from Counterfeit Consumable Products through Consumer-oriented Technology Solutions report shows that the problem of counterfeit goods is prevalent in South Africa with examples of factories worth R77 million producing counterfeit consumable products (food and beverages) being in operation. Publications such as the Rise of Illicit and counterfeit Fast Moving Consumer Goods (FMCG) in South African Spaza Shops and Fake Food Flooding South African Townships indicate that there is a rise in counterfeit goods being traded in spaza shops in township areas.
Lack of access to markets	Inability to scale services and products for broader market access. The World Bank reports that the South African economy is dominated by large companies that account for 90% of the South African market. It was also notable that these large companies preferred doing business with trusted suppliers they have built a long-term relationship with, which prohibits growth of small enterprises into these markets. Furthermore, township and rural entrepreneurs struggle with access to markets and distribution channels due to few opportunities to access broader markets beyond their immediate local area. Research on Building Sustainable Township Economies indicate that only 25 % of township businesses have access to markets beyond their immediate geographical area, therefore limiting their expansion opportunities.

Safety and security concerns and high crime levels	Inability of law enforcement to address high crime levels. Lack of investment in infrastructure to support crime prevention. A study commissioned by the South African Presidency titled, The Impact of Crime on South African Businesses in South Africa illustrates that township enterprises are severely affected by crime. The research covered business owners operating in inner city areas, large townships and informal settlements and densely developed suburban areas. The study notes that business owners operating in townships and informal settlements were most likely to describe their locations as being characterised by high levels of crime.
Lack of access to technology	Studies such as the Township Tech Sector Intelligence Report indicate that generally there is lack of access to technological tools in townships. In addition, the World Bank indicates that small businesses are not utilizing digital technologies in their business to its full potential, especially in townships and underdeveloped region. The following challenges prevail, including in rural areas: - Poor or no internet connectivity. - Poor knowledge of digital tools in the township business space. This also applies to rural areas. - Adverse general socio-economic circumstances preventing information and communications technology (ICT) adoption.

1.3 Summarise the aims of the proposal and how it will address the problem in no more than five sentences

The Department of Small Business Development through the development of the Township and Rural Economy Development and Revitalization Policy aims to:

1.3.1 The Policy will be redistributive in approach and will promote collaboration, coordination and partnership between the public and private sector on investment in township and rural areas. This investment will be quantified through alignment of departmental performance plans, municipal integrated development plans and private sector annual operating plans.

1.3.2 Improve employment and livelihoods in township and rural areas. The policy will outline an implementation plan that details resource allocation and stakeholder arrangements which will guide on implementation. With improved resource planning and allocation in township and rural areas, small enterprises operating in these areas will grow and employ local residents.

1.1 How is this proposal contributing to the following national priorities?

National Priority	Impact
1. Drive Inclusive Growth and Job Creation	Promote inclusion and growth of small enterprises in township and rural areas through collaborative planning effort. Annual Plans and integrated plans should be aligned and streamlined to ensure maximum impact and efficiency. Comprehensive planning and coordination of investment into township and rural areas will have promote growth of small enterprises operating in those areas with direct benefit of their growth and job creation.
2. Reducing poverty and tackling the high cost of living	A large population of the poor in South Africa reside in townships and rural areas where economic opportunities are scarce. The World Bank report, Economics of South African Townships: Special focus on Diepsloot, reported that over 60 % of the unemployed reside in townships. Intently addressing systemic challenges experienced in the township and rural economy should provide modalities in effectively delivering support services to small enterprises operating in township and rural areas.

National Priority	Impact
3. Building a capable, ethical and developmental state	Through coordination, the state and its various spheres of government will promote collaborative effort in planning and execution of programmes. Outcomes of this approach will promote the identification competencies by different government departments and their agencies, municipalities and the private sector. This will assist in addressing challenges such as access to market, access to business premises as well as scaling financial and non-financial support through strategic partnerships.

1.2 Please describe how the problem identified could be addressed if this proposal is not adopted. At least one of the options should involve no legal or policy changes but rather rely on changes in existing programmes or resource allocation.

Option 1.	Strengthen the implementation of the DDM through the Office of the Presidency. The Department of Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA) as the lead department on intergovernmental relations needs to institutionalize the District Development Model (DDM) approach. Institutionalization of the DDM approach will go beyond issuing of DDM regulations i.e. establish coordinating mechanisms and guidelines beyond intergovernmental structures that will outline how various departments and their agencies plan, execute, report and periodically monitor the One Plan initiatives. These One Plan initiatives will need to identify high impact programmes for rural and township economy development. The Presidency will provide oversight support to COGTA through monitoring and evaluation mechanisms as well as enforcement.
Option 2.	Design a National Framework on Incentives for small enterprises on rural and township economy development. This framework will enable targeted implementation of programme support for township and rural-based small enterprises.

PART TWO: IMPACT ASSESSMENT

2. Policy/Legislative alignment with other departments, behaviours, consultations with stakeholders, social/economic groups affected, assessment of costs and benefits and monitoring and evaluation.

2.1 Are other government laws or regulations linked to this proposal? If so, who are the custodian departments? Add more rows if required.

Government legislative prescripts	Custodian Department	Areas of Linkages	Areas of contradiction and how will the contradictions be resolved
The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996	Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD) Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA), Metropolitan, District and Local Municipalities	Chapter 14 stipulates that rural development includes road, electricity and storm water infrastructure, ICT infrastructure and by extension includes support to small enterprises development support. Chapter 7 stipulates that municipalities shall promote economic development	No contradictions. The proposed policy advocates for streamlined support through coordination and collaboration.

Intergovernmental Relations Framework Act, 2005 (Act No. 13 of 2005)	COGTA, Metropolitan, District and Local Municipalities In addition, objects of the Act are applicable to national, provincial and local government	The object of the Act is to facilitate co-ordination in the implementation of policy and legislation, including coherent government, effective provision of services, monitoring implementation of policy and legislation and realisation of national priorities.	No contradictions. The proposed policy advocates for streamlined support through coordination and collaboration.
National Small Enterprise Act, 1996 (Act No. 102 of 1996)	Department of Small Business Development (DSBD)	The primary object of the Act is to establish a developmental legislative framework that represents and promotes the growth of small enterprises.	The Act aligns with objectives of the proposal.
Gauteng Township Economic Development Act, 2022 (Act No. 2 of 2022)	Gauteng Department of Economic Development (GDED)	The primary object of the Act is to promote economic transformation of the local township economic that enables meaningful participation by historically disadvantaged individuals (HDIs)	The Act aligns with objectives of the proposal.

2.2 Proposals inevitably seek to change behaviour in order to achieve a desired outcome. Describe (a) the behaviour that must be changed, and (b) the main mechanisms to bring about those changes. These mechanisms may include modifications in decision-making systems; changes in procedures; educational work; sanctions; and/or incentives.

a) What and whose behaviour does the proposal seek to change? How does the behaviour contribute to the socio-economic problem addressed?

National, provincial and local government and their implementing entities.

Various government departments, municipalities and their entities implement support programmes for small enterprise development. However, rural and township economy development remains uncoordinated with little collaborative effort by stakeholders in addressing rural and township economy challenges. Township and rural area-specific challenges prohibit township and rural-based small enterprises from growing and participating in the mainstream economy. These challenges include lack of economic infrastructure, business premises, patient capital that considers the operational level of the enterprise, enterprise specific business development support services amongst others.

The proposed policy aims to guide all government departments and their entities and the private sector partners on coordinating, collaborating and partnering collectively to support the growth of the rural and township economy. The implementation framework of the policy will serve as a mechanism on aligning departments with constitutional and legislative mandate with departments, entities and private sector stakeholders that support the rural and township economy as a shared responsibility.

b) How does the proposal aim to bring about the desired behavioural change?

The proposed policy is redistributive and provides guidance on what, through the consultative process, will be a shared vision and objectives. National objectives on township and rural economy development should guide stakeholders, in the public and private sectors, on investment initiatives directed towards townships and rural areas in the country.

Currently initiatives are not aligned given that there are no established coordinating mechanisms by stakeholders on township and rural economy development. Small enterprises that are supported through different initiatives such as business development services and funding may not necessarily be supplemented by information and communication technologies, access to business premises where products can be manufactured. Collaboration and coordination through the proposed policy should enable joint planning by stakeholders which should identify the type of initiatives and outcomes the initiatives should bring.

2.3 Consultations

a) Who has been consulted inside of government and outside of it? Please identify major functional groups (e.g. business; labour; specific government departments or provinces; etc.); you can provide a list of individual entities and individuals as an annexure if you want.

Consulted stakeholders outside government

Name of Stakeholder	What do they see as main benefits, Implementation/ Compliance costs and risks?	Do they support or oppose the proposal?	What amendments do they propose?	Have these amendments been incorporated in your proposal?
Small enterprises operating in township and rural areas in the provinces during consultations	The proposed policy will address challenges experienced by township and rural areas such as lack of access to: - business premises - funding - markets - information - business specific business support services e.g. sector support, growth stage etc. - information and communications technology	Support	Reflection and emphasis of the proposed policy on socio-economic challenges. Outline specific roles and responsibilities of national, provincial, and local governments in the policy. Alignment of the proposed policy with other policies and standard bylaws needs to be considered. The Salga small town regeneration programme needs to be linked in the proposed policy.	Amendments have been incorporated with the exception of the SALGA Small Town Regeneration Programme. The programme aims to revitalize the small-town economy and parameters of the proposed policy is rural and township economy development and revitalization. A lot of the proposals were operational in nature and not strategic in nature.

b) Summarise and evaluate the main disagreements about the proposal arising out of discussions with stakeholders and experts inside and outside of government. Do not give details on each input, but rather group them into key points, indicating the main areas of contestation and the strength of support or opposition for each position

Research indicates that townships recorded high levels of unemployment, persistent poverty and record-high levels of inequality and therefore at the centre of the triple crisis facing South Africa. Poverty levels are relatively high in townships and were estimated at 55.5 % in 2022; promoting the economic divide between suburbs and cities and historically excluded areas such as townships and rural areas. This divide resulted in the high Gini coefficient of 63 % for South Africa, making it the most unequal society in the world.

Based on this, stakeholders did not have disagreements with the proposed policy and therefore provided inputs into strengthening the policy stance on redressing the economic neglect faced by township and rural areas.

2.4 Describe the groups that will benefit from the proposal, and the groups that will face a cost. These groups could be described by their role in the economy or in society. Note: NO law or regulation will benefit everyone equally so do not claim that it will. Rather indicate which groups will be expected to bear some cost as well as which will benefit. Please be as precise as possible in identifying who will win and who will lose from your proposal. Think of the vulnerable groups (disabled, youth, women, SMME) but not limited to other groups.

List of beneficiaries (groups that will benefit)	How will they benefit?
Rural and township-based small enterprise.	Better service delivery through alignment of national, provincial and local government in planning and execution. Better planning and execution of the different spheres of government would potentially crowd-in private sector role players given improved outcomes of initiatives. Private sector role players also have existing initiatives supporting township and rural areas and alignment will yield greater outcomes and impact in the long run.
Community members in the rural and township areas.	Alignment of national, provincial and local government will improve service delivery i.e. roads, information and communication technology, employment opportunities as small enterprises in these areas grow and the opportunity to run business grows.

List of cost bearers (groups that will bear the cost)	How will they incur / bear the cost
National, provincial and local government and their entities	Escalation in budget commitment on infrastructure development and maintenance i.e. road, information and communications technology infrastructure, allocation of business premises etc. The possibility of the need to capacitate smaller municipalities in rural and township areas through human and financial resources. Identification of additional budget requirements can only be assessed through budget and personnel resource planning in the respective municipalities.

2.5 Describe the costs and benefits of implementing the proposal to each of the groups identified above, using the following chart. Please do not leave out any of the groups mentioned, but you may add more groups if desirable. Quantify the costs and benefits as far as possible and appropriate. Add more lines to the chart if required.

Note: "Implementation costs" refer to the burden of setting up new systems or other actions to comply with new legal requirements, for instance new registration or reporting requirements or by initiating changed behaviour. "Compliance costs" refers to on-going costs that may arise thereafter, for instance providing annual reports or other administrative actions. The costs and benefits from achieving the desired outcomes relate to whether the particular group is expected to gain or lose from the solution of the problem.

For instance, when the UIF was extended to domestic workers:

- The implementation costs were that employers and the UIF had to set up new systems to register domestic workers.
- The compliance costs were that employers had to pay regularly through the defined systems, and the UIF had to register the payments.
- To understand the inherent costs requires understanding the problem being resolved. In the case of UIF for domestic workers, the main problem is that retrenchment by employers imposes costs on domestic workers and their families and on the state. The costs and benefits from the desired outcome are therefore: (a) domestic workers benefit from payments if they are retrenched, but pay part of the cost through levies; (b) employers pay for levies but benefit from greater social cohesion and reduced resistance to retrenchment since workers have a cushion; and (c) the state benefits because it does not have to pay itself for a safety net for retrenched workers and their families.

Group	Implementation costs	Compliance costs	Costs/benefits from achieving desired outcome	Comments
National, provincial and local government	Promote the use by rural and township-based small enterprises of a single access portal on financial and non-financial offerings and opportunities by both and public sector.	A single access portal was established by partnership between the Department of Small Business Development and the Department of Science, Technology and Innovation. This portal can be retrofitted to satisfy the user i.e. access to providers of financial and non-financial providers.	The cost in time management by the Department of Small Business Development to map and onboard providers of financial and non-financial providers. The benefit would be the ease of access to information by rural and township-based enterprises. This benefit would also be realized by national, provincial and local government in that the need to embark on information session roadshows would decrease.	A potential risk is that some rural and township areas might not have good network coverage to utilize the single access portal. Rural and Township-based provincial and local government will need to utilize existing mobile services of the Small Enterprise Development and Finance Agency (SEDFA)
National, provincial government and their entities	Establishment of patient capital fund for investments in high-risk areas with low expectation for turning in quick profit	Repurposing existing blended funds to target township and rural-based small enterprises. These funds will not be exclusive for township and rural-based small enterprises but will be managed through target setting.	Township and rural-based small enterprises will have improved access to funding opportunities that cater to their current growth phase.	Current budget commitments will be utilized to serve as capital funds

Municipalities	Enforcement of the Spatial Planning and Land Use Management Act, 2013 (Act No. 16 of 2013)	Municipalities through their spatial, land and infrastructure database will identify available land for rezoning for business purposes.	Fallow land can be rezoned for commercial purposes and planning (infrastructure investment and investment in existing government premises) will improve economic output in rural and township areas.	Potential to crowd-in private sector investment. Municipalities through their Integrated Development Planning (IDP) can attract private sector investment i.e. planned refurbishment of business premises can led to internet service providers investing in optic fibre cables and other infrastructure

2.6 Cost to government: Describe changes that the proposal will require and identify where the affected agencies will need additional resources

a) Budgets, has it been included in the relevant Medium Term Expenditure Framework (MTEF) and Support for township and rural economy is expressed under the Strategic Priority 1: Drive Inclusive Growth and Job Creation. The strategic intervention is to expand financial and non-financial support for small businesses, focusing on township and rural areas. The outcomes baseline for the strategic intervention is R 700 billion in investment, and the outcomes target (2029/2030) is R 3 trillion in investments.

b) Staffing and organisation in the government agencies that have to implement it (including the courts and police, where relevant). Has it been included in the relevant Human Resource Plan (HRP)

The Department of Small Business Development as the lead department on the strategic intervention to expand financial and non-financial support for small businesses, focusing on township and rural areas, will be supported by the Department of Tourism, Department of Trade, Industry and Competition, Department Agriculture, Department of Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment, Department of Science, Technology and Innovation as well as provincial departments responsible for economic affairs.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Staffing requirements will be informed by the different department's personnel planning and funding for posts.

Note: You MUST provide some estimate of the immediate fiscal and personnel implications of the proposal, although you can note where it might be offset by reduced costs in other areas or absorbed by existing budgets. It is assumed that existing staff are fully employed and cannot simply absorb extra work without relinquishing other tasks.

2.7 Describe how the proposal minimises implementation and compliance costs for the affected groups both inside and outside of government.

For groups outside of government (add more lines if required)

Group	Nature of cost (from question 2.6)	What has been done to minimise the cost?
National, provincial and local government	Different government departments and municipalities offer initiatives for township and rural economy development. The policy proposal advocates for use of existing initiatives and existing or reconfiguration of delivery mechanisms to develop and revitalize the township and rural economy through cohesion i.e. aligned planning, execution, monitoring and reporting.	The policy proposal was developed with cognizance of existing initiatives. The proposal advocates for the alignment and reconfiguration of existing delivery mechanisms where necessary i.e. the proposed policy supports the objective to institutionalise rural development and strengthen intergovernmental sector coordination through the DDM with clear monitoring and reporting systems. Existing initiatives such as the DDM will continue to be delivery models for an integrated government and where reforms are necessary, the proposed policy as a guiding national framework on rural and township economic development will serve as a basis for review and reform supported by evidence.

For government agencies and institutions:

Agency/institution	Nature of cost (from question 2.6)	What has been done to minimise the cost?
Small Enterprise Development Finance Agency (SEDFA)	Revision of the Township and Rural Entrepreneurship Programme TREP to align to policy recommendations.	Revision of TREP was not a product of the policy proposal. The revision of TREP was informed by the review of its performance and intended outcomes.
Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA)	Institutionalize the District Development Model (DDM) in government. The proposed policy proposes that a bottom-up structure needs to be established for operational purposes, i.e. from DDM level to ensure needs-based services and	COGTA has established Provincial DDM Technical Forums to strengthen coordination. In addition, COGTA published in the Gazette DDM regulations in April 2024 as means to institutionalize the DDM approach in government.

District and local municipalities	Develop systems or processes to enable compliance with municipal by-laws by township and rural-based small enterprises.	COGTA published in the Gazette Standard Draft By-Law for Township Economies in November 2024.
Provincial departments responsible for economic affairs	Enhance research with specific attention to township and rural economy nuances i.e. sector-specific support and sectors with the competitive advantages in the province, skills gap compared to sector demands in the province etc.	The Department of Small Business Development (DSBD) has established a Research Community of Practice guided by an agreed research agenda that informs a research action plan.

2.8 Managing Risk and Potential Dispute

a) Describe the main risks to the achievement of the desired outcomes of the proposal and/or to national aims that could arise from implementation of the proposal (to be addressed in column A in table below). Add more lines if required.

Note: It is inevitable that change will always come with risks. Risks may arise from (a) unanticipated costs; (b) opposition from stakeholders; and/or (c) ineffective implementation co-ordination between state agencies. Please consider each area of risk to identify potential challenges.

b) Describe measures taken to manage the identified risks (to be addressed in column B in table below). Add more rows if necessary.

Mitigation measures means interventions designed to reduce the likelihood that the risk actually takes place.

A) Identified risk	B) Mitigation measures
Resistance to implement the proposed policy due to budget limitations, or jurisdictional conflicts.	The proposed policy identifies departments that have a constitutional mandate on rural development, development in the municipalities, facilitation of coordination in government and the promotion of small enterprises. These constitutional mandates are further supported by various legislations, strategies and plans of the various departments such as COGTA, the Department of Agriculture, Land Reform and Rural Development (DALRRD), the DSBD, municipalities, provincial departments responsible for economic affairs. To remedy the risk, the DSBD will establish a coordinating mechanism that will allow for continued planning, reporting and monitoring of performance of the proposed policy. COGTA currently facilitates strategic coordinating platforms through the intergovernmental relations framework and the District Development Model (DDM) approach, which definitively includes private sector participation.

Responsibility creep	COGTA is responsible for overseeing and supporting local government, as well as promoting cooperative governance between the different spheres of government in South Africa. The DSBD might interfere in the responsibility of COGTA in its pursuit of advocacy for implementation of the proposed policy. To mitigate this, the DSBD has engaged with COGTA on the proposed policy and its scope. In addition, COGTA will be a key stakeholder in the implementation of the proposed policy and through COGTA's intergovernmental relations coordinating mechanisms, including the DDM, the DSBD will jointly plan, report and monitor implementation of the proposed policy and constitutional mandates that should be observed. Roles and responsibilities will be outlined and performance measured against these.
Budget constraints	Given the current low economic growth, the proposed policy does not propose establishment of new initiatives or support institutions to carry out township and rural economy development, however, the proposed policy acknowledges existing institutional and constitutional mandates to supporting the township and rural economy. To achieve greater impact on township and rural economy development, the proposed policy identifies institutional arrangements that will pursue higher impact by leveraging resources and aligning plans for township and rural economy development. A resource plan with key result areas that have budget commitments from respective institutions will be tabled for approval by respective Accounting Officers to enable planning and execution of the policy.

c) What kinds of dispute might arise in the course of implementing the proposal, whether (a) between government departments and government agencies/parastatals, (b) between government agencies/parastatals and non-state actors, or (c) between non-state actors? Please provide as complete a list as possible. What dispute-resolution mechanisms are expected to resolve the disputes? Please include all of the possible areas of dispute identified above. Add more lines if required.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Note: Disputes arising from regulations and legislation represent a risk to both government and non-state actors in terms of delays, capacity requirements and expenses. It is therefore important to anticipate the nature of disputes and, where possible, identify fast and low-cost mechanisms to address them.

Nature of possible dispute (from sub-section above)	Stakeholders involved	Proposed Dispute-resolution mechanism
Small enterprises in township and rural areas might have unrealistic expectations in accessing markets and funding i.e. demand factors within markets determine the growth of sectors and subsectors of the economy and availability in funding is determined by programme parameters such as qualifying criteria amongst others. Support services are also not linear in approach and enterprise readiness might determine the ability and readiness to supply.	Small enterprises in rural and township areas.	The DDM processes will allow transparent engagement between the various government departments supporting small enterprises in township and rural areas. In addition, the Department of Small Business Development is in the advanced stage of establishing an Advisory Body which will interact with small enterprise representative bodies. Outside government agencies and departments, the Advisory Body will be able to engage with small enterprises and advocate for their interests with the Ministry of Small Business Development. In addition, the Advisory Body will submit annual reports to Parliament and unresolved matters can be put to the attention of Parliament.

2.9 Monitoring and Evaluation

Note: Please ensure that your M&E plan is an annexure to the SEIAS report, guided by the key components listed below*. Sound implementation of policy and legislation is due to seamless monitoring and evaluation integration during the policy development phase. Policies and legislation that are proficiently written yet unable to report on implementation outcomes are often a result of the absence of an M&E framework at the policy and legislative planning phase. It is therefore imperative to state what guides your policy or legislation implementation monitoring.*

2.6.1 Develop a detailed Monitoring and Evaluation Plan, in collaboration with your departmental M&E unit which should include among others the following:

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

2.6.1.1 Provide clear and measurable policy or legislative objectives

2.6.1.2 Provide a Theory of Change clearly describing the following components:

- Impact: the organisational, community, social and systemic changes that result from the policy or legislation;
- Outcomes: the specific changes in participants (i.e. beneficiaries) behaviour, knowledge, skills, status and capacity;
- Outputs: the amount, type of degree of service(s) the policy or legislation provides to its beneficiaries;
- Activities: the identified actions to be implemented
- Input: departmental resources used in order to achieve policy or legislative goals i.e. personnel, time, funds, etc.
- External conditions: the current environment in which there's an aspiration to achieve impact. This includes the factors beyond control of the policy or legislation (economic, political, social, cultural, etc.) that will influence results and outcomes.
- Assumptions: the facts, state of affairs and situations that are assumed and will be necessary considerations in achieving success

2.6.1.3 Provide a comprehensive Logical Framework (LogFrame) aligned to the policy or legislative objectives and the Theory of Change. The LogFrame should contain the following components:

- Results (Impact, Outcomes and Output)
- Activities and Input
- Indicators (A measure designed to assess the performance of an intervention. It is a quantitative or qualitative factor or variable that provides a simple and reliable means to measure achievement, to reflect the changes connected to an intervention, or to help assess the performance of a development actor)
- Baseline (the situation before the policy or legislation is implemented)
- Targets (a specified objective that indicates the number, timing and location of that which is to be realised)

2.6.1.4 Provide an overview of the planned Evaluation, briefly describing the following:

- Timeframe: when it the evaluation be conducted
- Type: What type of evaluation is planned (formative, implementation or summative) – the selection of evaluation type is informed by the policy owners objective (what it is you want to know about your policy or legislation.

2.6.1.5 Provide a straightforward Communication Plan (Note: a common assumption is that the target group will be aware of, and understand how to comply with a policy or legislation come implementation. However, increases in the complexity and volume of new or amendment policy or legislation render this assumption false. Hence, the need for a communication plan to guide information and awareness campaigns to ensure that all stakeholders (including beneficiaries) are informed.

2.7 Please identify areas where additional research would improve understanding of then costs, benefit and/or of the legislation.

PART THREE: SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

1. Briefly summarise the proposal in terms of (a) the problem being addressed and its main causes and (b) the measures proposed to resolve the problem.

   (a) The township and rural economy suffers underdevelopment, and its development will require government institutions with cross-cutting mandates to direct support services in these areas. The policy identifies areas of township and rural economy that require investment, and it proposes a multi-stakeholder approach that will direct this investment through coordination, collaboration and the partnership between public sector institutions and private sector actors with the aim of creating jobs, making township and rural areas economically viable areas for entrepreneurship.

2. Identify the social groups that would benefit and those that would bear a cost and describe how they would be affected. Add rows if required.

Beneficiaries
1. Small enterprises operating in township and rural areas	- Attain specialised skills through bespoke training, coaching and mentoring. - Increased access to BDS and financial support. - Access to business premises, including land and support infrastructure. - Increased access to information i.e. service offering from government institutions. - Improved turnover due to the stop in the proliferation of trade from illegal foreign nationals in township areas. - Improved access to mainstream markets and government procurement opportunities. Prioritization of township and rural-based small enterprise should enable their capacitation to supply goods and services in the corporate sector value chains and public procurement opportunities. - Possible tax breaks for township and rural-based small enterprises for a defined period.
2. National, provincial and local government	- Resource mobilization through coordinated planning, execution, monitoring and reporting. - Clear action plan for township and rural economy development.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

	- Enhanced service delivery through coordination and collaboration in impoverished areas i.e. township and rural areas. This will position government to build a capable state on small enterprise support. - Oversight on compliance with by-laws and legislation governing the sale of certain goods such as food
3. Community members in township and rural areas	- Safe food products sold in township and rural areas. - Improved livelihoods through improved economic conditions.
Cost bearers
1. National, provincial and local government	- Create awareness on existing information, communication and technology such as the innovation bridge. The potential to retrofit the innovation bridge as scope of needs increases with awareness by small enterprises. - Mobilize existing initiatives and possibly reconfigure those that are not effective. Review of initiatives should inform necessary reconfiguration.

3. What are the main risks from the proposal in terms of (a) undesired costs, (b) opposition by specified social groups, and (b) inadequate coordination between state agencies?

   (a) Opposition by specified social groups

   This can be described in non-monetary terms. Trade by illegal foreign nationals may be halted through oversight by the Immigration Unit in Home Affairs which may cause social unrest within the country.

   (b) Inadequate coordination between state agencies

   Since Cabinet approved the DDM approach in 2019, it has arguably not achieved its intended objective of improving an integrated planning and delivery across the three spheres of government with district and metropolitan spaces as focal points of government and private sector investment. The main risk is that the DDM as a coordinating mechanism is not in the ambit of the DSBD.

   Awareness of the DDM regulations may need to be facilitated by COGTA in the different government departments.

4. Summarise the cost to government in terms of (a) budgetary outlays and (b) institutional capacity.

   (a) Initiatives on township and rural economy development exist within the public sector and the private sector. Budgetary commitments find expression through departmental annual performance plans, municipal integrated development plans and annual operational plans. Additional budget requirements in government will follow procurement and demand plan processes.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Government departments, agencies and private sector actors will derive benefit through existing inter-governmental structures, such as the DDM, to strengthen coordination and collaboration. Coordinating investment in township and rural areas through planning, execution, monitoring and reporting will benefit government institutions where capacity constraints are a reality. Capacity building for government institutions will be informed by through budget and personnel resource planning.

5. Given the assessment of the costs, benefits and risks in the proposal, why should it be adopted?

   The proposed policy proposes utilizing existing delivery mechanisms in government to direct investment by role players in government and private sector actors to develop the township and rural areas. New initiatives will be established by evidence-based reforms or reconfiguration. Budget commitment to support the township and rural economy is expressed in the Medium-Term Development Plan (MTDP) 2024 – 2029. The DSBD supports the Strategic Priority 1: Drive Inclusive Growth and Job Creation. The DSBD leads the strategic intervention to expand financial and non-financial support for small businesses, focusing on township and rural areas.

6. Please provide two other options for resolving the problems identified if this proposal were not adopted.

Option 1.	Enacting a Township and Rural Economy Development and Revitalization Act. The Act will outline objects and legal parameters on supporting township and rural areas and provide legal definition on township and rural economy development and revitalization
Option 2.	Implementation of the District Development Model. The governance structure should be developed in collaboration with COGTA and aligned to the Intergovernmental Relations Framework Act, 2005 (Act No. 13 of 2005) to give effect to the DDM that is premised on improving an all of government and all of society approach through fostering intergovernmental joint planning, budgeting, including programme and project implementation as well as monitoring through one plans and annual performance plans. Dedicated reporting by all stakeholders on township and rural development programmes, outputs and outcomes should be a requirement.

7. What measures are proposed to reduce the costs, maximise the benefits, and mitigate the risks associated with the legislation?

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Avoidance of proposal of new delivery mechanisms. Existing initiatives can be modified through evidence or reconfigured for maximum impact through coordination and collaboration.

There is a shortfall in service delivery and to circumvent this, leading governments and their entities need to device methodologies to increase chances of delivery. This can be realized through partnerships, repurposing of existing resources and complete overhaul and virement in low impact initiatives.

8. Is the proposal (mark one; answer all questions)

	Yes	No
a. Constitutional?	X
b. Necessary to achieve the priorities of the state?	X
c. As cost-effective as possible?	X
d. Agreed and supported by the affected departments?	X

9. What is the impact of the Proposal to the following National Priorities?

National Priority	Impact
1. Inclusive growth and job creation	The proposed policy articulates objectives of township and rural economy development and revitalization. The development of policy will enable joint planning and implementation by all role players in the public and private sector. Through greater coordination and collaboration, role players will be able to achieve greater impact which will have a net positive effect for the township and rural economy.
2. Reducing poverty and tackling the high cost of living	Improved service delivery will result in township and rural areas being economically viable areas for entrepreneurship and realizing improved livelihoods.

3. Building a capable, ethical and developmental state	Government can achieve synergy in coordinating and collaborating on rural and township economy development. Through collaboration, the state can delivery services effectively by mobilizing resources from all state and non-state actors supporting the development of township and rural economy.

NOTICE 3968 OF 2026

INTERNATIONAL TRADE ADMINISTRATION COMMISSION

NOTICE OF AN INITIATION OF THE INVESTIGATION FOR REMEDIAL ACTION IN THE FORM OF A SAFEGUARD MEASURE AGAINST THE INCREASED IMPORTS OF A3 AND A4 OFFICE PAPER CLASSIFIABLE UNDER TARIFF HEADING 4802.56.20 AND 4802.56.90

The International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa ("the Commission") decided to proceed with an investigation for remedial action in the form of a safeguard measure against the increased imports of Other paper and paperboard, not containing fibres obtained by a mechanical or chemi-mechanical process or of which not more than 10 per cent by mass of the total fibre content consists of such fibres, of a mass of 40 g/m² or more but not more than 150 g/m², in rectangular (including square) sheets with one side measuring 420 mm and the other side measuring 297 mm in the unfolded state, classifiable in tariff subheading 4802.56.20 and Other paper and paperboard, not containing fibres obtained by a mechanical or chemi-mechanical process or of which not more than 10 per cent by mass of the total fibre content consists of such fibres, other, of a mass of 40 g/m² or more but not more than exceeding 150 g/m², in rectangular (including square) sheets with one side measuring 297 mm and the other side measuring 210 mm in the unfolded state, classifiable in tariff subheading 4802.56.90 ("A3 and A4 office paper" or "the subject product").

Based on the information submitted, the Commission decided that the Applicant has submitted prima facie evidence indicating that the events cited can be regarded as unforeseen developments. These unforeseen developments, together with the effect of the obligations incurred under the GATT 1994, led to an increase in the volume of imports in absolute and relative terms. The surge in the volume of imports is recent, sharp, significant, and sudden enough. The SACU industry is experiencing serious injury, and this is causally linked to the surge in imports.

THE APPLICANT

The application is brought by Mondi South Africa (Pty) Ltd ("Mondi" or "the Applicant"), the major producer of the subject product in the Southern African Customs Union (SACU). The application is supported by Sappi Southern Africa Limited, the other manufacturer of the subject product.

A non-confidential version of the application is available for inspection at the Commission's offices.

DESCRIPTION OF THE SUBJECT PRODUCT

The subject product is described as Other paper and paperboard, not containing fibres obtained by a mechanical or chemi-mechanical process or of which not more than 10 per cent by mass of the total fibre content consists of such fibres, of a mass of 40 g/m² or more but not more than 150 g/m², in rectangular (including square) sheets with one side measuring 420 mm and the other side measuring 297 mm in the unfolded state, classifiable in tariff subheading 4802.56.20 (A3 office paper) and Other paper and paperboard, not containing fibres obtained by a mechanical or chemi-mechanical process or of which not more than 10 per cent by mass of the total fibre content consists of such fibres, other, of a mass of 40 g/m² or more but not more than exceeding 150 g/m², in rectangular (including square) sheets with one side measuring 297 mm and the other side measuring 210 mm in the unfolded state, classifiable in tariff subheading 4802.56.90 (A4 office paper)

UNFORESEEN DEVELOPMENTS

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

The Applicant submitted the following information to support its allegation of unforeseen development:

- The global structural decline in uncoated fine paper (UFP) demand beginning in 2007 and driven by digitisation and accelerated by COVID-19, constitutes an unforeseen development within the meaning of Article XIX of the GATT 1994;
- The resulting persistent global overcapacity has redirected surplus production into open markets, including South Africa;
- South Africa's tariff bindings and market-access commitments under the WTO framework have had the effect of enabling increased imports under conditions of heightened competitive pressure; and
- The increased imports of cut sheets are therefore the result of both unforeseen developments and the effect of the obligations incurred.

The Applicant also highlighted the effects of South Africa's commitments under WTO agreements as follows:

- Bound its tariffs on printing and writing paper products at reduced ceiling levels of 20%;
- Rationalised and reduced tariff protection; and
- Eliminated quantitative import restrictions.

These commitments materially limited South Africa's ability to adjust tariffs in response to unforeseen import surges. The binding of tariffs at relatively low levels has had the following effect:

- Increasing market accessibility for foreign producers;
- Limiting the use of ordinary tariffs and tariff increases to counter destabilising import volumes; and
- Exposing the domestic industry to increased global surplus capacity.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Moreover, the Applicant further noted that in 1994, imports constituted a minor share of the South African cut-sheet market and largely comprised speciality grades not produced domestically.

The Commission decided that the Applicant submitted prima facie information indicating that the events cited by the Applicant are regarded as unforeseen developments, and that, together with the effects of the obligations incurred under GATT 1994, they led to the alleged surge of imports of the subject product, in accordance with the provisions of Article XIX of GATT 1994.

ALLEGATION OF SERIOUS INJURY AND CAUSAL LINK

The period of investigation for data evaluation for the purposes of determining the allegation of serious injury is from 01 January 2023 to 31 December 2025. Furthermore, this application contains information regarding increased import volumes and the related serious injury for the surge period, from 01 January 2023 to 31 December 2024.

The injury analysis relates to information submitted by Mondi, the major producer of the subject product in the SACU.

The Applicant alleged and submitted prima facie evidence indicating that it is experiencing serious injury in the form of a decline in sales, net profit, output, market share, and employment, during the period of surge from 01 January 2023 to 31 December 2024.

Furthermore, an analysis of the period of investigation from 01 January 2023 to 31 December 2025, indicates that the Applicant has experienced serious injury in the form of declines in sales, output, net profit, market share, capacity utilisation and employment.

On this basis, the Commission found that prima facie evidence was submitted to indicate that the SACU industry was experiencing serious injury that could be causally linked to the recent, sudden, serious, and significant surge in imports of the subject products.

LEGAL FRAMEWORK

This investigation will be conducted in accordance with the International Trade Administration Act, 2002 ("ITA Act") and the International Trade Administration Commission Safeguard Regulations ("SGR") read with the World Trade Organization Agreement on Safeguards ("the Safeguard Agreement").

Please note that if any information is considered to be confidential, a non-confidential version of the information must be submitted for the public file, simultaneously with the confidential version. In submitting a non-confidential version, the following rules are strictly applicable, and parties must indicate:

- where confidential information has been omitted and the nature of such information;
- reasons for such confidentiality;
- a summary of the confidential information which permits a reasonable understanding of the substance of the confidential information; and
- in exceptional cases, where information is not susceptible to summary, reasons must be submitted to this effect.

This rule applies to all parties and to all correspondence with and submissions to the Commission, which unless indicated to be confidential and filed together with a non-confidential version, will be placed on the public file and be made available to other interested parties.

If a party considers that any document of another party, on which that party is submitting representations, does not comply with the above rules and that such deficiency affects that party's ability to make meaningful representations, the details of the deficiency and the reasons why that party's rights are so affected must be submitted to the Commission in writing forthwith (and at the latest 14 days prior to the date on which that party's submission is due). Failure to do so timeously will seriously hamper the proper administration of the investigation, and such party will not be able to subsequently claim an inability to make meaningful representations on the basis of the failure of such other party to meet the requirements.

Subsection 33(1) of the ITA Act provides that any person claiming confidentiality of information should identify whether such information is confidential by nature or is otherwise confidential and any such claims must be supported by a written statement, in each case, setting out how the information satisfies the requirements of the claim to confidentiality. In the alternative, a sworn statement should be made, setting out reasons why it is impossible to comply with these requirements.

PROCEDURES AND TIME LIMITS

All information submitted, including non-confidential copies thereof, should be received by the Senior Manager: Trade Remedies I by no later than 20 days from the date hereof. Late submissions will not be accepted.

Interested parties are invited to submit comments on the initiation of the investigation or any information regarding this matter to the following address:

Any interested party may request an oral hearing provided that reasons are given for not relying on written submissions only. No request for an oral hearing will be considered more than 60 days from the date of this publication. The Commission may refuse an oral hearing if granting such a hearing will unduly delay the finalisation of the investigation.

Parties requesting an oral hearing shall provide the Commission with a detailed agenda for, and a detailed version, including a non-confidential version, of the information to be discussed at the oral hearing at the time of the request.

Should you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact the following investigating officers: Mr Busman Makakola at Bmakakola@itac.org.za, Mr Emmanuel Manamela at Emanamela@itac.org.za or Mr Vusumzi Sotha at vsotha@itac.org.za.

DETAILED INFORMATION ON PRODUCTION REBATE CERTIFICATES

This document must be read in conjunction with the Amended APDP Phase 2 Regulations and applicable SARS legislation.

The right is reserved to amend any guideline/rule/condition pertaining to this programme or to impose new guidelines/rules/conditions if deemed necessary.

1. PRODUCTION INCENTIVE (PI)

The PI is an incentive available to final manufacturers and will be calculated at the point of sale based on value added on qualifying motor vehicles, automotive tooling, automotive components manufactured in South Africa. The PI will basically be calculated on the tax invoice of the final manufacturer less the value of imports and non-qualifying local materials used by itself or by other manufacturers in the manufacturing value chain.

2. QUALIFYING ENTITIES

2.1 The following entities, with manufacturing operations based in South Africa, that are registered with SARS as taxpayers in good standing and are B-BBEE compliant in terms of the B-BBEE Codes of Good Practice ("Codes") issued under the B-BBEE Act 53 of 2003 as Amended by Act No 46 of 2013, as well as compliant in terms of the B-BBEE levels outlined in Note 2.5 below or contribute to a Transformation Fund as stipulated in Notes 2.6 to 2.8, may apply for PRCs:

2.2 Registered light motor vehicle manufacturers, manufacturing specified light motor vehicles, as defined in Note 9.1.1 (fitted with engine and gearbox), Note 9.1.2 (not fitted with engine or gearbox), 9.1.3 (fitted with a combination of an engine and electric motor or other means of propulsion), 9.1.4 (fitted with electric motor or other means of propulsion), and Note 9.1.8 to the Amended APDP Phase 2 Regulations in South Africa according to the prescribed extent of assembly defined in Note 5 to Chapter 98 of Schedule No.1 to the Customs and Excise Act, 1964;

2.3 Registered light motor vehicles manufacturers not qualifying for a volume assembly localisation allowance will still qualify for a PI:

DRAFT VERSION

2.4 Automotive component manufacturers and automotive tooling manufacturers, for which an eligible production certificate (EPC) was issued in terms of Note 9.2.1 to the Amended APDP2 Regulations. (See Annexure A1.1 and A1.2 for EPC application procedures).
Registered light motor vehicle manufacturers recovering the cost of:

2.4.1. Platinum group metals which were free issued to a final manufacturer of a catalytic converter and other cost relating to the manufacture thereof; and

2.4.2. Value added activities applicable to products bought from a component manufacturer and exported.

2.5. Qualifying entities must submit a valid B-BBEE certificate of compliance or sworn affidavit for Exempted Micro Enterprise (EME), as defined in the Codes according to the B-BBEE Act No 53 of 2003 as Amended by Act No 46 of 2013, as well as showing compliance with the levels in Table below. Alternatively, automotive component and tooling manufacturers that are unable to meet the B-BBEE requirements as stipulated in the Table below, must provide evidence of contributing to the Transformation Fund and complying with the other requirements as provided for in Notes 2.6 to 2.8 below to qualify for PRCs.

YEAR	COMPONENTS & TOOLING MANUFACTURERS	ORIGINAL EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (OEMs)	NEW ENTRANTS
2021	No requirement to comply	Level 6 (six)	36 months from the start of production date in South Africa, to reach the applicable levels.
2022	No requirement to comply	Level 4 (four)
2023	No requirement to comply	Level 4 (four)
2024	No requirement to comply	Level 4 (four)
2025	Level 6 (six)	Level 4 (four)
2026	Level 4 (four)	Level 4 (four)

2.6. Automotive component and tooling manufacturers that are unable to meet the B-BBEE requirements as stipulated in the Table above may be considered after contributing to a Transformation Fund managed by the Automotive Industry Transformation Fund (AITF). Entry to this fund will require the participants (excluding material suppliers) to hold a minimum B-BBEE level 8 by 2024 to be deemed level 6 by 01 January 2025 and a minimum B-BBEE level 6 by 2025 to be deemed level 4 by 01 January 2026.

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

2.7. Automotive component and tooling manufacturers applying under the Transformation Fund will be required to provide support equal to 2.72% of their annual turnover, contributed over a ten-year period, in the following combination – a 32% cash portion contributed to a Transformation Fund determined by the dtic and 68% procurement spend towards qualifying black-owned suppliers. The exact amounts for a specific company will be calculated in three bands based on turnover corresponding to the following categories –

- Category '1' will be for firms with an annual turnover of R2 billion and above;
- Category '2' will be for firms with an annual turnover between R550 million and R2 billion whilst;
- Category '3' will be for those firms with an annual turnover of less than R550 million.

Participation in this fund is voluntary and will not impact the firm's generic scorecard, but rather serves for qualification purposes under the APDP2 benefits. More details regarding the fund can be obtained from AITF.

2.8. The beneficiaries of the Transformation Fund and procurement spend will be black-owned firms that enter or expand their operations in the automotive manufacturing industry value chain in line with the objectives of the South African Automotive Masterplan and vision 2035.

2.9. New manufacturing enterprises in South Africa must be B-BBEE compliant in terms of the Codes and achieve the levels stipulated in Note 2.5 no later than thirty-six (36) months from the start of production date in South Africa.

2.10. All qualifying entities are required to achieve and submit their B-BBEE certificates, sworn affidavit or evidence of contributing to the Transformation Fund to ITAC by no later than 31 December each year showing compliance to the required B-BBEE level for the following year as reflected in Table 2.5 above.

2.11. The manufacturers of qualifying automotive products who are not compliant (i) the levels stated in the Table in Note 2.5 and (ii) contributing to the Transformation Fund as stipulated in Note 2.6, will be excluded from submitting PRC until the required compliant level is adhered to.

2.12. While EPCs may be conditionally issued to qualifying entities who are not yet compliant to the required B-BBEE levels indicated in Notes 2.5 to 2.9, no PRCs will be issued until the compliant levels are adhered to.

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

2.13. ITAC reserve the right to withdraw any EPC and revoke the PRCs issued to the final manufacturers that do not meet the required B-BBEE level as indicated in Note 2.5 to 2.9 above.

2.14. Participation under the APDP2 is voluntary. By registering under and participating in this programme, a manufacturer unconditionally binds itself to the rules and conditions of the programme and the interpretation thereof by ITAC. By participating under the programme, a participant binds itself to the submission of any industry data requested by ITAC or the dtic for monitoring purposes. By participating under the programme, a participant is required to meet the relevant B-BBEE requirements or contribute to a Transformation Fund.

3. ELIGIBLE PRODUCTS

The following products quality as eligible products under the APDP2:

3.1 Specified motor vehicles that are light motor vehicles consisting of motor cars (including station wagons), minibuses and light commercial vehicles, fitted with an engine and gearbox, manufactured in a licensed, special vehicle manufacturing warehouse in South Africa;

3.2 Specified motor vehicles that are light motor vehicles consisting of motor cars (including station wagons), minibuses and light commercial vehicles, not fitted with an engine or gearbox, manufactured in the licensed, special vehicle manufacturing warehouse in South Africa; Specified motor vehicles fitted with a combination of an engine and electric motor or other means of propulsion manufactured in a licensed, special vehicle manufacturing warehouse in South Africa;

3.3 Specified motor vehicles fitted with a combination of an engine and electric motor or other means of propulsion manufactured in a licensed, special vehicle manufacturing warehouse in South Africa;

3.4 Specified motor vehicles fitted with electric motor or other means of propulsion manufactured in a licensed, special vehicle manufacturing warehouse in South Africa;

3.5 Automotive components;

3.6 Automotive tooling;

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

3.7 Automotive components applicable to medium and heavy commercial vehicles as defined in Note 1 to rebate item 317.07 of Schedule No. 3 to the Customs and Excise Act, 1964; and

3.8 Specified motor vehicles manufactured in a licensed, special manufacturing warehouse in South Africa, destined for assembly outside the borders of the Republic, must be in the minimum level of kits that have untrimmed painted bodies with no parts assembled to the body (excluding those of subheading 8701.2 and 8706) and may exclude lead acid batteries provided there is evidence of local lead acid battery production in the export market.

3.9 In order to qualify for a PRC:

3.9.1 The products listed in Notes 3.1, 3.2, 3.3, 3.4, 3.5, 3.6 and 3.7 must be wholly manufactured in South Africa.

3.9.2 If the qualifying sales value of catalytic converters includes the value of the PGM sourced in the SACU, PRCs will only be considered for those catalytic converters that comply with the following conditions:

a) Platinum rhodium and palladium received from a refinery in the SACU.

b) The wash coat and coating mixture must be produced in the SACU using the PGM mentioned in a) and the coating must take place in the SACU.

c) Imported stainless steel may be used in the canning process, but the value thereof will be non-standard material.

d) The complete canning process must be undertaken within the SACU. (i.e. casing must be formed, moulded, shells must be pressed/formed and welded and the end cones must be welded to the body of the catalytic converter shell) Only complete (welded) catalytic converters sold will be considered for a PRC, unless otherwise determined by the Commission.

Where the application for catalytic converters to earn a PRC does not include PGM sourced in the SACU and or the coating mixture is prepared and/or the coating process is undertaken outside the SACU but the canning process is undertaken in the SACU, the rules for all other PRC applications will apply.

DRAFT VERSION

3.9.3 The products listed in Notes 3.5, 3.6 and 3.7 must be covered by an EPC.

3.9.4 Not less than 25 per cent of the ex-factory selling price (exclusive of VAT, ad valorem excise duty and environmental levy) of the components and automotive tooling as contemplated in Notes 3.5, 3.6 and 3.7, at the time of sale, be represented by the sum of:

- The cost of labour incurred in South Africa;
- The value of materials originating in the SACU;
- The factory overhead expenses (excluding profit) incurred in South Africa;
- The value of standard material for EV battteriess originating in the SACU and SADC; and
- The final process of manufacture was carried out in South Africa, provided that operations that consist only of packing or painting shall not qualify as manufacturing processes.

3.9.5 Manufacturers of components must achieve a local and/or international OEM supply chain turnover, excluding tooling, of at least 25% of total automotive turnover or R10m in OEM supply chain invoicing (exclusive of VAT, ad valorem excise duty and environmental levy) per annum, whichever comes first.

3.9.6 Components manufactured for which a PI is claimed must be:

- Part of a local or international OEM supply chain; and
- Replacements parts manufactured by a manufacturer adhering to the conditions set in Notes 3.9.2, 3.9.3 and 3.9.

3.10 The guidelines and application forms relating to eligible production certificates are set out in Annexure A1.1 and A1.2.

3.11. The validity date of eligible production certificate will commence from the first day in which the application was submitted to ITAC. However, ITAC reserves the right to review the period of validity should the need arise.

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

3.12. Should the final manufacturer wish to be represented by a third party/consultant in submission of EPC and PRC applications, the final manufacturer must provide ITAC with a letter of appointment of its representative, detailing the identity of the representative and the scope and duration of the representation signed by:

a) Its Chief Executive Officer or other person having a similar executive authority where there is no chief executive officer position; or

b) A duly appointed and authorized representative of the final manufacturer.

3.13. Should the final manufacturer wish to terminate a representation as provided for in Note 3.12 earlier than indicated in the letter of appointment provided to ITAC, such party must provide ITAC with a letter to this effect. The letter must comply with requirement of Note 3.12 as applicable regarding signatures.

3.14. Once the final manufacturer has appointed a representative, communications between ITAC and final manufacturer may take place through the appointed representative.

3.15. Notwithstanding Note 3.12, ITAC may communicate with the final manufacturer directly.

3.16. Applications for eligibility under the APDP2 that require amendments or with discrepancies that need to be rectified before further processing, should be rectified within a period of 30 days from the date of the written request to do so, otherwise such applications or part(s) thereof will be withdrawn and treated as new applications with all the supporting documents to be submitted and a new validity period for the EPC.

3.17. The date of receipt of all outstanding and/or additional documentation will be considered to be the duly completed date of the application.

CALCULATING THE PRODUCTION INCENTIVE

The PI, basically a percentage (PI factor) of the difference between the selling price and material (value added or VA), may be earned by the final manufacturer in South Africa of eligible products, see Notes 2 and 3 above. For purposes of the APDP2, 25% of certain material, also referred to as standard material, will qualify for the PI. The SVA for Standard materials for EV batteries will be 50 per cent of the value of the standard material.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

DRAFT VERSION

4.1 The PI is calculated as follows:

- Tax invoice price (exclusive of VAT, ad valorem excise duty, environmental levy and other adjustments as per Note 4.3 below) R xxxx
- Less: Imports and non-qualifying components/material R xxxx
  - 75% of standard material R xxxx
    - Standard material R xxxx
    - Less: 25% qualifying portion R xxxx
    - Less: 50% of qualifying portion for EV battery standard materials R xxxx
  - Non-standard goods R xxxx
- Value added R xxxx
- PI factor %
- PRC value at the applicable duty rate R xxxx

Please note that the 25% local value deeming, and 50% for EV battery materials, will be calculated by the applicant for the PI whilst ITAC will apply the PI factor and the applicable duty rate to derive the duty credit certificate value.

See Annexure A7 for a more detailed discussion on the calculation of the PI.

4.2 Registered motor vehicle manufacturers and components not manufactured by itself.

4.2.1 OEMs can issue tax invoices to claim PRCs for:

a) Catalytic converters, if the OEM pays for the manufacturing cost of a catalytic converter (e.g. it is invoiced for the cost of the PGM, digesting material, coating service, and canning service), and if it is the exporter of the final product, the manufacturing cost thereof plus 5%. The OEM, as the deemed final manufacturer, must apply for an EPC; and

b) Other products including catalytic converters, if the OEM buys products from a final manufacturer and exports it, the OEM can add 5% to the purchase price of such products. The final manufacturer is entitled to claim PI benefits for the products sold to the OEM.

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

4.2.2 OEMs buying PGM from a SACU refinery and supply/sell it to a coater/canner, may claim 5% of the cost thereof. The final component manufacturer is entitled to claim the actual value and PI for the product, which will include the PGM (standard material value) and additional mark-up by the OEM (non-standard material).

It should be noted that:

- The percentage referred to above is only a guidance, OEMs are allowed to add more or less to compensate for value adding activities, however, the PI claimable by the OEM must be based on the lesser of the purchase price/service charge plus 5% or the FOB value;

- The cost of PGM (being a standard material) is determined by the refinery.

.3 Tax invoice price

The full amount of the tax invoice price (exclusive of VAT, ad valorem excise duty and environmental levy) may not in all instances qualify for the PI calculation. The following non-production costs, inter alia, must be excluded:

4.3.1 In the case of eligible products exported:

- Freight, insurance, distribution and destination expenditure from the port of export to the place of final delivery;

- Freight, insurance, distribution and destination expenditure outside the SACU even if the cost is paid by another entity within SACU;

- Commissions and discounts;

- Commission, salaries and etc, paid in the SACU and transferred abroad at a later stage;

- Cost of warehousing;

- Packaging or packing materials for specified motor vehicles, inclusive of those for vehicles as provided for in Note 5(b) to Chapter 98; and

DRAFT VERSION

- Warranty expenditure at the point of sale.

4.3.2 In the case of local sales, commissions and discounts, rebates, warranty costs and other costs not related to the manufacture of the product.

4.3.3 In the case of new vehicles capitalised by an OEM as part of its "company fleet", for which no invoices were issued, the capitalised amount will be deemed to be the sales price thereof.

4.3.4 In the case of component manufacturers manufacturing components adhering to the qualifying criteria as set out in Note 3.7, utilising such components for its own use, the value as per its internal documentation.

4.3.5. ITAC reserves the right to allow only a portion of the sales price for purposes of claiming PRCs. In determining the amount that will qualify, ITAC will take account of the local selling price of equivalent, comparable or substitute products and/or world market prices of equivalent or comparable or substitute products.

4.4 Standard material

4.4.1 Standard material is the sum of the following local materials originating in the SACU, of which 25% of the value will be deemed to be local value added:

(a) Aluminium;
(b) Brass;
(c) Leather;
(d) Platinum group metal;
(e) Stainless steel; and
(f) Steel.

4.4.2 Standard material is the sum of the following materials for EV battery originating in the SACU and SADC, of which 50% of the value will be deemed to be local value added:

a) Rare earths
b) Iron
c) Lithium
d) Graphite

DRAFT VERSION

e) Copper
f) Cobalt
g) Manganese
h) Nickel
i) Sodium carbonate ("Soda ash")
j) Fluorspar
k) Titanium
l) Vanadium

5. PI FACTOR

5.1 The PI factor for PRC claims applicable to specified motors vehicles for the period 01 July 2021 to 31 December 2035 will be 50 per cent and will remain constant for the duration of the APDP2.

5.2 The PI factor for PRC claims applicable to automotive components and automotive tooling for the period 01 July 2021 to 31 December 2035 will be 62.5 per cent and will remain constant for the duration of the APDP2.

6. APPLICATION FOR PRODUCTION REBATE CERTIFICATES (PRCs)

6.1 Applications for PRCs may be lodged with ITAC at any time, provided that payment of the tax invoice had been received in full. However, in order to reduce the administrative workload, the submission of applications may be limited, should the need arise. Separate applications must be submitted in respect of the various categories, listed in Note 3 above. An example of an application form that must be used for this purpose is attached as Annexure A2. Please note that should Annexure A2 consist of more than one page, each page must have a cumulative subtotal column at the bottom up to the last page where the total must be displayed, the last page must also indicate contact details of the person who may be contacted in the case of queries. The document must be legible and the font size used to enter information should not be less than 10.

6.2 A manufacturer participating in this programme can either be a company or close corporation. A division of a company will also qualify to participate in the programme if it produces audited annual financial statements and trades as a separate business entity with its own South African management and is situated in a separate or single location. In the event of the existence of such division, full responsibility and liability for any applications must be borne by the managing director/chief executive of the company of which such division forms part.

6.3 Applicants should take extreme care to ensure that duplicate claims and invoices are not submitted, as an applicant that has submitted a duplicate claim or invoice for any reason whatsoever, may have the PRC certificate withdrawn.

6.4 The right to claim PRCs lies with the applicant who is the registered manufacturer of such a product, except for the following:

6.4.1 A component manufacturer that supplies components for fitment online to a registered local light motor vehicle manufacturer for the assembly of an eligible specified light motor vehicle, in which case the value-added on the applicable components will roll up to the standard material declaration of the registered light motor vehicle manufacturer, who may claim the PRC for the manufactured vehicle which incorporates the applicable components;

6.4.2 A registered motor vehicle manufacturer recovering its cost applicable to the manufacture of a catalytic converters exported by itself, see Note 4.2.1 a);

6.4.3 A registered motor vehicle manufacturer recovering the cost of value adding activities applicable to products purchased and exported, see Note 4.2.1 b);

6.4.4 A registered motor vehicle manufacturer recovering the cost of value adding activities applicable to PGM sold to a component manufacturer.

6.5 Applications must reach ITAC not later than 12 months from the date of the tax invoice for the eligible product. Due to the nature of the automotive tooling projects, automotive tooling manufacturers may submit PRC claims in stages provided it is done within the required timelines. Incomplete applications will not be processed, nor will a Production Claim Application (PCA) number be allocated. Incomplete refers to the missing of any of the supporting documents listed in Notes 8.1 and 8.2, where applicable.

6.6 All new PRC claims submitted to ITAC must be accompanied by the company's B-BBEE certificates, sworn affidavit or evidence of contributing to the Transformation Fund.

DRAFT VERSION

Applications should be submitted to the ITAC Drop box located at the following address:

The Senior Manager: Tariff Investigations II,
International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa,
The DTI Campus (Block E – 1st Floor), 77 Meintjies Street, Sunnyside, PRETORIA,

Applications must be delivered to the ITAC drop box during working hours (Monday-Friday, 07H45-16H15).

6.7 Applications that require amendments as requested by the applicant or with discrepancies that need to be rectified before further processing, should be rectified within a period of 30 days from the date of the written request to do so, otherwise such applications or part(s) thereof will be treated as new applications with all the supporting documents to be submitted, including an auditor assurance report.

6.8 The date of receipt of all outstanding and/or additional documentation will be considered to be the duly completed date of the application. The number of days to process a PCA application will commence on the duly completed date of the application.

6.9 Applications or parts thereof that were submitted and later withdrawn/cancelled or found to be incomplete will be treated as new applications, should they be re-submitted for processing.

6.10 PRCs will not be transferred to a beneficiary after two years from the expiry date of the PRC.

6.11 Applications for PRCs may be verified by ITAC.

6.12 Originals of all the supporting documents must be kept available, sorted and easily accessible for verification by ITAC for a period of at least five years from the date of the PRC application.

6.13 ITAC may also request insight into all books of account specified in the Companies Act or Close Corporations Act, plus all production records.

6.14 Should an applicant not make all relevant documentation available on request within a period of 30 days of ITAC's request, ITAC shall treat such sales as not qualifying, and if a PRC had already been issued, shall arrange that all benefits relating to such sale plus penalties be reclaimed by SARS from the end user of the certificate.

6.15 The Managing Director/Chief Executive of a company or a nominated Director or the Responsible Director/person with management responsibility in the case of a Close Corporation will be held jointly or severally (if applicable) liable with the applicant for all aspects pertaining to applications for PRCs.

6.16 Although the PRC as such may be transferred, the rights to apply for such certificate may never be transferred.

6.17 It is a specific condition for participating in the programme that no application for PRCs will, unless otherwise decided by ITAC, be considered in respect of a participant or related parties as defined in Section 66 (2) of the Customs and Excise Act, if such applicant or related party is subject to an investigation by either the South African Police, ITAC, the dtic, or SARS into previous claims or any related matters until such time as the investigation/verification is completed and the case finalised.

6.18 In terms of the Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2003, applicants may be requested to submit a non-confidential version of the application.

6.19 Manufacturers in an Industrial Development Zones (IDZ) importing under rebate item 498 can still supply components to light motor vehicle manufacturers provided that they adhere to the APDP Phase 2 rules and Regulations.

6.20 Should ITAC make any bona fide error in the calculation of or the issuing of a certificate, ITAC shall have the right to cancel such a certificate and issue a new certificate with retrospective effect in order to rectify the error.

6.21 The applicant shall at all times carry the burden of proving on a balance of probabilities, the quantum of his application, the existence and authenticity of the sales documentation, or any other documentation which he may rely upon, and his compliance with the provisions of this programme.

7. ISSUE AND USE OF PRCs

7.1 The following automotive products may be imported against PRCs:

(a) New and unused specified right hand drive motorcars (including station wagons), minibuses and specified light goods vehicles (as defined in Note 1.2 to rebate item 317.04);

(b) New and unused automotive components for all of the vehicles identified in (a) above and automotive components imported against PRCs as listed in rebate item 460.17, for the replacement and service market or used as original equipment components in the manufacture of specified motor vehicles.

7.2 A PRC will be issued at duty amount for the qualifying value, in terms of the PI, applicable to the eligible product.

7.3. PRCs earned in the production of components, tooling and specified motor vehicles can be used to import any of the automotive products listed in 7.1 above without adjustment on the PRC value

7.4. The original PRC will be handed to SARS and a Notice that the certificate has been issued and sent to SARS will be e-mailed to the applicant as per the example in Annexure A4. The number and the value of the certificate must be included with the motor vehicle manufacturers' quarterly accounts or submitted to SARS when applying for a rebate/refund of duty or for a rebate of the dutiable value of imported motor vehicles or automotive components.

7.5. The original PRCs can be first issued to the final manufacturer (applicant) or the beneficiary authorised by the applicant. The original PRC may be transferred to another entity importing automotive products listed under 14.1 of the Amended APDP2 Regulations, but may not be transferred more than once after a PRC has been issued for the first time. If a Letter of Authorisation (refer to Annexure A3 for an example of the Letter of Authorisation) is included as part of the original PRC claim, the PRC will be issued to the entity to whom the certificate is authorised to be issued . The original PRC can then be transferred to another party or parties once a second Annexure A3 is received. The second Annexure A3 must be signed by a responsible employee of both the transferor and transferee and forwarded to ITAC, together with the number of the original certificate. The original of the certificate will then be cancelled by SARS and a new certificate, clearly marked "Final Issue - Not Transferable" will be issued and forwarded to SARS . A Notice of the transferred certificate will be e-mailed to the seller and the buyer of the certificate. Annexure A3 must be signed by the official that has signed Annexure A6.

7.6. One claim only per tax invoice is allowed as follows:

7.6.1. In the case where a price adjustment occurs as a result of a debit note, applicants must ensure that adjustments are illustrated in the same application; no adjustments or variance in prices will be allowed at a later stage.

7.6.2. In the case where a price adjustment occurs as a result of a credit note, the applicant will be allowed to adjust the variance in the prices on the later application provided that the applicant submits all supporting documents to ITAC during the claim stage.

7.7. The validity date of certificates will commence from the first day of the customs quarter in which the claim was submitted to ITAC. However, ITAC reserves the right to review the period of validity should the need arise.

7.8. PRCs become available for use immediately upon issue by ITAC and will be valid for twelve months for the period stated on the certificate. Beneficiaries will be notified upon notification to ITAC by SARS that the PRCs have been entered into the SARS database.

7.9. It should be made clear that the beneficiary of a certificate takes such certificate "warts and all" (with all its latent and patent defects). In other words, it should be no defence for such beneficiary to allege that it was unaware of errors in the certificate or was not responsible for such errors.

8. CLAIM PROCEDURE

8.1 The originals of the following documents (of which examples are attached) relating to the compilation of claims should be submitted:

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

- Annexure A2: Application form for a PRC, separate applications must be submitted for, registered light motor vehicles with or without an engine or semi- knocked down vehicle kits;

- Annexure A2SL: Summary of total claim per tariff subheading of goods sold in SACU (exclusive of VAT, ad valorem excise duty and environmental levy);

or

- Annexure A2SE: Summary of total claim per tariff subheading of goods exported (exclusive of VAT, ad valorem excise duty and environmental levy, if any);

- Annexure A2W: A worksheet to show how the claimed sales value was calculated, if the tax invoice value includes other non-manufacturing costs, such as freight and insurance costs etc;

- Annexure A5: Assurance report by auditors; and

- Annexure A6: Declaration by Chief Executive or Director nominated in writing by the Chief Executive.

Please note that only the signatory nominated through the Resolution by the Board Members is entitled to sign the Annexures.

8.2. Copies of the following documents must be submitted with those required in Note 8.1 above with each claim:

- SMD;
- EPC;

- A valid B-BBEE certificate of compliance, or sworn affidavit or evidence of contributing to the Transformation Fund;

- Annexure A3, ITAC reserves the right to request an original A3 should it be deemed necessary;

- A copy of the journal voucher applicable to vehicle capitalised or components utilised for own use;

- Tax invoice, credit notes and debit notes (credit or debit notes should relate to the tax invoice which is part of the application); and

- Proof of payments (bank statements) and remittance advices for the sampled tax invoices.

- The applicant should submit a letter of an appointment should it wish to be represented by a third party/consultant in submission of PRC applications (where applicable)

8.3 An application by a registered motor vehicle manufacturer to recover the cost of value-added activities as indicated in Notes 4.2.1 b) and 4.2.2 above, must be accompanied by the PCA number, EPC numbers and Annexure A2 submitted by the final manufacturer with its application for APDP2 benefits. Registered motor vehicle manufacturers submitting claims in terms of Notes 4.2.1 b) and 4.2.2 must also submit the export documentation applicable to the export.

8.4 ITAC may decide to apply sampling in the case of supporting sales documents that normally form part of a PRC claim, in which case applicants will be notified not to include the copies as requested in Note 8.2 as part of the claim, but to supply the copies afterwards on request.

8.5 Claimants must supply the required basic information on Annexures A2, A2SL and A2SE to ITAC each time they submit a claim under this scheme.

8.6 Form A2:

8.6.1 Completion of Annexure A2

- Column 1: Tax invoice (exclusive of VAT, ad valorem excise duty and environmental levy), credit/debit note number or journal number.

- Column 2: Tax invoice, credit/debit note or journal date. An invoice raised by the client on behalf of the final manufacturer (self-billing) is acceptable, provided it meets all the SARS tax requirements and ITAC is satisfied of the verifiability of the invoice.

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

- Column 3: Description of the manufactured product, must correspond with the information on the EPC
- Column 4: Tariff subheading.
- Column 5: EPC number.
- Column 6: SMD number.
- Column 7: Selling Price (From Worksheet), if applicable.
- Column 8.1: Standard material = 75% of SMD total.
- Column 8.2: EV battery Standard Material = 50% of SMD total
- Column 9: Non-standard material = 100%, if a SMD was not obtained the purchase price of such goods must be deemed to be non-standard material.
- Column 10: Difference (Column 7 minus Columns 8 and 9).
- Column 11: Units.
- Column 12: Eligible Value Added (Columns 10 x 11).

8.6.2 If a sale takes place in a foreign currency, the sales price must be converted to ZAR by making use of the Jacobsen's rate of exchange applicable at the date of the tax invoice.

8.6.3 If Annexure A2 consists of more than one page, subtotals must be supplied at the end of each page and a grand total on the last page.

8.6.4 A reconciliation sheet must be included providing information and explanations on any adjustment to previous applications for PRCs, if the adjustments are substantial ITAC must be contacted beforehand to enquire whether the applicable incorrect applications should not be adjusted. The total value of the adjustments should be entered on Annexure A2 with reference to the reconciliation sheet.

DRAFT VERSION

8.6.5 Separate applications must be submitted in respect of registered light motor vehicles; registered light motor vehicles without an engine and semi-knocked down vehicles kits for exports.

8.7 Worksheet:

A worksheet must be attached if there is a difference between the tax invoice price (exclusive of VAT, ad valorem excise duty and environmental levy) and the value on Annexure A2 (see note 4.3.1), refer to Annexure A2W for an example of a worksheet.

8.8 Form A2SL and A2SE:

8.8.1 Annexure A2SL (for sales within SACU) and Annexure A2SE (for export sales) gives a summary of all the automotive components and specified light motor vehicles claimed, with an engine and gearbox fitted and specified light motor vehicles without an engine or gearbox fitted, by tariff subheading and must be submitted with each application. Please note that the Annexure A2SL and Annexure A2SE is a summary for statistical purposes of all products claimed by tariff subheading.

8.8.2 A summary of the total of all the sales listed in all of Annexure A2 by tariff subheading must be included per PRC claim (not per Annexure A2). The summary should include the total selling price, standard material, EV battery standard material, non-standard material and performance by tariff subheading, e.g. the total of all sales of 10 invoices relating to lead acid batteries of tariff subheading 8507.10 included in a PRC claim should be summarised in one line in the four columns indicated in Annexure A2S.

9. Proof of payment

9.1 Repatriation of export sales value

Payment of such proceeds must emanate from the inflow of foreign currency exchange through a registered banking institution. Any form of "bridging finance" is not regarded as full payment for the goods exported or that repatriation of export proceeds has occurred. It is generally assumed that bridging finance is used to maintain liquidity while waiting for an expected inflow of cash. It should be noted that payment of exports must emanate from a registered banking institution abroad.

DRAFT VERSION

9.1.1 Final manufacturers may only apply for a PRC once the foreign currency earnings have been repatriated and the auditors are prepared to certify such repatriation. To this extent the claimant must be in a position to submit the following documentation on request:

- A bank statement displaying the amount repatriated by the final manufacturer;
- An advice from the bank indicating the amount repatriated and the conversion, if any, to South African Rand; and 9.1.2 Applicants making use of a “Customer Foreign Currency Account” (CFC) must ensure that:

- The application for a PRC was only submitted after foreign currency repatriated by the final manufacturer was brought to account on the CFC export account;
- A clear link exists between foreign currency per export invoice and foreign currency repatriated per export account. In order to accomplish aforesaid, remittance advices from the overseas importer must be produced confirming the payment in foreign currency with reference to the invoice numbers being paid. Unless indicated on the CFC export account, confirmation from the commercial bank that repatriation for specific export invoices were received and an indication of the invoice numbers being paid.

9.2 Payment within South Africa

The applicant may only apply if payment was made by, and received by, a registered banking institution. Any form of "bridging finance" is not regarded as full payment for the goods sold or that payment has occurred.

The final manufacturer may only apply for a PRC once full payment has been received and the auditors are prepared to certify such earnings. To this extent the claimant must be in a position to submit a bank statement displaying payments received and a remittance advice by the applicable debtor.

10. Assurance report by auditor

10.1 All applications for PRCs must be verified by a practicing accountant and auditor, registered in terms of the Auditing Profession Act, 2005 (Act 26 of 2005). Although ITAC is not prescriptive on which auditor may be used, it is recommended that manufacturers retain the services of the auditors responsible for their annual financial accounts as they will have an intimate knowledge of the books of account and financial activities.

10.2 Annexure A5 is an assurance report that must be submitted per application for PRC benefits. Auditors are requested not to customise or change the format of the report unless the changes were cleared with ITAC. They will however be allowed, if they so wish, to include other procedures performed under the heading “Our Responsibility”.

10.3. If an auditor is of the opinion that an assurance report cannot, for some reason or another, be issued in the prescribed format he must advise his client likewise providing reasons why the report cannot be provided. Needless to say, the manufacturer will not be able to claim PRC benefits as the absence of an assurance report will make the application incomplete.

10.4 It will not, until further notice, be necessary to have the systems at first tier suppliers, to calculate SMD values, audited. Auditors are requested to accept the SMD received from suppliers as correct.

11. Withdrawal of PRCs and penalties

11.1 Should the verification conducted by ITAC, reveal anomalies, or if SARS reports incorrect PRCs that necessitate the adjustment of PRC values already issued, the following procedures will be followed:

11 .1.1 If the PRC has not been used, it will be reduced by the over-declared value and a new PRC indicating the re-calculated balance will be issued.

11.1.2 If the PRC has been used or partially used, or if the balance remaining on the PRC is less than the applicable correction, SARS will be informed to recover the benefits over-utilised.

11.1.3 ITAC may also rule that the original claimant may adjust a future claim. However, this will only be considered on merit and if it is not a regular occurrence.

11.2 ITAC shall have the right to withdraw a certificate issued in terms of the programme forthwith, if it has reason to believe that any irregularities have been committed with regard to obtaining or use of the certificate and to forthwith deregister the relevant participant pending the outcome of any civil, legal or criminal proceedings against it. In such an event, or if an applicant had been deregistered or the unused portion of a certificate being withdrawn in terms of this paragraph, any benefit obtained as a result of such certificate shall become repayable on demand to SARS.

11.3 In the event that the issue of a certificate is suspended or declared null and void or cancelled, or an issued certificate is suspended or withdrawn as a result of ITAC invoking any of the provisions of the programme, neither ITAC nor for SARS shall be liable for any loss or damages, of whatever nature, which the applicant/holder of the certificate might suffer as result of such withdrawal or suspension.

11.4 If a claim was submitted before payment was received, the PRC will be cancelled and may result in deregistration of the applicant from the APDP Phase 2. This may also result in ITAC not allowing the auditing firm to certify any claim for purposes of claiming under the APDP2.

12. Exceptional Circumstances

If a final manufacturer suffered an extensive damage due to National State of disaster as declared by the President and as a result its manufacturing facilities is severely affected and lost production volumes which has a significant loss on earning APDP2 benefits. In this case, a final manufacturer may approach the Accounting Officer of the Department of Trade, Industry and Competition (the dtic) requesting a temporary deviation from the normal requirements for accruing benefits under the APDP2. These benefits include advance issuing of PRCs to be reimbursed by the affected party later when production operations resume; issuing of certificates in the event that the produced eligible products are damaged prior to PRC applications being lodged to ITAC; and the re-issuing of PRCs used on the importation of on vehicles or components already imported into South Africa but damaged due to the flooding and written-off prior to being sold.

The affected final manufacturer must submit evidence of the impact of the exceptional circumstances on the ability of an applicant to manufacture the eligible products and meet the requirements of the APDP2 and the manufacturer must ensure that it is not in a better

Attention: .....

Dear Sir/Madam

AUTOMOTIVE PRODUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME PHASE 2: ELIGIBLE PRODUCTION CERTIFICATE NO: EPC 0000/2024

1. Permission is hereby granted to XXXX (Pty) Ltd in respect of Note 9.2 of the APDP 2 Regulations to manufacture the component(s) (mentioned below) at (physical address) 14th Avenue, XXX, SA,0001:

COMPONENTS/TOOLING	TARIFF SUBHEADING/S

2. The period of validity of this certificate is from ….... / ..…. / 20 …. to …. / …. / 20…..

3. This certificate is issued subject to the conditions as set out in rebate item 317.04, ITAC Amended APDP Phase 2 Regulations as well as relevant information documents.

4. This certificate is subject to review or cancellation at any time.

5. Despite the proof of payment requirements, there have been cases where PRC claims were for an eligible value added far more than the cost of production. This could distort the whole balance of the APDP 2 in terms of duty paid and rebated. In order that this distortion does not occur, the ITAC reserves the right to limit the value of eligible production that may qualify for purposes of claiming a Production Rebate Certificate. In determining the value that will qualify, the ITAC will take account of the following, but will not be limited to:

(a) The local selling price of equivalent, comparable or substitute products; and
(b) World market prices of equivalent or comparable or substitute products.

6. This EPC is conditionally issued to the qualifying entity, however it should be noted that from 01 January 2025, no PRCs will be issued unless the required APDP2 B-BBEE levels are adhered to.

Yours faithfully

ANNEXURE 1.4

GUIDELINES, RULES AND CONDITIONS PERTAINING TO PERMITS ISSUED UNDER REBATE ITEM 317.06/00.00/05.00 and 317.06/00.00/06.00 FOR AUTOMOTIVE COMPONENTS FOR USE IN THE MANUFACURE OF ORIGINAL EQUIPMENT COMPONENTS AS DEFINED IN CHAPTER 98 OF SCHEDULE NO.01 FOR SUPPLY TO A SPECIFIED MOTOR VEHICLE MANUFACTURE REGISTERED UNDER REBATE ITEM 317.04 and 317.07 IMPORTED BY COMPONENTS MANUFACTURES.

1.1 This document serves to provide reference and procedural guidelines applicable to applications for permits in terms of rebate provision of 317.06/00.00/05.00 and 317.06/00.00/06.00. This document therefore addresses the guidelines, rules and conditions applicable to the aforementioned rebate item and the permit application process to be followed by applicants.

2. REBATE PROVISION

2.1 Rebate item 317.06/00.00/05.00 and 317.06/00.00/06.00 of Schedule No. 3, Part 2 of the Customs and Excise Act No. 91 of 1964 (Customs and Excise Act) makes provision for rebate of the full duty on the:

"Importation of automotive components for use in the manufacture of original components as defined in Chapter 98 of Schedule No.1 for supply to a specified motor vehicle manufacturer registered under rebate item 317.04 imported by component manufacturers; and Automotive components for use in the manufacture of original equipment components as defined in Chapter 98 of Schedule No. 1 for supply to a heavy vehicle manufacturer registered under rebate item 317.07, imported by component manufacturers."

3. APPLICATION PROCEDURES

3.1 The applicant shall provide International Trade Commission of South Africa (ITAC) with the required information as per the relevant application form (Annexure A1.5). Should the space provided in the application form not be sufficient, applicants may use the format of the application form as a guide for the format in which the required information should be submitted.

3.2 For the purposes of this rebate "automotive components" means a new article which can be identified as being suitable for use in the manufacture of motor vehicles manufactured under rebate items 317.04 and 317.07 or original equipment components, including carpet cut to floor pan shape, leather seat covers cut to size, unfinished articles, including blanks and rough castings, having the essential character of automotive components.

3.3 Qualifying products under the rebate provision are automotive sub-components for use in the manufacture of original equipment automotive components, for supply for online fitment in the SACU region.

Original applications should be delivered to Mr. T. Sejamoholo and Ms. Lerato Mnyakeni at tsejamoholo@itac.org.za and nthwala@itac.org.za, respectively.

Or to the ITAC Drop Box located at:

The dtic Campus

3.5 Should an application be found to be deficient, it will not be further processed and the applicant will be informed accordingly. An application will be regarded as deficient if the following is found:

I. The application is not submitted in the correct format;
II. The application does not comply with the guidelines, rules and conditions as set out in this document;
III. The requested information is not submitted;
IV. The application contains conflicting or incorrect information.

Applicants who submit deficient applications must re-submit duly completed application forms to replace the deficient application forms, should they wish to proceed.

3.6 Applications must be made well in advance of the shipment of the goods, as rebate permits will not be issued retrospectively. Applicants should allow an issuance period of fourteen (14) days from date ITAC received a properly documented and duly completed application.

3.7 The permits are issued at the discretion of the ITAC. Should the application be rejected, the applicant will be informed in writing of the decision and the reasons therefore to enable the application to determine their appropriate recourse.

4. APPLICABLE CONDITIONS

4.1 Once approved, applicant must submit the ITAC approval letter, to SARS Customs office to final registration. Applicants must comply with the provisions of the Customs and Excise Act, the ITA Act and all other South African legislation relating to the requirements for the importation of such goods into the Republic of South Africa, which are relevant to the transaction.

4.2 Any request for an amendment of the rebate permit will only be considered when an error was made by ITAC upon the issuance of a permit.

Note: No amendments will be effected in instances where the applicant was responsible for the submission of incorrect information. In such instances a new application will be required.

4.3 Should the concerned party misplace a rebate permit; the applicant will be required to submit an application for a re-issue in the form of an affidavit. This must clearly set out the circumstances giving rise to the loss of the original permit and show good cause or reasons why a substitute permit must be issued. ITAC may consider issuing a replacement of the lost original permit provided the above is duly submitted.

4.4 ITAC may satisfy itself as to the accuracy of the information supplied to it by the applicant by conducting verifications at such time and place as it deems necessary, including verification visits at the premises of the applicant that provided the information.

4.5 ITAC may inform the applicant concerned of the dates of the intended visit, and where such information is provided, the verification will be conducted on those dates.

4.6 Following a verification visit, ITAC shall compile a verification report indicating what information was verified and may make same available to the applicant.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE ADMINISTRATION COMMISSION OF SOUTH AFRICA

Production Rebate Certificate (PRC) Illustrative Reasonable Assurance Report

Assurance provider's/auditor's letterhead

The Board of Directors/Members [Company/close corporation name]
Our Ref:
[Date]

Dear Sirs

INDEPENDENT ASSURANCE PROVIDER'S REPORT[1] ON APPLICATION FOR A PRODUCTION REBATE CERTIFICATE

We have undertaken a reasonable assurance engagement of the accompanying Application for a Production Rebate Certificate (PRC) (the Application), with Reference No. <insert reference number> dated <insert date>, of <insert company/close corporation name> (the Company/Close Corporation), amounting to <insert amount per A2>. We have initialed the Application for identification purposes.

The Directors'/Members' Responsibility for the Application

The directors/members are responsible for the preparation of the Application in accordance with the requirements of Part C of Phase 2 of the Automotive Production and Development Programme (APDP2) Regulations (the Regulations) and the Detailed Information on Production Rebate Certificates (PRCs) (Info Doc A/<insert latest available version>) (the Guidelines) issued by the International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa (ITAC). This responsibility includes the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation of the Application that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

[1] When the registered auditor is the auditor of the entity the heading may read 'Independent auditor's report on … ' instead of 'Independent assurance provider's report'.

Our Independence and Quality Control

We have complied with the Code of Professional Conduct for Registered Auditors issued by the Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors, which includes independence and other requirements founded on fundamental principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and professional behavior.

In accordance with International Standard on Quality Control (ISQC) 1, Quality Control for Firms that Perform Audits and Reviews of Financial Statements, and Other Assurance and Related Services Engagements, we maintain a comprehensive system of quality control including documented policies and procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Our Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Application based on the evidence we have obtained. We conducted our reasonable assurance engagement in accordance with the International Standard on Assurance Engagements 3000, Assurance Engagements other than Audits or Reviews of Historical Financial Information (ISAE 3000), issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board. That standard requires that we plan and perform this engagement to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Application is free from material misstatement.

A reasonable assurance engagement in accordance with ISAE 3000 involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Application. The nature, timing and extent of procedures selected depend on the assurance provider's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, in the Application. In making those risk assessments, we considered internal control relevant to the Company's/Close Corporation's preparation of the Application.

Our reasonable assurance engagement also includes[2]:

- Enquiring of management, and where appropriate, those charged with governance regarding the entity's compliance with the requirements of the Regulations and the Guidelines.
- Obtaining and documenting an understanding of the entity's business activities and the processes and systems for preparing the Application.

[2] To be adapted as necessary. It is not intended that the procedures described are as detailed as in a work programme.

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

- Evaluating the design and testing the implementation and operating effectiveness of controls that are relevant, to ensure the proper preparation of the Application.
- Selecting a sample of items included in the application and agreeing the information therein to the entity's underlying accounting and production records, appropriate source documentation, and re-performing calculations, as appropriate.
- Inspecting evidence of payments received in respect of sales made prior to submission of the Application.
- Obtaining appropriate written representations from management.

We believe that the evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the Application by <insert company/close corporation name> dated <insert date> is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the requirements of the Regulations and the Guidelines.

Restriction on Distribution and Use of this Report

Our report is intended only for the addressee and ITAC for the purpose indicated in the introductory paragraph and may not be suitable for another purpose. Consequently, our report and the Application should not be distributed to or used by other parties.

(e) The sales values shown represent normal commercial prices negotiated at arm's-length and have not been either over- or under-invoiced;

(f) All sales amounts invoiced in respect of the goods applied for, have been received in South Africa;

(g) I accept that the decision by the International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa, as to the determination of the values of production rebate credit certificates, will be final and conclusive and that the said Commission may at any time conduct or order that a full-scale investigation be conducted to verify any information furnished in the application form;

(h) I understand that the International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa relies on and can call on me as far as the correctness of this declaration is concerned;

(i) The information furnished in this application is true and correct and I understand that the furnishing of incorrect information as far as this application is concerned, can lead to disqualification from participation and forfeiture of all benefits in terms of the programme whereupon the applicant will be required to refund any benefits received, to which measures I unconditionally agree;

(j) The applicant or any one of its associates or related party is not the subject of an investigation by either the South African Police Services, the Office for Serious Economic Offences, the International Trade Administration Commission of South Africa or the Commissioner for the South African Revenue Service.

ANNEXURE A7

APDP2 STANDARD MATERIAL AND COMPONENT DECLARATION

1. Under the APDP2 the final manufacturer of specified motor vehicles and automotive components or tooling will qualify for a production incentive (PI) based on local value added at the applicable duty rate.

2. All participants are obliged to submit SMD and all participants (excluding material suppliers) must comply with the relevant B-BBEE provisions as set out in the Table below.

3. All participants (excluding material suppliers) must submit a valid B-BBEE certificate of compliance, or sworn affidavit for Exempted Micro Enterprise (EME), as defined in the B-BBEE Codes of Good Practice ("Codes") according to the B-BBEE Act No 53 of 2003 as Amended by Act No 46 of 2013 as well as showing compliance to the levels in Table below. Alternatively, participants that are unable to meet the B-BBEE requirements as stipulated in the Table below, must provide evidence of contributing to the Transformation Fund and these must be available for verification purposes by ITAC.

YEAR	COMPONENTS & TOOLING MANUFACTURERS	ORIGINAL EQUIPMENT MANUFACTURERS (OEMs)	NEW ENTRANTS
2021	No requirement to comply	Level 6 (six)	36 months from the start of production date in SA, to reach the applicable levels.
2022	No requirement to comply	Level 4 (four)
2023	No requirement to comply	Level 4 (four)
2024	No requirement to comply	Level 4 (four)
2025	Level 6 (six)	Level 4 (four)
2026	Level 4 (four)	Level 4 (four)

4. All participants (excluding materials suppliers) that are unable to meet the B-BBEE requirements as stipulated in the Table above may be considered after contributing to a Transformation Fund managed by the Automotive Industry Transformation Fund (AITF). Entry to this fund will require the participants (excluding material suppliers) to hold a minimum B-BBEE level 8 by 2024 to be deemed level 6 by 01 January 2025 and a minimum B-BBEE level 6 by 2025 to be deemed level 4 by 01 January 2026.

DRAFT VERSION

5. New manufacturing enterprises (excluding material suppliers) in South Africa must be B-BBEE compliant in terms of the B-BBEE codes no later than thirty-six (36) months from the start of production date in South Africa.

6. All participants must deem the value addition from non-compliant suppliers (excluding material suppliers) as non-qualifying at the weighted average purchase price in the quarter in which the SMD is received.

7. Standard Material

7.1 Only 25% of the value of the following local standard material will qualify as local value added, the value will be referred to as standard value added (SVA):

7.1.1 Aluminium;
7.1.2 Brass;
7.1.3 Leather
7.1.4 Platinum group metals
7.1.5 Stainless steel: and 7.1.6 Steel

7.2 Only 50% of the value of the following EV battery standard material will qualify as local value added when sourced in the SACU and SADC regions. The value will be referred to as standard value added (SVA):

7.2.1 Iron
7.2.2 Lithium
7.2.3 Graphite
7.2.4 Copper
7.2.5 Cobalt
7.2.6 Manganese
7.2.7 Nickel
7.2.8 Sodium carbonate (“Soda ash”)
7.2.9 Fluorspar
7.2.10 Copper
7.2.11 Titanium
7.2.12 Vanadium

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

Although the standard material value will roll up the production chain only the entity applying for the PI will calculate the SVA. As with Form C2s, all participants are urged to calculate the SVA as accurately as possible in order to ensure a level playing field and the ultimate success of the programme.

8. The value of standard materials, EV battery standard material, and non-standard materials/components will be declared on form SMD (Standard Materials and components Declaration).

9. Find attached Annexure A7.1 (APDP2 STANDARD MATERIALS AND COMPONENTS DECLARATION) and Annexure A7.2 (APDP2 STANDARD MATERIALS AND COMPONENTS DECLARATION: CONTINUATION SHEET). Annexure A7.3 provides an explanation on the information required.

The following should be noted:

9.1 To simplify the calculation process statistics and values applicable to the previous quarter will be used.

9.2 The manufacturer of standard material and EV battery standard material will determine the standard value of such material, which will be the weighted average selling price of the previous quarter.

9.3 For ease of understanding, compliance with B-BBEE requirements are not considered in the example below

If the standard material supplier also imports “standard” material a weighted average standard material and non-standard material value should be calculated. Example: If a local steel mill manufactures steel adhering to certain specifications, and if the local steel mill should also import steel adhering to the same specifications of the local manufactured steel, the applicable SMD must indicate the weighted average standard material and non-standard material value.

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

9.4 It is not necessary for a supplier of only non-standard material to issue a SMD, the user of such material must calculate the weighted average purchase price of the previous quarter and enter the value as non-standard material on the SMD prepared by itself. Example: If a local steel mill imports steel adhering to a certain specification, as it is (for example) not capable of manufacturing steel of said specification, it will not be necessary to issue an SMD, the user of the steel will calculate the value thereof by basing it on its weighted average purchase value of the previous quarter.

A supplier of components, regardless of whether the component is only manufactured from non-standard materials, must supply a SMD showing the value of standard and non-standard materials utilized in the manufacture of the component.

9.5 Participants are advised to familiarize themselves with Info Doc C (declaration of imported content) as the principles of the calculation are similar.

9.6 If no SMD was received the weighted average purchase price of the previous quarter must be deemed the non-standard material value.

9.7 Manufacturers using high value imported sub-components/assemblies in their manufacturing process may use the actual purchase price of such sub-components/assemblies (no need for weighted average values) if allowed by administrative/financial systems and if such sub-components/assemblies have a unique identification number.

9.8 Where a component/material is supplied for the first time, it may be necessary to base the standard and non-standard material values on purchases during the same quarter.

9.9 Where no imports occur during a particular quarter or where the prices at which the goods were purchased are not representative of normal transaction values, the previous quarter's weighted average purchase price per unit will apply.

9.10 Values must be entered in Rand and should not be expressed as a percentage or as a foreign currency.

9.11 Consumables are not identifiable as integral or visible parts of the end product, such as petrol, distillate fuels, packing/wrapping, lubricating grease and prepared lubricating oils for engine,

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

gearbox, steering case and drive-axle, etc should be excluded from standard and non-standard material values.

9.12 Materials and goods in bulk, such as steel sheeting, adhesives and paint, and goods that require cutting to length or shape, such as carpet in rolls and electrical cable, are not considered to be automotive components.

9.13 The calculation of standard and non-standard material values must be done on a formal basis and working papers in this regard must be kept in safe custody for a period of five years from the date of the SMD and be available to officials of the ITAC upon request, for purposes of verification.

9.14 The final manufacturer shall be liable for correctness of the SMD forms received from its supplier. In the event that an ITAC verification audit reveals any inconsistency, the final manufacturer shall be held accountable.

9.15 Standard and non-standard material values on any loss associated with the production process must be shown as non-standard material.

9.16 It is currently not necessary for first tier suppliers, as in the case with the FORM C2, to have their systems to calculate standard and non-standard material values audited on an annual basis.

9.17 It should be noted that the values on the SMD should be applicable to 1x component only and not a summary of total components as per the invoice or the total quantity supplied during a quarter.

9.18 The SMD will be valid for the period indicate on it making it unnecessary to issue multiple documents for the same product during an effective period.

9.19 If a SMD certificate is not obtained, or if the SMD is not duly completed, the relevant user must deem the applicable goods as non-qualifying.

9.20 Motor vehicle manufacturers, component manufacturers and component suppliers to the motor vehicle industry must obtain an SMD indicating the value in respect of each type of material/component received during a quarter, i.e. the quarters ending 31 March, 30 June, 30 September and 31 December. If an SMD is not obtained for the quarter in which the components or materials were supplied, or if an SMD is not duly completed, the user must deem the applicable goods as non-qualifying at the weighted average purchase price.

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

10. Quarterly lag principle

When the final manufacturer applies for a PRC the application must be accompanied by a SMD indicating how the SVA was calculated. To simplify matters and to prevent the daily calculation of the SVA and SMD the final manufacturer will calculate it once a quarter using its own financial information of the previous quarter. The SMD will be applicable to the quarter in which it was calculated. The same principle will apply to the 1st, 2nd, 3rd (etc) tier suppliers and/or manufacturers of the applicable goods.

The same principle used to calculate the SMV must be used to calculate non qualifying material values.

10.1 The following example illustrates the quarterly lag principle, using the leather interior industry as an example and it should be noted that for ease of understanding, compliance with B-BBEE requirements are not considered in the example below and treatment of non-compliance to B-BBEE requirements are provided in examples A7.7.

10.2 The final manufacturer (Sewer) will calculate a SMD which will be applicable to stitched leather seats sold during the quarter, for example, 01/01/2021 to 31/03/2021 and will base its calculations on its own financial information of the quarter 01/10/2020 to 31/12/2020. The Sewer will, amongst other, determine from its purchase records the total m² leather parts purchased from an Automotive Tanner and other purchases (yarn, glue, sponge, PVC, etc) made by itself. The SMV, non-standard material value and imported value per m² leather will be derived from the SMD supplied by the Automotive Tanner whilst the Sewer will determine non-standard material value and imported value applicable to its “other” purchases. The Sewer will, by using aforesaid values, determine the SMV, non-standard material value and imported value for a specific automotive leather seat cover and will declare such values on its own SMD. The SMD thus calculated will cover all sales by the Sewer of the applicable automotive leather seat covers during the period 01/01/2021 to 31/03/2021.

10.3 The Automotive Tanner issuing the SMD (to the Sewer) with the effective date 01/10/2020 to 31/12/2020 will base its calculation on its own financial information applicable to the quarter

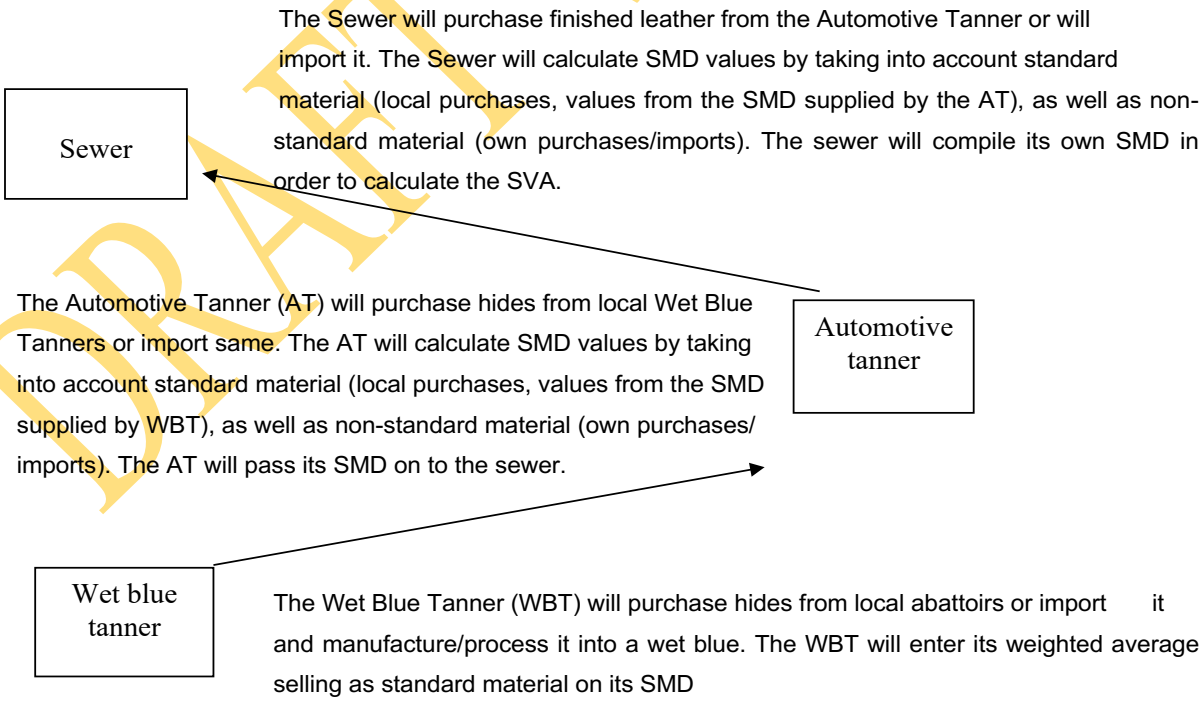

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

01/07/2020 to 30/09/2020. The Automotive Tanner will, amongst other, determine from its purchase records the total m² wet blues purchased from a Wet Blue Tanner and other purchases (chemicals, paint pigments, etc) made by itself. The SMV, non-standard material value and imported value per m² wet blue will be derived from the SMD supplied by the Wet Blue Tanner whilst the Automotive Leather Tanner will determine non-standard material value and imported value applicable to its "other" purchases. The Automotive Tanner will, by using aforesaid values, determine the SMV, non-standard material value and imported value applicable to a m² of leather and will declare such values on its own SMD. The SMD thus calculated will cover all sales by the Automotive Leather Tanner of the applicable leather parts during the period 01/10/2020 to 31/12/2020.

10.4 The Wet Blue Tanner issuing the SMD with the effective date 01/07/2020 to 30/09/2020 will base its calculation on its financial information applicable to the quarter 01/04/2020 to 30/06/2020. If the Wet Blue Tanner does no import wet blues it will, amongst other, determine from its sales records the weighted average selling price per m² hides and enter it on its SMD as standard material.

11. To illustrate the flow of SMDs

DRAFT VERSION

12. The SMD for a specific quarter must be made available to the users thereof within 14 days of the beginning of the quarter to which it relates.

13. It should be noted that any incorrect information supplied on a SMD certificate or the annexures thereto, can render the whole document null and void and may result in the purchase price of all items being regarded as non-standard material.

14. The certificates in question, together with the underlying documents, books of account plus production records substantiating the certificates, must be kept in safe custody by motor vehicle manufacturers, component manufacturers and suppliers for at least five years and be available to officials of ITAC upon request for purposes of verification.

15. Should a manufacturer not make all relevant documentations available within a period of 30 days of request of information, ITAC shall treat the declared values on products as to be equal to the selling price. Alternatively keep all PRC claims on hold in a case of a PRC verification until such time that the requested information has been submitted, assessed and verification is concluded by ITAC officials.

16. Should ITAC elect to verify the correctness of the SMD certificate the bill of material of the applicable concern will be used as a starting point.

ANNEXURE A7.4

EXAMPLE: CALCULATION OF STANDARD VALUES APPLICABLE TO THE MANUFACTURE OF A TOW BALL

Steel is supplied to a Tow Ball manufacturer who manufactures tow balls, 1 x kg steel is used to manufacture a tow ball, the product is deemed a qualifying product by ITAC. For ease of understanding, compliance to B-BBEE requirements are not considered in the example below.

Example 1: 100% local material

1.1 For purposes of the exercise, it is assumed that the steel used is a 100% South African product, find attached Annexure A7.4.1 for an example of the SMV issued by the steel manufacturer. Please note that the steel supplier indicates that the unit of measurement is "kilograms" and that the standard value of the steel is R10 per kilogram.

1.2 If the tow ball manufacturer only purchases steel from one supplier, and if no other materials are used, the standard value applicable to the final product will be R10.

1.3 If the tow ball manufacturer purchases steel from various local manufacturers the standard material value per kilogram will be based on a weighted average value.

1.4 In the example below it is assumed that the tow ball manufacturer purchased steel from Company A (100 kilograms, unit price = R10 per kilogram) Company B (150 kilograms, unit price = R11.33 per kilogram) and Company C (250 kilograms, unit price = R11.20). The unit prices were obtained from the SMDs received from suppliers, see Annexure A7.4.1. For the SMD received from Company A.

1.5 The weighted average standard value per kilogram (for say component Z12) is calculated as follows:

PRC value = VA x PI Factor X Duty rate

PRC Value = R11.75 x 62.5 %(PI) x 20% Duty rate = R 1.47

2. Example 2: Local and imported material

2.1 In the example below it is assumed that the tow ball manufacturer purchased local steel from Company A (200 kilograms, unit price = R10 per kilogram) and also imported 200kg steel for R3000. The unit price for the local steel was obtained from the SMD received from Company A whilst the value and weight on imported steel was secured from customs documentation.

2.2 The weighted average standard value per kilogram (for say component Z13) is calculated as follows:

COMPONENT – Z13		VALUES in - R

See Annexure A7.4.2 for an example of the SMD issued.

2.3 The tow ball manufacturer applying for a PRC will calculate the SVA per unit as follows, if it is assumed that the selling price of the tow ball is R20 per unit:

2.4 Component Z13	Z13
Selling price	R20.00

EXAMPLE: CALCULATION OF STANDARD VALUES APPLICABLE TO THE MANUFACTURE OF STITCHED LEATHER SEAT COVERS

1. A wet blue tanner purchase hides from a local abattoir/trader and import pickled hides from abroad. The hides are manufactured/processed into a wet blue or wet white (wet blue). The wet blue tanner will calculate its weighted average selling price, by making use of its financial information applicable to the previous quarter and enter the value as "standard material - leather" on its SMD. For ease of understanding, compliance to B-BBEE requirements are not considered in the example below.

   Please note that wet blues are deemed to be a standard material.

2. In the example below it was assumed that the wet blue tanner purchased:

   - 1 000 hides and manufactured/processed it into wet blues;
   - 200 wet blues from a supplier in Australia.

WET BLUES		VALUES in - R
DATE	Units (hides)	Standard material	Non-standard material	Imported component/ material	Total
31/03/2020 (own production)	1 000	200 000	0	0	200 000

DRAFT VERSION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

The wet blue tanner supplies the wet blues to an automotive tanner, see attached Annexure A7.5.1 for an example of the SMD.

3. The automotive tanner can also import wet blues, and together with local wet blues process it into finished leather. The local finished leather together with imported finished leather are processed and trimmed into leather parts and supplied to a sewer.

The automotive tanner will secure the standard values per wet blue from the SMD supplied by the wet blue tanner whilst the value and number applicable to imported finished leather will be obtained from its customs documentation.
In the calculation below it was assumed that the automotive tanner purchased:

- 500 wet blues from the wet blue tanner in 1, standard and non-standard values were obtained from the SMD in Annexure A7.5.1;
- 400 wet blues abroad, values were obtained from customs documentation;
- 100 wet blues from another local wet blue tanner, standard and non-standard values were obtained from the applicable SMD;
- 400 m² of finished leather abroad, values were obtained from customs documentation.
- Local chemicals and paint with a value of R60 000.

The SVA per M² will be calculated on a weighted average basis and may read as follows:

FINISHED LEATHER		VALUES in - R

Hides and wet blues are normally purchased in units, kilograms or square meters. In the example it was assumed that one hide equals 4 square meters (m²). See attached Annexure A7.5.2 for an example of the SMD.

4. The sewer can also import trimmed finished leather, and together with local trimmed finished leather produce an automotive leather seat cover.

The sewer will secure the standard values local trimmed finished leather from the SMD supplied by the automotive tanner whilst the value and number applicable to imported trimmed finished leather will be obtained from its customs documentation.

In the calculation below it was assumed that the sewer purchased:

- Trimmed finished leather from the automotive tanner in 1, standard and non-standard values were obtained from the SMD in Annexure A7.5.2;

- Yarns, glues, PVC, sponges, heating pads etc. abroad

The calculation of the VA applicable to a stitched leather seat may look as follows, if 4.25 m² finished leather is needed for one seat:

ANNEXURE A7.6

EXAMPLE: CALCULATION OF THE VA APPLICABLE TO A CATALYTIC CONVERTER

1. PGM ore is mined and supplied to Refiners who refine it into a sponge. The sponge is sold to a Coater or Sponsor (OEM). The Sponsor never physically receives the sponge as it is delivered to either a Coater or Digester. The Digester will process the sponge into a concentrate or salt and supply it to a Coater who will apply it to a substrate. Some Coaters also render a digesting service.

   See attached Annexure A7.6.1 for an example of the SMD from the Refiner.

2. For ease of understanding, compliance to B-BBEE requirements are not considered in the following example. In the following examples it is assumed that although the sponge is sold to a Sponsor it was delivered to a Digester. The Digester processes the sponge into a concentrate or salt and supplies it to a Coater who in turn supplies the coated substrate to a Canner. The right to apply for a PRC lies with the Canner who is the final manufacturer.

2.1 Sponsor: In the example it is assumed that the Sponsor not only purchases sponge from 2x local Refiners but also imports sponge. The SVA per PGM type will be calculated on a weighted average basis and may read as follows:

SPONGE – SPONSOR		VALUES in - R
DATE	Units (Troy oz.)	Standard material	Non-standard material	Imported component/ material	Total
01/01/2020	100	167 000	0	0	167 000

See attached Annexure A7.6.2 for an example of the SMD.

For purposes of this exercise, it is assumed that the Sponsor will free issue the concentrate or salt to a Coater whilst the Canner will be charged with the cost of the metal.

2.2 Digester: The mine delivers the sponge to a Digester who is not necessarily the owner of it. The Digester, who can also be the coater, processes the sponge into a concentrate or salt and supplies it to a Coater. In the Example below it is assumed that the Digester recovers the cost of digesting from the Coater.

Chemicals used in the processing are deemed to be a non-standard material.

See attached Annexure A7.6.3 for an example of the SMD.

2.3 Substrate: The Coater will buy substrates from a local concern or will import it himself. The local supplier of the substrate will either “fire” or import it. If he should “fire” it he will import “logs” and may performs the following VA calculation:

2.4 The Coater processes concentrate or salt into a slurry/wash coat and applies it to a substrate, after coating the substrate is referred to as an auto catalyst. Chemicals used in the processing are assumed to be a non-standard material.

The Sponsor will inform the Coater about loading specifications. Chemicals used in the processing are deemed to be a non-standard material.

The SVA per coated substrate PGM type will be calculated on a weighted average basis and may look as follows assuming that the cost is applicable to 1000 substrates:

2.5 The Stainless-Steel Supplier will supply stainless steel to the canner as well as a SMD indicating the local value added. Other materials purchases will be deemed to be non-qualifying material.

2.6 The Canner, as the final manufacturer, will calculate the final SMD and submit it with its claim for a PRC to ITAC or the local purchaser (if an OEM). The VA will display the following values, assuming that the cost will be applicable to 500 catalytic converters:

ANNEXURE A7.7- EXAMPLES OF CALCULATING SMD AND FORM C2 VALUES WHEN TAKING INTO ACCOUNT COMPLIANCE TO B-BBEE REQUIREMENTS UNDER THE APDP2.

STANDARD MATERIALS AND COMPONENT DECLARATION AND FORM C2 EXAMPLES WITH B-BBEE IMPLEMENTATION (material suppliers are not required to comply with the B-BBEE requirements under the APDP2):

NB: The calculations below are referring to Tier 1 to the OEM for example purposes, however the same calculations are also applicable to all APDP participants (excluding material suppliers) within the automotive value chain.

EXAMPLE 1: Tier 1 purchases and declarations from Tier 2 and own imports.

The following is an example of how suppliers (excluding material suppliers) who are not compliant to B-BBEE requirements under the APDP2 are required to complete their declarations. For ease of understanding in this example Tier 1 is compliant to the B-BBEE level as per the APDP2 requirements. Tier 1 purchases materials from two Tier 2 suppliers (1 compliant and 1 non-compliant) and components from one compliant Tier 2 supplier. Tier 1 further imports its own components.

Explanation of the purchases made by Tier 1 from Tier 2 suppliers & own import:

- Tier 1 purchases standard material from a B-BBEE compliant Tier 2 supplier at a purchase price of R200 per kg. Tier 2 provided Tier 1 with an SMD declarations of the standard material declared at R100 per kg;
- Tier 1 purchases non-standard material from a non-compliant B-BBEE Tier 2 supplier at a purchase price of R300 each. Tier 2 provided Tier 1 with an SMD and Form C2 declarations. The Form C2 reflected that Tier 2 supplier directly imported material at a value of R20 and further added other local non-standard material valued at R180, resulting to a total non-standard material of R200 declared on the SMD supplied to Tier 1;
- Tier 1 purchases components from a compliant Tier 2 supplier at a purchase price of R60 each. Tier 2 provided Tier 1 with an SMD and Form C2 declarations. The Form C2 shows that Tier 2 supplier directly imported components at a value of R40 and supplied these components to Tier 1. The SMD supplied to Tier 1 also shows a non-standard material value of R40 as there were no other components or materials that Tier 2 supplier added to the imported components supplied to Tier 1;
- Tier 1 directly imported its own components at a value of R500 each.

Explanation of the Form C2 and SMD calculation for a B-BBBE complaint Tier 1:

- Tier 1 purchased standard materials from a compliant Tier 2 supplier at a purchase price of R200 per kg, however Tier 2 declared the raw material as standard material to Tier 1 at a value of R100 per KG on its SMD. Tier 1 has only utilized 0.5 kg of the total material purchased from Tier 2 in its manufacturing process and therefore Tier 1 will declare a value of R50 (R100 *0.5) under standard material column of its SMD that will be declared to the OEM.

- Tier 1 purchased non-standard material from a non-compliant Tier 2 supplier at a purchase price of R300 each, however Tier 2 declared the raw material as non-standard material to Tier 1 at a value of R200 each on its SMD. Out of the non-standard material value of R200 declared by Tier 2 to Tier 1 on its SMD, material worth R20 was imported and R180 worth of material sourced locally by Tier 2.Tier 1 utilized 2 of each raw material sourced from Tier 2 in its manufacturing process and therefore Tier 1 will declare a value of R400 (R200*2) under non-standard material column of its SMD that will be declared to the OEM. Furthermore, Tier 1 will declare a value of R40 (R20*2) under the imported raw material column on the Form C2 to be declared to the OEM. Non- compliant material suppliers are not subjected to B-BBEE requirements under the APDP2, therefore the value at which the material is declared on the SMD or Form C2 by Tier 2 supplier will be the same value that Tier 1 will use to calculate its SMD or Form C2 declarations to the OEM.

- Tier 1 purchased components from a compliant Tier 2 supplier at a purchase price of R60 each. The components were imported by the Tier 2 supplier and supplied to Tier 1. Tier 2 supplier provided an SMD declaration to Tier 1 with a non-standard material value of R40 and a Form C2 with imported component for both duty and VALA declared at a value of R40 each. Tier 1 utilized two of the components sourced from Tier 2 supplier in its manufacturing process and therefore Tier 1 will declare a value of R80 (R40*2) under its non-standard material column of its own SMD that will be declared to the OEM. Furthermore, Tier 1 will also declare a value of R80 under the imported component column for both Duty and VALA on its own Form C2 to be declare to the OEM.

- Tier 1 imports its own components at a purchase price of R500 each. Tier 1 utilizes 1 imported component in its manufacturing process. Tier 1 supplier will declare a value of R500 (R500*1) under its non-standard material column of its own SMD that will be declared to the OEM. Furthermore, Tier 1 will declare a value of R500 under both imported component column for both Duty and VALA on the Form C2 which will be declared to the OEM.

- The total standard material value amounts to R50 and the total non-standard material value amounts to R980 on the SMD to be declared by Tier 1 to the OEM;

- The total imported component value for duty will be R580, the total imported component value for VALA will be R580 and the total imported raw material will be R40 on the Form C2 to be declared by Tier 1 to the OEM.

- Tier 1 purchased components from a non- compliant Tier 2 supplier at a purchase price of R60 each. The components were imported by the Tier 2 supplier and supplied to Tier 1. Tier 2 supplier provided an SMD declaration to Tier 1 with a non-standard material value of R60 and a Form C2 with imported component for both duty at a value of R40 and VALA declared at a value R60 each. Tier 1 utilized two of the components sourced from Tier 2 supplier in its manufacturing process and therefore Tier 1 will declare a value of R120 (R60*2) under its non-standard material column of its own SMD that will be declared to the OEM. Furthermore, Tier 1 will also declare a value of R120 (R60*2) under the imported component column for VALA and a value of R80 (R40*2) for the imported component column for duty on its own Form C2 to declare to the OEM.

- Tier 1 imports its own components at a purchase price of R500 each. Tier 1 utilizes 1 imported component in its manufacturing process. Tier 1 supplier will declare a value of R500 (R500*1) under its non-standard material column of its own SMD that will be declared to the OEM. Explanation of SMD and Form C2 calculation of a compliant Tier 1 supplier who purchases materials and components from Tier 2 suppliers who do not provide SMD and Form C2 declarations:

- Tier 1 is compliant to B-BBEE level and receives material and components from Tier 2 supplier who are either compliant or non-compliant but who do not provide any SMD or Form C2 declarations for the materials and components supplied must base their SMD and Form C2 calculations on the full purchase prices of the materials and components sourced from all Tier 2 suppliers.

- In this case purchase price based on local tax invoices received from Tier 2 suppliers will be used to calculate the non-standard material values that Tier 1 will declare on its SMD to be supplied to an OEM.

* In a case where import documentations are received from Tier 2 supplier who imported components or materials on behalf of Tier 1, then Tier 1 supplier is required to calculate the imported content values by making use of customs documentations received from Tier 2 supplier to declared values under a Form C2 that Tier 1 will supply to the OEM.

Example 4: Tier 1 purchases and declares from Tier 2 and Own Import, however Tier 1 is non-compliant to B-BBEE level as per the APDP2 requirements:

Tier 1 is non- compliant to B-BBEE level as per the APDP2 requirements. Tier 1 purchases materials from 2 Tier 2 suppliers (1 compliant and 1 non-compliant) and components from 1 compliant Tier 2 supplier. Tier 1 further imports its own components.

Explanation of the Form C2 and SMD calculation for a B-BBBE non- complaint Tier 1:

- Tier 1 is non- compliant to B-BBEE level as per the APDP2 requirements. Tier 1 is purchasing raw materials from two Tier 2 suppliers (1 who is compliant and 1 who is non-compliant), components from one compliant Tier 2 supplier and directly imports components. Tier 1 receives SMD and Form C2 declarations from his Tier 2 material and component suppliers.

- The raw materials supplied by Tier 2 suppliers which Tier 1 incorporate in his SMD/ Form C2 calculations to be declared to the OEM will be calculated by making use of the SMD and Form C2 values declared by Tier 2 suppliers as these categories are not subjected to B-BBEE compliance requirements. In a case where Tier 2 material suppliers do not supply any SMD/Form C2 to Tier 1, the full purchase price will be utilized by Tier 1 to calculate their own SMD/Form C2 values.

DRAFT NOT FOR PUBLICATION

This gazette is also available free online at www.gpwonline.co.za

- The values declared by the compliant Tier 2 component suppliers will be multiplied by the BOM usage to determine the value of the non-standard material, imported component for duty, imported component for VALA as the supplier is compliant and has provided their declarations to tier 1. In a case where Tier 2 component supplier does not supply any SMD/Form C2 to Tier 1, the full purchase price will be utilized by Tier 1 to calculate their own SMD/Form C2 values.

- Tier 1 is also required to calculate his own value addition by calculating the total cost of materials/components used in its production process by making use of the full purchase of its supplier multiplying the costs with the BOM usages to determine the cost price of the final product.

- The calculated total cost price will be deducted from the selling price of the final product that Tier 1 is selling to the OEM to determine value addition on the product supplied.

- Tier 1's value addition will be added to the calculated non-standard material values as well as the imported component values for VALA to determine the total non-standard material value and the total imported component value for VALA which Tier 1 will declare to the OEM.

IRBA

BOARD NOTICE

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS TO SERVE ON THE IRBA'S EDUCATION, TRAINING AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE (EDCOM) APPOINTMENT OF FOUR (4) MEMBERS

The Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors (IRBA) is a statutory body established in terms of Section 3 of the Auditing Profession Act (Act No. 26 of 2005), as amended.

In terms of Section 20(2)(c) of the Auditing Profession Act, No. 26 of 2005, the IRBA Board must establish an education, training and professional development committee.

The duties of the EDCOM include making recommendations to the Board regarding the:

- Accreditation and monitoring of professional bodies,
- Requirements relating to continued education, training and professional development,
- Training and professional competency requirements,
- Registration of RAs where an assessment of their competence is required
- Objectives of transformation in the profession and
- Education and research relating to matters affecting the auditing profession.

The IRBA hereby calls for nominations for four (4) new members onto the EDCOM. In making its decision on who should serve on EDCOM, the IRBA shall consider, among others, the following:

- Independence in mind, fact and appearance.
- Qualifications.
- Professional affiliations.
- Skills and experience.
- Race and gender.

Applicants are required to have experience and interest in the field of education, training and the professional development of professional accountants and auditors.

EDCOM requires members who have experience in one or more of the following areas:

- Accreditation and monitoring of professional bodies/organisations;
- Competency model development and/or implementation;
- Education of accountants and auditors;
- Educational psychology;
- Strategic knowledge and experience;
- Training management experience at an auditing firm; and

Tel 010 496 0600 Fax 086 482 3250 E-mail board@irba.co.za

- Transformation strategy implementation.

In addition, the following experience is required for each of the four (4) appointments:

- One (1) member from a large auditing firm, with experience in the training and development of RAs, and with trainees registered on the SAICA and ACCA programmes.
- One (1) member from a medium-sized auditing firm, with experience in the training and development of RAs, and with trainees registered on the SAICA and ACCA programmes.
- One (1) member from academia with experience in the delivery of the ACCA SA accredited education programme. Research conducted in the education and training of auditors would be advantageous.
- One (1) member from academia with experience in the delivery of the SAICA accredited education programme. Research conducted in the education and training of auditors would be advantageous.

A member of EDCOM, appointed in terms of Section 20(2)(c) of the Act, will hold office for a period not exceeding three years and may be reappointed. However, members may not serve more than two consecutive terms of office.

Eligible persons who meet the criteria for one of the above member requirements, and who wish to be considered for appointment, are invited to submit their applications by email to:

Nadine Kater
Director: Education and Transformation
Independent Regulatory Board for Auditors
E-mail: nkater@irba.co.za and cc mmoola@irba.co.za
Tel: +27 10 496 0594

Each application must include a curriculum vitae detailing the applicant's knowledge, experience and suitability as a committee member and a completed nomination form, which can be downloaded from the IRBA website at Committee application/nomination form. Please include a copy of your highest qualification with your application.

After the closing date, applications that meet the criteria set out above will be evaluated for the final decision to be made by the IRBA Board, subject to background checks.

The closing date for applications is 26 June 2026.
